I do certify the above is a true Copy of the Numbers that came up Prizes, in the Second Claſs of the Appoquinimink New Church Lottery,

ROBERT BAIL, Check-Clerk.

The above is a true Copy, compared with the Check-Book, by JOHN JONES, BENJAMIN NOXON, and RICHARD CANTWELL.

To be SOLD, by PUBLIC VENDUE, at DURHAM, on the Third Day of MAY next,

FORTY-FOUR TRACTS of LAND, being the lands bounded on Delaware, about 40 miles from the city of Philadelphia, well known by the name of The Durham Tract, divided into ſo many convenient farms. A furnace lately built, and the mine-hill, which contains a very great quantity of ore, of the beſt quality, are ſituate on one of them. Many of the others are extremely well watered, and contain great plenty of the beſt lime-ſtone; ſome of the tracts are already cleared for plantations, and one of them has a large quantity of the beſt watered meadow in the province, and, on many of them, more of the like quality may be made. The land is in general good, and well adapted to the raiſing wheat, barley, &c. which may be tranſported to Philadelphia, by water, at a very reaſonable rate. A more particular account of the quantities, qualities, and advantages of the ſeveral tracts, is as follows, viz.

No. 1. Containing 327 acres. On this lot there is a log houſe, about 60 acres of land, moſtly low, cleared, and about 10 acres of meadow may be made, the remainder has a great quantity of thriving young timber, with very good lime and ſand ſtone thereon; in general, Durham creek running through this tract into Delaware, forms a very commodious landing place and harbour for boats at the mouth, as well as a convenient ſeat for erecting mills, and in all probability will become a conſiderable place for trade and buſineſs.

No. 2. Containing 335 acres and 142 perches. This lot includes the Upper Forge and the Rattle-ſnake Hill, in which is certainly contained much iron ore; there is a conſtant ſpring at the foot of Rattle-ſnake Hill, and a good proportion of meadow may be made. Two thirds of this lot is extraordinary land for tillage, and there is a good body of young thriving timber, lime, and a ſort of free or ſand-ſtone thereon, very uſeful.

No. 3. Containing 232 acres-----Includes the ſtamping-mill, furnace and mine-hill, in which, perhaps, is the beſt iron ore hitherto diſcovered in America; about 20 acres of watered meadow may be made, and there is ſome good thriving young timber thereon.

No. 4. Containing 244 acres and 50 perches. This is the Manſion houſe Lot, ſo called---Is capable of being made an exceeding fine farm, there are 60 acres of extraordinary good watered meadow, and more may be made; about 50 acres of arable land cleared, a good orchard, a fine ſpring and ſpring-houſe, and ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 5. Containing 102 acres and 45 perches----Is a very good piece of land, has lime-ſtone, ſeveral good ſprings, and is well wooded.

No. 6. Containing 168 acres and 56 perches----Is a very good tract of arable land; very little ſtony or broken; ſome meadow may be made.

No. 7. Containing 147 acres and 129 perches----There are ſprings, and ſome meadow may be made on this tract.

No. 8. Containing 168 acres and 32 perches----A good piece of land, thriving young wood, ſome meadow and upland cleared, 20 acres of meadow ground may be made, and the greateſt part watered.

No. 9. Containing 183 acres and 78 perches----Is generally well ſet with young timber; a ſmall improvement thereon; much meadow may be made.

No. 10. Containing 205 acres and 53 perches----Contains very good arable land; the ſouthermoſt part takes in part of Bucket's Hill; it has two good ſprings, and ſome thriving young timber.

No. 11. Containing 267 acres and 150 perches----A very fine lot, a great deal of good arable land, ſix acres of meadow are cleared, and much more may be made; extraordinary ſprings of water, and lime-ſtone.

No. 12. Containing 164 acres----The greateſt part thereof is good arable land, three ſprings, and a ſmall improvement by the river ſide.

No. 13. Containing 176 acres. This lot takes in the greateſt part of Roach's Run; ſuitable for erecting a mill, or mills; there is in the tract about 25 acres of low land by the river; the upland on the hill is good; a good ſpring and lime-ſtone thereon.

No. 14. Containing 205 acres and 36 perches---A good piece of land, about 71 acres of it low land; 14 acres of good meadow may be made.

No. 15. Containing 163 acres. This is a very good lot, contains about 62 acres of low land on the river, all clear; 15 acres of meadow may be made and watered; there is a meſſuage on it.

No. 16. Containing 194 acres and 121 perches----Some good arable land; plenty of water on this tract.

No. 17. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----In part good arable land, a few ſprings of water, the young wood on this lot thriving, and ſome timber; includes part of Bucket's Hill.

No. 18. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----The arable land in this lot good, about 10 acres of meadow may be made, and moſtly watered; the young timber very thriving.

No. 19. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches----A very good lot, ſeveral ſmall ſtreams of water thereon, about 6 acres of meadow may be made, a ſmall improvement on it, the arable land good, and the young timber thrifty.

No. 20. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches---There is water on this lot; it includes part of Poquampum Hill; ſome cheſtnut wood.

No. 21. Containing 178 acres 120 perches----Takes in the the whole of Poquampum Hill, ſome water, and a good deal of young cheſtnut timber.

No. 22. Containing 57 acres 150 perches,
No. 23. Containing 88 acres 127 perches,
No. 24. Containing 76 acres 40 perches,
} Theſe three lots will ſerve for timber.

No. 25. Containing 237 acres and 68 perches----About 10 acres of meadow next the creek may be made, and ſome of it watered; the arable land under the hills, and in ſome ſpots on the hills, is very good, and lies well to the ſouth ſun.

No. 26. Containing 243 acres and 100 perches----About 30 acres of watered meadow may be made near the creek, the arable land under and on the hills, rather better than in the preceding lot.

No. 27. Containing 236 acres and 66 perches----About 10 acres of meadow ground can be made on this lot; the arable land good, as in the former lot; ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 28. Containing 297 acres and 153 perches----About 30 acres of meadow may be made on this lot, and great part watered; 10 acres thereof already cleared; a large proportion of arable land, and good lime-ſtone.

No. 29. Containing 276 acres and 101 perches----Is generally good arable land, there is a ſmall improvement, and ſome cleared land on it; two ſprings, and a quantity of meadow can be made; the young timber good and thrifty.

No. 30. Containing 277 acres and 35 perches----The quality of this lot near the ſame with the preceding.

No. 31. Containing 129 acres, called King David's Palace. This lot has ſome water, and on a part thereof is ſome of the very beſt cheſtnut wood on the whole Durham tract.

No. 32. Containing 257 acres and 80 perches. This lot is contiguous to No. 1, on the river, and generally good; near the half of it low land; an improvement thereon, near the river; one third part thereof cleared; lime-ſtone, and very good young thriving timber.

No. 33. Containing 193½ acres----Is nearly as good as lot No. 32; a part thereof cleared.

No. 34. Containing 90 acres and 50 perches. And, No. 35. Containing 86 acres and 100 perches. Both theſe lots have good arable land, and thriving young timber.

No. 36. Containing 191 acres and 126 perches----Includes Peter Grubb's and George Heinlein's improvements, about 7 acres of Meadow already made, and ſome more can be made; the arable land middling ſtrong and good; plenty of good ſpring water; lime-ſtone, and a ſhad-fiſhery.

No. 37. Containing 206 acres and 98 perches------George Kleiſley's improvement.

No. 38. Containing 196 acres and 82 perches---Thirty acres clear; ſprings on the north and ſouth ſides; ſome apple and peach trees.

No. 39. Containing 209 acres and 98 perches-----A large quantity of meadow may be made; it is well watered.

No. 40. Containing 216 acres and 7 perches----What is ſaid of the preceding lot, may with equal propriety be ſaid of this.

No. 41. Containing 211 acres and 35 perches---Shirley's improvement is on the north end of this lot; ſome meadow is made, pretty good, and more can be made; ſprings on both ends of the lot; the young timber very thrifty.

No. 42. Containing 209 acres and 20 perches----Two little improvements, one on the ſouth and the other on the north ſide of this lot, ſome meadow to each, the reſt nearly the ſame as the preceding lot.

No. 43. Containing 207 acres----Water on each ſide; ſome meadow can be made; very thrifty young timber.

No. 44. Containing 114 acres. This lot is nearly of the ſame quality with lot No. 31, except ſome meadow which it has on it, and a cleared field of about 18 acres on the north end.

By Captain TODD, arrived here from CORK, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, January 14.

BY private letters from Amſterdam we hear, that no leſs than twenty two houſes there have ſtopped payment.

They write from Venice, that the diſpoſitions made by the French Engineer Monſieur Tott, for the defence of the paſſage of the Dardanelles, are ſo well concerted, as to render the forcing a paſſage through them totally impracticable.

Jan. 15. It is ſaid there is a difference in opinion among the Britiſh Miniſtry, touching the affairs of Poland, one party being for ſuffering the powers upon the Continent to act as they pleaſe, while others are for preſerving the treaty of Oliva inviolate, and preſerving the body of the Republic whole and entire. But, as we are pacifically inclined, it is ſuppoſed the firſt mentioned party will prevail.

They write from Liſbon, that ten religious houſes have lately been ſuppreſſed in that city, and many more in other parts of the kingdom.

Jan. 16. We are conſtantly complaining in this country againſt the exceſs of miniſterial corruption, without once recollecting how greatly ſuch complaints affect our national character; for we muſt be either generally venal as a people, or corruption could never flow in upon us ſo violently, as to endanger the banks of our glorious conſtitution.

They write from Paris, that the Court has given orders for fitting out a ſmall ſquadron, for an adventure round the world, and the famous Abbe Martivene is to embark on board, in order to make new diſcoveries.

Credit is ſo low in Holland at preſent, that coffee, which before was looked upon as gold, is now ſo fallen, that no man will lend Fifty Pounds upon Five Hundred Pounds worth of it.

They write from the Hague, that a loan of 1,000,000 ſterling is negociating there for the King of Sweden, which is likely to prove a diſtreſſing circumſtance, as the people are drawing all their money from the bankers to employ it that way.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, January 8.

"The letters lately received from Brandenbourgh, and even from Berlin itſelf, are filled with accounts of the warlike preparations making there, and particularly putting the Pruſſian troops upon a footing to take the field in the month of February next, againſt which time all the regiments are ordered to be in readineſs; and a very formidable train of artillery is preparing at Magdebourg; beſides which great numbers of horſes are bought up, and field equipages of ſome principal officers are getting ready. We have likewiſe received ſome inſinuations of a coolneſs between the courts of Peterſburgh and Berlin, in conſequence, it is ſaid, of the latter having had a hand in breaking up of the congreſs at Fockzany."

The pretenſions of the Pruſſian monarch to the provinces he has ſeized in Poland, ſeem better ſupported by force than juſtice or antient title. The houſe of Brandenbourgh is but of modern date, and had neither power nor grandeur, before Albert, about two centuries ago, like his worthy ſucceſſor, ſeized on the dominions of the Teutonic Knights.

Jan. 18. To-morrow both houſes of Parliament will meet for the diſpatch of buſineſs, purſuant to their laſt adjournments.

The clerks in the ſecretary of ſtate's office for the American department, have received orders to give due attendance, in order to prepare the papers relative to America for the Houſe of Commons.

It is reported, that the ſtate of the public credit is at preſent under the conſideration of the miniſtry, and that ſome ſalutary regulations, particularly relating to commercial failures, will very ſhortly be the ſubject of diſcuſſion in an auguſt aſſembly.

Extract of a letter from Goſport, January 14.

"It is ſaid that Vice-Admiral Pye, who now has the command at this port, will, in the Spring, command a fleet to the Eaſt-Indies, in the room of Admiral Harland, who is very ſhortly expected home."

Jan. 19. The powers who can tamely look on and ſee, without oppoſition, the diſmemberment of Poland, ſeized upon and cantoned out by three great Princes, who have no claim to a foot of land in that country, but that which oppreſſion, rapine, and ſuperior force can give, may one day repent their inactivity, and become a prey, in their turn, to the ſame arts of the ſame bleſſed mediators.

A certain all graſping Monarch has, we hear, marked out conſiderable tracts within the Hanoverian Circle, which he means to lay claim to at no very remote period.

Many ſpirited but injudicious perſons, who call themſelves friends of the Houſe of Brunſwick, took ſome pains, it is reported, to perſuade the Royal Brothers, that they ought to ſhow themſelves on public days at Court; advice, however, which they mutually declined.

A correſpondent informs us, that a certain houſe in the city was obliged, on Saturday laſt, to petition the aſſiſtance of 300,000l. which was immediately raiſed, in order to ſupport its preſent credit.

So many alarms have been ſpread lately, concerning the commercial credit of this country, that we think ourſelves happy in being able to throw in a word of comfort, viz. that it is confidently believed, not a ſingle banking-houſe in this country will be ſhaken by the great failures in Holland, however diſtreſſing their connections on the continent.

No leſs than 300 petitions are lodged in the clerk's hands, to be preſented to Parliament, complaining of the high price of proviſions.

The laſt accounts from India, we hear, are inconceivably flattering, and give the directors of a great company the higheſt ſpirits imaginable; Shaw Allum, the lawful Emperor of Indoſtan, who has for a conſiderable time been baniſhed from the throne of his anceſtors, and oppoſed by a confederacy of tributary princes, who wanted to ſhake off the ſovereignty of Delhi, has, aſſiſted by the Engliſh, acquired a ſignal victory over the braveſt nation of his enemies, killed a prodigious number of their troops, and taken treaſure to the amount of near three millions ſterling, with which, at the head of his victorious army, he is now preparing for a triumphal entry into his capital.

The Britiſh commerce, in conſequence of the civil commotions, has never yet extended ſo far as Delhi; but ſhould the above be true, the India Company, and the nation in general, muſt receive great benefits thereby.

It is imagined that Mr. Sawbridge's motion will be much better ſupported this, than it has been either of the preceding ſeſſions, as the nearer approach of a general election has, we hear, produced a ſurprizing alteration in the opinions of ſeveral of its ſtrongeſt oppoſers.

It is talked, that letters of recal are diſpatched to the Governor of one of the American iſlands.

BOSTON, March 19.

"Laſt Friday, about 3 o' Clock in the Afternoon, a Fire broke out in the Cuſtom-Houſe; but by the timely Aſſiſtance of the Inhabitants of the Town, a Stop was put to its Progreſs, before it had done much Damage. It is generally thought, the Fire's not happening in the Night has prevented much Lying and Falſhood. If we may judge from the Repreſentations ſent Home upon other Occaſions, it would not argue the Want of Candor to ſuppoſe, that the C------rs, or ſome of their Tools, would have made a formidable Story of it, and influenced the M-n----y to believe, it was done on Purpoſe; either in Teſtimony of Reſentment againſt the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, or with a View to a mobbiſh Scramble for the Revenue Money, which is ſo wantonly taken from the Colonies, and worſe than thrown away. Perhaps, ſome certain Perſons might have repaired to the Caſtle, for Fear of their Lives, and more Regiments wrote for to keep the rebellious Town of Boſton in good Order."

NEW-YORK, April 1.

Capt, M'Aroy, from St. Vincents, who left it about the 28th of February, adviſes, that the Charaibs a few Days before his Departure, came in, and offered to lay down their Arms to General Dalrymple, who refuſed their Submiſſion, until they had delivered up all the runaway Negroes:---That a Packet had arrived from England, with Orders to the Commander in Chief, to deſiſt from proſecuting the War any further,----on which the Troops were ordered to embark by the 25th of March. The 14th Regiment for Auguſtine, and the 31ſt for New-York; Major Ethrington to remain with the Royal Americans, and a Regiment lately from England.

April 5. Sunday Evening the 28th ult. the Sloop Kingſton, Capt. Purnel Johnſon, arrived here, after a tedious Paſſage of Six Weeks, from Jamaica: The 5th ult. Johnſon; who, on the 20th of the ſame Month, ſpoke with a Sloop, from North-Carolina for Boſton, the Maſter of which informed him, that the Day before he fell in with the Wreck of a Veſſel belonging to New-York, and took therefrom three of the People, who were then on board his Veſſel, but it blowing hard at the Time, Capt. Johnſon could learn no farther Particulars.

WILLIAMSBURG, March 18.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE OF BURGESSES.

My LORD,

WE, his Majeſty's dutiful ſubjects, beg leave to preſent your Excellency our ſincere thanks for your attention to the intereſts of this colony, by vigorouſly endeavouring to bring the forgers of our paper currency to juſtice; but the proceedings in this caſe my Lord, though rendered neceſſary by the particular nature of it, are, nevertheleſs, different from the uſual mode, it being regular that an examining court on criminals ſhould be held, either in the county where the fact was committed, or the arreſt made. The duty we owe our conſtituents obliges us, my Lord, to be as attentive to the ſafety of the innocent, as we are deſirous of puniſhing the guilty, and we apprehend that a doubtful conſtruction and various execution of criminal laws, does greatly endanger the ſafety of innocent men: We do therefore moſt humbly pray your Excellency, that the proceedings in this caſe may not, in future, be drawn into conſequence or example.

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

AS I have always made the laws of the country the rule of my conduct, I acted in this affair with the greateſt caution, and took the advice and aſſiſtance of Gentlemen in whoſe judgement, candour, and integrity, I could confide. In apprehending and bringing to juſtice the forgers of your paper currency, I little imagined, when I was endeavouring to puniſh the guilty, that my conduct could, by any means, be thought to endanger the ſafety of the innocent. Permit me to ſay that all laws, doubtful in their conſtruction, muſt be interpreted by the courts of juſtice. If I have done amiſs, the ſame method will not be repeated; but if it ſhould be determined to be regular, I ſhall continue to exerciſe the powers I am inveſted with, whenſoever the exigences of government, and the good of the country, require ſuch exertion; and, under ſuch circumſtances, I am perſuaded that no one (even the moſt timid) will be under the leaſt apprehenſion that this proceeding may, in future, be drawn into conſequence or example.

EXTRACTS from the JOURNAL of the Honourable the HOUSE of BURGESSES.

FRIDAY, March 12, 1773.

UPON a motion made, the Houſe reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, upon the ſtate of the colony.

Mr. Speaker left the chair.

Mr. Bland took the chair of the committee.

Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair.

Mr. Bland reported from the committee, that they had directed him to make the following report to the Houſe, viz.

Whereas the minds of his Majeſty's faithful ſubjects in this colony have been much diſturbed, by various rumours, and reports of proceedings, tending to deprive them of their antient, legal, and conſtitutional rights:

And whereas the affairs of this colony are frequently connected with thoſe of Great Britain, as well as of the neighbouring colonies, which renders a communication of ſentiments neceſſary; in order, therefore, to remove the uneaſineſſes, and to quiet the minds of the people, as well as for the other good purpoſes above mentioned:

Be it reſolved, That a ſtanding committee of correſpondence and enquiry be appointed, to conſiſt of eleven perſons, to wit, the Honourable Peyton Randolph, Eſq; Robert Carter Nicholas, Richard Bland, Richard Henry Lee, Benjamin Harriſon, Edmund Pendleton, Patrick Henry, Dudley Digges, Dabney Carr, Archibald Cary, and Thomas Jefferſon, Eſquires, any ſix of whom to be a committee, whoſe buſineſs it ſhall be to obtain the moſt early and authentic intelligence of all ſuch acts and reſolutions of the Britiſh Parliament, or proceedings of Adminiſtration, as may relate to or affect the Britiſh colonies in America; and to keep up and maintain a correſpondence and communication with our ſiſter colonies, reſpecting theſe important conſiderations; and the reſult of ſuch their proceedings, from time to time, to lay before this Houſe.

Reſolved, That it be an inſtruction to the ſaid committee that they do, without delay, inform themſelves particularly of the principles and authority, on which was conſtituted a Court of Enquiry, ſaid to have been lately held in Rhode Iſland, with powers to tranſport perſons, accuſed of offences committed in America, to places beyond the ſeas, to be tried.

The ſaid Reſolutions, being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, upon the queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, agreed to by the Houſe, nemine contradicente.

Reſolved, that the Speaker of this Houſe do tranſmit to the Speakers of the different Aſſemblies of the Britiſh Colonies, on this continent, copies of the ſaid reſolutions, and deſire that they will lay them before their reſpective Aſſemblies, and requeſt them to appoint ſome perſon or perſons, of their reſpective bodies, to communicate, from time to time, with the ſaid committee.

Monday laſt his Excellency the Governor, after giving his Aſſent to ſeveral public and private Bills, was pleaſed to make the following Speech:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes.

AS you have now gone through the buſineſs for which you were aſſembled, and having nothing further to propoſe to you at preſent, it becomes neceſſary to put an end to this ſeſſion of Aſſembly; and I recommend to you to uſe your endeavours, in your ſeveral counties, to aboliſh that ſpirit of gaming, which, I am afraid, but too generally prevails among the people, and to ſubſtitute, in its place, a love of agriculture, and attention to their private affairs, by which you will render a moſt eſſential ſervice to them and your country. I do prorogue you to the third Thurſday in June next, and you are accordingly prorogued to Thurſday, the ſeventeenth of June next.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.

A Letter from Briſtol, dated January 25, to a Gentleman in this City, ſays, "The Ship Phœbe and Peggy, from your Port for Newry, was lately entirely wrecked near Milford, and 18 People ſaid to be drowned."

Captain Roach, from Liſbon, on the 14th ult. in Lat. 29: 32, Long. 68: 15, ſpoke a Schooner, from St. Martins for Boſton, out 7 Days; on the 24th, in Lat. 36: 45, Long. 72: 39, ſpoke a Brig, from Turks-Iſland for Boſton, out 13 Days; and on the 27th, in Lat. 38, Long. 71: 48, he ſaw a Sloop, of about 60 Tons, loaded with Lumber, without Maſt, Sails, Anchors or Cables, or any Perſon on board; Captain Roach judged that ſome Veſſel had fallen in with her, and taken the People out.

Captain Adams, from Liſbon, on the 24th ult. in Lat. 37: 14, Long. 73: 30, ſpoke the Brig Prince of Wales, Captain Maſon, from this Port for South-Carolina, out one Day, all well.

Captain Crombie, from Virginia, on the 29th ult. in Lat. 37: 40, Long. 73: 40, ſpoke a Schooner, from Rhode-Iſland for Virginia, out 10 Days, ſhe was blown off the Coaſt twice.

Captain Fairy, from the Grenades, on the 23d ult. in Lat. 33, ſpoke a Brig, from Grenada for New-York, but the Wind blowing very hard, he could not learn the Maſter's Name.

Captain Wilſon, arrived at New-York, from New-Caſtle, on the 10th of laſt Month, in Lat. 26: 56, Long. 63, ſpoke the Brig Recovery, from Philadelphia for Antigua.

Captain Adamſon, in the Ship King of Pruſſia, is arrived at Liſbon from this Port, having loſt his Mainmaſt, and all his Boats, in a hard Gale of Wind, on the Paſſage; and Captain Brewſter, in a Brig, from this Place, is alſo arrived there, with the Loſs of his Boats, and one Anchor.

The Snow Sally, Captain Gilbert, is arrived at Jamaica from this Port.

LIST OF PREMIUMS for the year 1773, to be given by the Managers of the Contributions for promoting the Culture of Silk in the Province of Pennſylvania, ſubject to the following conditions on the part of the claimants, viz.

CONDITIONS.

THE Cocoons or Balls for which any Premium is to be demanded, muſt be ſound, merchantable, and all ſingle *; they muſt be all raiſed in the Province of Pennſylvania and brought to the Filature in Philadelphia for ſale, or to be reeled for the claimant's own uſe, on or before September 1, 1773. Satisfactory proof muſt be given to the Managers that the Cocoons were all raiſed at one crop, within the claimant's ſingle family, and that over and above the Cocoons brought to the Filature as above, one twentieth of the whole crop has been reſerved, out of which the claimant muſt engage to raiſe good eggs, for which, if to be ſold, the Managers will give a dollar per ounce.

PREMIUMS.

1. For the greateſt quantity of Cocoons, not leſs than Sixty Thouſand, FIFTEEN POUNDS.
2. For the next greateſt quantity, not leſs than Fifty Thouſand, TEN POUNDS.
3. For the next greateſt quantity, not leſs than Forty Thouſand, FIVE POUNDS.
4. For the next greateſt quantity, not leſs than Thirty Thouſand, a SILK REEL, and COPPER KETTLE, on the beſt conſtruction.
5. To that perſon who ſhall produce to the Managers the beſt ſpecimen or ſample of Raw Silk, of his or her own raiſing and reeling, not leſs than Thirty two Ounces, a SILK REEL and COPPER KETTLE as above.
6. For the ſecond and third next beſt ſamples of Raw Silk, not leſs than Sixteen Ounces, a Compleat SILK REEL each.
7. To that perſon who ſhall raiſe Twenty Thouſand Cocoons, intirely on the Italian or White Mulberry Tree, of the claimant's own planting and cultivation, FIVE POUNDS.
8. Two more Premiums of THREE POUNDS each, to thoſe two Perſons who ſhall raiſe no leſs than Fifteen Thouſand Cocoons each, entirely on the Italian Mulberry Tree, as aforeſaid.

N. B. The Managers have ſome young Italian Mulberry Trees fit to be planted out, which they will give to thoſe who may ſpeedily apply for them, and all perſons deſirous to propogate Silk another year, are earneſtly requeſted to preſerve for themſelves a ſufficient quantity of eggs, as the Managers have not been able to ſupply half the number of perſons, who have applied to them for eggs this ſeaſon.

PRICES FOR THE YEAR 1773.

Beſides the encouragement offered above, the Managers hereby agree to give the following prices for Cocoons raiſed in either the provinces of Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey or Maryland, or the Three Lower Counties on Delaware, viz.

For all merchantable Cocoons of the Firſt Crop, brought to the Filature before the 15th of July, THREE SHILLINGS per pound, from thence to the 25th of the ſame month, THREE SHILLINGS and SIX-PENCE, from thence to the 5th of Auguſt, FOUR SHILLINGS, from thence to the 25th of the ſame month, FOUR SHILLINGS and SIX-PENCE, from thence to the end of the Seaſon, FIVE SHILLINGS, or FIVE SHILLINGS and SIX-PENCE if extraordinary good, and thoroughly dried. For Cocoons of the Second Crop, a price in proportion to their quality and dryneſs.

By order of the Board of Managers,

JOHN KAIGHN, Secretary.

To the PUBLIC.

I HAVE lately obſerved, in an anonymous Hand-bill, great Complaints of the Badneſs of Lancaſter Roads, by which, the Writer ſays, we are like totally to looſe the Weſtern Trade; he alſo ſays, the Inhabitants of Lancaſter, York and Cumberland, carry great Part of their Produce to the Landings on Chriſtiana Creek, Elk River, and to Baltimore.

Chriſtiana Creek has always been a near and ſafe Way, to tranſport the Produce of the Counties of Cheſter and Lancaſter, to the Markets of the City of Philadelphia, and for ever will be; and was early encouraged by ſome of the ableſt and firſt Merchants in the Province. The People who are moſt alert in keeping good Roads to the Chriſtiana Landings, deſerve the moſt hearthy Thanks of the Public, and of the Citizens in particular.

As for the Trade of the Weſtern Side of Saſquehanna, it ever will go to Places, the leaſt expenſive, and the Farmers return with the moſt Money in their Pockets, which will induce every Individual to ſee that the Roads leading to thoſe Markets are in good Order.

You will find that, by good Policy, there is but one main Road from thoſe back Counties to Baltimore, and thereby the Inhabitants are enabled to keep it in good Repair, beſides the Diſtance being but about Half, and not one Ferry to croſs.

The Writer ſays, "To remedy theſe Inconveniences, &c. a "new Road has been laid out, by Order of the Governor in "Council, and if properly cleared and opened, &c. would be of "great Advantage to the Inhabitants of thoſe back Counties."

It is true, there has been a Road laid out, and erroneouſly laid out, by, or in Sight of, laid out Roads, almoſt all the Diſtance through, by ſome Perſons, whoſe Intent it is, to impoſe on the Public, by improving their own Eſtates, at the Expence of their Neighbours.

The aboveſaid new Road is certainly laid out, not only erroneouſly, but on the worſt, loweſt and ſwampieſt Ground, of all the Roads leading from the City to the Ship. The Writer being fully conſcious thereof, as appears by his calling on the Inhabitants of Philadelphia, "to exert their uſual Benevolence, and public Spi-"rit, &c. to make between 3 and 4 Miles of this Road through "Blockley Townſhip to Cheſter County, in the beſt Manner, or, "he ſays, it is much feared, for want of ſuch an Example being "ſet, it will fall entirely through."

The preſent old Road runs through ſeveral of the Townſhips where the new Road is laid, with Numbers of other Roads; beſides, there muſt be Bridges built over the ſeveral Creeks the new Road croſſes, by which needleſs Expence the Burthen of repairing the Roads will be very grievous, and greater than the Inhabitants can bear, and of Conſequence muſt be always in bad Repair.

Our Predeceſſors formerly judged very right, in laying out the public Roads to Lancaſter; they not only looked out the higheſt and beſt Ground for the main Road, but that it ſhould be as near central between the Inhabitants whoſe Intereſt it is to go to the Landings aforeſaid, and the Little Coneſtogoe and Tulpehocken Settlements, which ſaid old Road heads moſt of the Creeks and ſwampy Grounds, the Brandywine excepted; and with a ſmall Alteration and Amendment, may be made two Miles ſhorter, which will be more convenient than its likely the new Road can be made; for as the greateſt Part of Lancaſter County lies to the Northward, it is abſolutely neceſſary to continue the old Road; therefore it cannot be denied, that one Road may be eaſier made good than two.

I ſhall now, in my Turn, requeſt the Citizens and others to exert their impartial Benevolence and public Spirit, in aſſiſting to amend and repair the old Roads, which may be done with the tenth Part of the Expence the new Road can be done as propoſed, and the Diſtance nearly the ſame. The amending and repairing Roads by Tax, is become extremely burthenſome, by Reaſon of their being ſo numerous, particularly in the County of Cheſter, through which all the back Settlers from the Weſtward muſt paſs, to the City of Philadelphia.

As the Surveyor General, and Mr. Wayne, Gentlemen of unquestionable Characters, have reſurveyed the new Road, I would recommend every impartial Perſon to them, or one of them, to be informed of the Situation, and Suitableneſs of the Ground the new Road is laid through, all the Errors contained therein, the great Diſadvantage it muſt be to the Neighbours and Settlements, and the vaſt Expence it will be to put it in any tolerable Order.

I am really at a Loſs to find what this Writer would be at, other than to make 3 or 4 Miles of this new Road in the beſt Manner, as far as Cheſter County, that is to John Sellers's Mill; or, he ſays, it will entirely fall through, to the total Loſs of the Trade; otherwiſe why did he not call for Benevolence and public Spirit, to make the Road good throughout? For what Advantage can it poſſibly be to the Public, to have this Road opened in the beſt Manner to Cheſter County only; other than for the Uſe of John Sellers's Mill, which is at the Place propoſed; or has the Writer a greater Regard for the Inhabitants of Blockley Townſhip than he has for the People in the County of Cheſter? Or can he ſuppoſe, that the People in the Townſhips of Cheſter County are in better Circumſtances, than the Inhabitants in the Townſhip of Blockley, or leſs burthened with Roads; take it which Way he pleaſes, it is obvious his Deſigns are very partial, notwithſtanding the public Gloſs he may ſeem to cover them with.

N. B. All Maſters of Veſſels are forbid to harbour or carry off ſaid Servant at their Peril. ¶

To be SOLD by PUBLIC VENDUE, on the 15th day of this inſtant April, and may be entered on the firſt day of May next,

A VALUABLE ſmall PLANTATION, of about 27½ acres of good woodland, ſituate in Lower Dublin townſhip, with a good dwelling houſe, a well of good water, a good barn, almoſt new, and other out-houſes; a thriving young orchard, great part of the land lately manured with lime and dung, all in good fence, almoſt new. Said place will ſuit for a gentleman's country ſeat, a ſtore, or tavern; a tavern is now kept there by Jacob Hall. Attendance and reaſonable credit will be given, at the time and place, by JOHN COLLOM. ¶

TO BE LETT,

A LARGE commodious new HOUSE, in Second-ſtreet, near Walnut-ſtreet, in the city of Philadelphia, intended to be kept as a genteel tavern; it contains ſeveral large club rooms, two of which being thrown into one make a ſpacious room of near fifty feet in length, for public entertainments: There are likewiſe ſeveral commodious lodging rooms, for the accommodation of ſtrangers, two large kitchens, and every other conveniency for the purpoſe. Whoever inclines to take the houſe, may know the perſons to be treated with, by applying to HUGH JAMES, at the London Coffee-houſe, who will forward any propoſals made to the Proprietors by perſons at a diſtance.

THE Subſcriber, after returning his unfeigned thanks to the public in general, and his friends in particular, for their paſt favours, begs leave to acquaint them, that the Royal-Oak INN is removed to Trenton Ferry, where he hopes for their continuance, as he expects to merit them, from his care and diligence, both in regard to the Ferry (in the due attendance of which he will be particularly careful) and Houſe, having provided himſelf with a ſtock of liquors, &c. &c. for the keeping the ſame. The many advantages of baiting at a Ferry (above that of ſtopping at a diſtance from one) where their carriages, horſes, &c. &c. can be put over, without any loſs of time, while they are refreſhing themſelves, is ſo well known to every traveller, that they need not here be mentioned by

The Public's much obliged humble ſervant,
RENSSELAER WILLIAMS.

¶ 4w.

To be ſold by JONATHAN PASCHALL, in Kingceſs Townſhip, near GEORGE GRAY's Ferry, on Schuylkill,

A QUANTITY of as good HEMPSEED as any in the Province; as the Owner farmed it himſelf he can ſell cheap, and will convey it to any Place the Parties agree on. ¶

SETS out on Mondays and Thurſdays, from the houſe of WILLIAM DIBLEY, at the Croſs Keys, the corner of Cheſtnut and Third-ſtreets, Philadelphia, and proceeds to Princeton the ſame days, where it meets the New-York Stage, exchanges paſſengers, and returns on Tueſdays and Fridays. All gentlemen and ladies, that pleaſe to favour me with their cuſtom, may depend on the beſt uſage, from the public's humble ſervant,

CHARLES BESSONETT.

N. B. Goods and paſſengers carried as uſual.

The gallant HORSE LEADER,

IS in very good order, and will COVER this ſeaſon, at the ſubſcriber's ſtable, near Capt. Ogle's, in Chriſtiana Hundred, New-Caſtle County, at the ſmall ſum of Ten Shillings the ſingle leap, Twenty Shillings the ſeaſon, or Forty Shillings to enſure a foal. Good paſture will be provided for mares, at Two Shillings per week, and proper care taken of them, by

WILLIAM UNDERWOOD.

LEADER is a dark cheſtnut, well marked, four years old this ſeaſon, 16 hands high, very ſtrong and handſome made according to his height, of a fine temper, great ſpirit, lofty carriage, fierce look, and uncommonly well gaited; he paces and trots very well, and is thought to be equal in ſpeed to any horſe of his age, blood and practice. He was got by Col. Hopper's famous Pacolet, and came out of one of the beſt country mares in this province. As he is ſo young, I do not intend to let him cover many mares, and would be glad people would ſend them in time, that they may be ſure of a colt. He got a few colts at two years old, which are allowed to be the fineſt that have been ſeen in the neighbourhood, and large enough. ¶

To COVER this Season.

THE noted ENGLISH DRAY HORSE, a jet black, 17 hands high, meaſures 16 inches round the knee joint, and is well proportioned otherwiſe; he is judged the broadeſt horſe in the province; he is much admired for courage, ſhape, marks and beauty, and likewiſe for his ſtrength and trueneſs in drawing, as perhaps there are none in the province able to exceed him; he is remarkably ſure in getting colts, many of which ſeem likely to be nearly or quite as large as himſelf. The ſaid horſe was foaled in Lincolnſhire, in Old England, was imported by Colonel FRANCIS, is now kept by the ſubſcriber, in Pennſbury townſhip, formerly called Kennet, in Cheſter county, between Kennet Meeting-houſe and the Forks of Brandywine-creek, near Benjamin Taylor's mill, where he is to cover at Twenty-five Shillings per Mare, the ſeaſon, until the firſt of Auguſt. The ſubſcriber therefore offers a reward of Ten Pounds, to any perſon that will produce as many likely able well made ſtockey colts, got by any one horſe in the province, as were got by the ſaid Dray Horſe in three ſeaſons covering; much more might be ſaid in regard to his performance and goodneſs, but it is thought needleſs, as he is ſo well known, and his colts ſo much applaud him. Any perſon that pleaſes to ſend their mares, may depend upon their being taken good care of by ISAAC TAYLOR.

For the Encouragement of the Breed of good HORSES,

THE ſubſcriber hath purchaſed that noted full blooded horſe, called THE TRUE BRITON, formerly kept by Captain Heard, and Mr. Waters, at Woodbridge, Eaſt-Jerſey, to COVER at the ſubſcriber's ſtables this ſeaſon, in Woodberry, Glouceſter county, about 9 miles below Philadelphia, at the ſmall rate of Four Dollars the ſingle leap, Three Pounds the ſeaſon, or Five Pounds Eight Shillings to enſure a foal. The money to be paid at the expiration of the ſeaſon or before. Good paſtures will be provided for the MARES, at Two Shillings and Six-pence per week, and proper care taken of them, by

JEHU WOOD, Innkeeper, in Woodberry.

The True Briton is a moſt beautiful lively brown, 15 hands high, and is reckoned by the beſt judges of horſes in America, to be the ſtrongeſt and beſt made horſe on the continent to get colts for either gears, ſaddle or running, as he hath got a large number of the ſmarteſt colts of any half bloods in the Jerſeys or Pennſylvania, and is now in moſt excellent order. It would be needleſs to ſay any thing of his pedigree or ſtock, as it hath been ſo well and ſo often aſcertained heretofore. ¶

To be SOLD, by way of public VENDUE, on Saturday, the 1st of May next (if not sold before at private sale) at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises,

A TWO story brick house, and lot of ground, on a street, called Long Lane, near Pegg's Run, in the Northern Liberties; the said lot being 176 feet front upon said street, called Long Lane, and running northwardly 291 feet to a 50 feet street, bounded westward by a lot belonging to Joseph Fox, Esq; and eastward by land of Edmund Woolly; there are on the premises a good garden, with asparagus beds, a young orchard of choice fruit, and a well of good water, with a pump before the door; the whole is divided into 13 lots, and will be sold together or separately, as will best suit the purchasers, it being the estate of Charles Batho, Esq; deceased. A plan of the same to be seen at the London Coffee-House, and at the premises. For terms apply to JOHN WILCOCKS, or PAUL FOOKS, Executors. 4 W.

A MULATTOE GIRL's TIME to be disposed of, who has 5 years to serve, is capable of town or country business, and about 25 years old. Enquire of the Printers hereof. ¶

TO BE SOLD,

THAT most agreeably situated and valuable farm (late Mr. Saltar's) in New-Jersey, where the subscriber now lives, on the river Delaware, about two miles below Trenton Falls; the farm contains about 360 acres of land, 154 of which are excellent low meadow in full improvement, and divided in eight several fields, well fenced, and the whole dry enough for any kind of grain, or hemp, for which the soil seems particularly adapted; the cleared upland contains about 120 acres, properly divided, and in good fence; the remainder is very good wood and timber-land, a very fine out-lot, or range for cattle and horses, both above, and on the river below; the orchard is large, thrifty, and of the best grafted fruit, both for cyder and house use; the garden is large, neat, well inclosed, and stored with a variety of the best table fruit. The house, barn, stables, and out-houses, are all in good repair; a large quantity of hay, with about 70 acres of wheat, barley, and rye, in the ground, will also be disposed of; together with several valuable farming Negroes, men, women, and children, breeding mares, of the best kind, a number of horses, young and old, about 100 head of cattle, several pair of working oxen, sheep, hogs, and farming utensils of all kinds, &c. boats, and a fishing net, there being some valuable fisheries on the river, within the lines, and the navigation coming up to the very banks, will always render the transporting any produce to Philadelphia market extremely convenient and easy.

The elegant situation of this place, and the noble prospect it commands, both for extent of view, as well as lawn and water scene, must ever recommend it as a seat to any gentleman of taste, and for sport none excels, particularly for the gun and angling in the different seasons; many other advantages attend it, both as a valuable and profitable farm, as well as genteel seat, that are too numerous to be described here, and better understood on a view of the premises. If the purchase-money be well secured; the whole, or any part, may remain eight or ten years, if agreeable, or more. WILLIAM PIDGEON.

Bow-Hill, April 2, 1773. ¶ 10s.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of ABRAHAM VASTINE, deceased, late of Hill-town, Bucks county, are hereby requested to make immediate payment; and all those that have any demands against the said estate, are desired to bring them in, properly proved, that the accounts may be settled by SARAH VASTINE, and JAMES ARMSTRONG, Administrat.

April 6, 1773. ¶

ALL persons having any just demands against the estate of JOHN COCKLAN, late of Whitemarsh township, in the county of Philadelphia, Cooper, deceased, are desired to produce the same to Isaac Mather, of said township, Miller, on or before the 4th day of June next, in order that they may may receive their dividend of the said estate; otherwise they will be precluded from any part of the same, after that day.

April 3, 1773. § ISAAC MATHER, Administrator.

THIRTY DOLLARS Reward.

RUN away from the subscriber, the 13th of March last, a Negroe man slave, named Brit, is the same fellow that the Salmons has had at Wyoming for 3 years, he is a very stout well made fellow, near 6 feet high, about 33 years of age; had on, when he went away, a red great coat, half worn, a blue coat, and a blue kersey jacket, with flat white metal buttons, buckskin breeches, black and white stockings; he can read and write, and it is supposed he will forge a pass. Whoever will secure him in Philadelphia or Easton goals, so that his master may get him again, shall have the above reward, and all reasonable charges for bringing him to the subscriber, near Elizabeth-Town, in New-Jersey. Whoever takes him up are desired to be very careful in pinioning him, as he will undoubtedly make his escape if he can. All persons are forbid harbouring or entertaining said slave, as they will do it at their peril; he is supposed to be gone in the back parts of Pennsylvania, to Shamokin or Wyoming, where he is well known; he was seen to cross Delaware the Monday after he run away. JACAMIAH SMITH. ¶

TO BE SOLD,

Any person having an inclination for said place, before the time of sale, may know the terms, by applying to HENRY BECKLY, GEORGE PAINTER, Executors, and MARGARET BAST, Executrix. ¶

To be SOLD, by PUBLIC VENDUE, on Thursday, the 22d day of April next, at 5 o' clock in the afternoon, at Dover, in Kent County, on Delaware (if not sold before by private sale) the following tracts of land, mills, and lot, situated in Kent County aforesaid, belonging to the estate of JOHN VINING, deceased,

A TRACT of LAND, situated three miles from Dover, one mile from a mill, and four miles from a public landing, on Jones's creek, containing about 650 acres, whereof about 100 acres are cleared, the land is fertile, excellent for wheat, and well watered. Also a tract of land, situated on the county road, two miles from Dover, within sight of a mill, and one mile from a landing, containing about 250 acres, whereof 120 are cleared, being also well adapted to wheat, and well watered. Also a saw-mill, and a good grist-mill, the latter rebuilt about a year and a half ago, and fitted for merchants work, having one pair of burr-stones, besides a good pair for country work, on a very fine stream of water, and where a plenty of excellent wheat may be procured, and flour can be taken in flats from the mill tail; the mills will be accommodated with 15 or 20 acres of land, as may best suit the purchaser, who may also buy the last mentioned tract of land, adjacent thereto, if convenient. Also about 400 acres of land, unimproved, situated in the forest of Murtherkill. And a framed tenement and lot of ground, situated at the Cross-roads, near Duck-creek. A reasonable time will be given for the payment of the purchase money, with interest thereon, by giving security, if required; the titles are indisputable. Any person inclining to purchase the above described lands, mills or lot, before the day of sale abovementioned, may be further informed of the terms, by applying to the subscribers, Executors of the testament and last will of the said JOHN VINING, deceased. SUPPLEMENT to the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE. No. 2311.

BOSTON, March 11.

Laſt Saturday his Excellency the Governor was pleaſed to prorogue the Great and General Court of this province, to Wedneſday, the 21ſt day of April next, after delivering the following SPEECH to both Houſes of Aſſembly, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I THINK it incumbent on me to make ſome obſervations, before I put an end to the ſeſſion, upon your laſt meſſages to me, on the ſubject of your conſtitutional dependance upon the ſupreme authority of the Britiſh dominions. As the Council admit a partial dependance, and ſuppoſe it to be conſiſtent with the principles and nature of government, I ſhall only endeavour very briefly to ſhew the contrary.

In your firſt meſſage, Gentlemen of the Council, you made ſome ſtrictures upon the nature of the ſupreme authority in government, both divine and human, the latter of which, you determined, could not be abſolute and unlimited. I thought the diſtinction between divine and human power not pertinent, and, in anſwer to you, I only remarked, that I had given you no reaſon to ſuppoſe I intended a more abſolute power in parliament, than what is founded in the nature of government, and this, in your ſecond meſſage, you conſtrue an acquieſcence in your reaſons, which it certainly was not. You go on however to explain your meaning by aſſerting, that "what is uſually denominated the ſupreme authority of a nation, muſt be limited in its acts to the objects, that are properly or conſtitutionally cognizable by it."

Before you thus defined the nature of ſupreme authority, I wiſh you had conſidered more fully what objects there can be in a government, which are not cognizable by ſuch authority. You inſtance in a ſubordinate power in government which, whilſt it keeps within its limits, is not ſubject to the controul of the ſupreme power. Is there no inconſiſtency in ſuppoſing a ſubordinate power without a power ſuperior to it? Muſt it not, ſo far as it is without controul, be itſelf ſupreme?

It is eſſential to the being of government that a power ſhould always exiſt, which no other power within ſuch government can have right to withſtand or controul: Therefore, when the word power relates to the ſupreme authority of government, it muſt be underſtood abſolute and unlimited.

If we cannot agree in theſe principles, which no ſenſible writer upon government has before denied, and if you are ſtill of opinion that two juriſdictions, each of them having a ſhare in the ſupreme power, are compatible in the ſame ſtate, it can be to no purpoſe to reaſon or argue upon the other parts of your meſſage. It is enough to obſerve, that this diſagreement in our principles will have its influence upon all the deductions which are made from them.

I will alſo conſider the laſt meſſage from you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, upon the ſame ſubject, in as few words as the importance of it will admit.

You ſay, you have not diſcovered that the principles advanced by the town of Boſton are unwarrantable by the conſtitution. Whether they are, or are not, will depend upon the determination of the point which you are now controverting. Your not having diſcovered that the other towns and diſtricts in the province were invited by the town of Boſton to adopt their principles, muſt proceed from inattention. Have not the doings of that town been ſent through the province, accompanied with a circular letter, "deſiring a free communication of ſentiments," and, among other expreſſions of the like tendency, lamenting the extinction of ardor for civil and religious liberty, if it ſhould be the general voice of the province, that the rights as ſtated do not belong to them, and truſting that this cannot be the caſe? If this is not inviting to adopt their principles, I have miſtaken their ſenſe and meaning. The conſequent doings of ſo many other towns ſhew, that they underſtood them as I have done. I am ſure I have no diſpoſition to repreſent unfavourably the doings of any town in the province.

You aſſert, "that it is the indiſputable right of all or any of his Majeſty's ſubjects in this province, regularly and orderly to meet together, to ſtate the grievances they labour under, &c. I never denied it. Does it follow, that it is regular and orderly for the inhabitants of towns, in their corporate capacity, to meet and determine upon points, which the law gives them no power to act upon? You have not aſſerted that it is, but you have not declared that it is not, as I thought a regard to the peace and order of the province made our duty.

If the fundamentals of our government were not diſputed, theſe irregularities would appear to you in a very ſtrong light, and you would join in diſcountenancing them.

To ſupport your principle that you hold your lands, and derive your authority of government from the Kings of England, and not from the Crown of England, you have very largely handled the doctrine of feudal tenures. I obſerved to you in my laſt ſpeech, that you had been miſled by the authority of an anonymous pamphlet. I am now obliged to obſerve, that you are again miſled, by having a general view of this doctrine brought before you, as it reſpects ſtates or governments under abſolute Monarchs, and not as it is connected with or grafted upon the Engliſh conſtitution. I ſhall not therefore ſpend time in examining the principles of your ſyſtem, it being immaterial to the point between us, whether they are juſt or not. Inſtead thereof I will, in as brief and clear terms as I can, lay this doctrine before you, as it relates to the government of England.

Let me then obſerve to you that, from the nature of government, a ſupreme legiſlative power muſt always exiſt over all the parts and all the affairs of every dominion---that in abſolute Monarchies the legiſlative and executive powers are united in the Prince or Monarch ---that in the Engliſh conſtitution there is, and always has been, a legiſlative power, diſtinct from the regal or executive power---that the feudal ſyſtem, in your view of it, and without correcting, could not be introduced into the Engliſh government, without changing the conſtitution from a mixed to an abſolutely monarchial government ---that this ſyſtem nevertheleſs has been introduced, the conſtitution of a mixed government ſtill remaining, and conſequently the ſyſtem has been corrected or altered. What this alteration has been, will appear from hiſtorical facts. Before the reign of William the Firſt, the traces of feudal tenure are faint, the evidence of a legiſlative power, an Aſſembly, or Council of wiſe men, diſtinct from the regal power, is ſtrong and ſufficient. After William had obtained the crown, the other nations of Europe being under this ſyſtem, and particularly his dominions in Normandy, and wars being more frequent, and commerce ſmall, and the means of furniſhing money, the ſinews of war, difficult, if not impracticable, meerly for the defence of the kingdom, this polity was ſo far eſtabliſhed as that all the landholders were made to contribute, by military or other ſervices, to the defence of the ſtate, and for this purpoſe, and by a fiction only, the lands were in form acknowledged to have been originally in the King, and held of him by his ſubjects, and by this form ſubjected to a ſuppoſed juſt proportion of the defence and ſupport of the kingdom. This eſtabliſhment appears to have been made, not by an act of regal power alone, but by the authority of the great Council of the nation, or Aſſembly of the realm, and the legiſlative authority ſtill remained, according to its nature, paramount, and above all other powers in the dominion, and accordingly from time to time the abuſes of the feudal power, either in the ſovereign, or in ſuch as held under him, were corrected by the ſupreme legiſlative, and Magna Charta itſelf was framed and agreed upon, principally, if not altogether, for this purpoſe. In ſucceeding ages, as commerce and money increaſed, and the means of ſupporting war became more eaſy, theſe military ſervices were gradually taken away, either by purchaſe, or commuting for other ſervices or certain rents, ſo that at the period when America was firſt granted, the remains were inconſiderable, and the lands of the kingdom were held, generally, by what is called ſoccage tenure, or, in other words, an acknowledgment of fidelity to the ſovereign, and a certain rent which was in name only, or of value ſo inconſiderable, as not to be demanded. The original claim in the ſovereign, whether at firſt a fiction or not, ſo far remained, as that all forfeitures, all eſcheats, all new diſcovered lands accrued to him, unleſs the ſupreme legiſlative ſhould limit the right to them, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of them. This was the ſtate of feudal tenure in England, at the time when the firſt Charter was granted, and the difference between your ſyſtem and mine will appear by this familiar inſtance: Louis the 13th, of France, I think, the ſame year the Maſſachuſetts Patentees obtained the grant of that colony, by a royal edict granted to one hundred aſſociates, the country of Canada, with powers of government, and all the privileges of natural born ſubjects of France, to all who ſhould go and inhabit or be born there, with other very great powers and privileges. This, then, appears to be the different ſtate of the people of the two colonies. Louis, being an abſolute Monarch, the regal and legiſlative power were united in him. The inhabitants of Canada therefore were ſubject to him, and to every ſucceeding King of France, as their ſupreme Lord, who, by virtue of his uncontroulable power, might at any time revoke the royal edict at pleaſure, or diſſolve any charter whatſoever, even though like the famous edict of Nantes it had been declared irrevocable. Charles, having in him the regal power only, could grant no more than was in him, and the legiſlative power, which was in the Parliament, muſt ſtill remain there, and conſequently the ſubjects of England continued, when in the colony, ſtill ſubject to the regal conſtitutional power of Charles, and the ſupreme legiſlative power of Parliament. And, I think, nothing is more certain, than that the conſtitutional reſtraint of the regal power in Charles prevented the Charter from being revoked and annulled, in leſs than ten years after the date of it.

If this brief account of feudal tenure, as it is part of the Engliſh conſtitution, be juſt, as I ſhall think it is, until I have better authority than any I have yet ſeen to the contrary, the fabrick which you have raiſed will ſtill fail of ſupport, for it wholly depends upon very different principles, and upon what you hope I do not mean to introduce, viz. the feudal ſyſtem in its perfection. If this ſupport fails, there is but little occaſion for me to remark upon the other parts of your meſſage, and I ſhall paſs them over, except ſuch as may tend to make wrong impreſſions on any unwary readers.

You cannot conceive, "why the King has not the ſame right to alienate and diſpoſe of countries, acquired by the diſcovery of his ſubjects, as he has to reſtore, upon a treaty of peace, countries acquired in war, carried on at the charge of the nation, or to ſell and deliver up any part of his dominions, againſt the general ſenſe of the nation." I will venture to conjecture a reaſon. By the Engliſh conſtitution, the ſole power of making war and peace is in the King. It often happens, that the reſtoring and ceding acquiſitions made in war, is abſolutely neceſſary to the re-eſtabliſhment of peace; and if the King was reſtrained from ſuch reſtorations or ceſſions, an unſucceſsful war might be perpetuated, to the deſtruction of the kingdom. This power therefore ſeems neceſſarily to reſult from this prerogative of the crown. And for ſelling any part of the dominions, againſt the general ſenſe of the nation, I never ſuppoſed it to be a part of the prerogative, but have called it an act of power, by which I thought no candid reader would underſtand any thing but meer power.

Your attempt to ſhew, that new diſcovered countries do not become part of the ſtate, from the authority of Puffendorff, &c. will fail, becauſe the inſtance given by him of a colony erected into a ſeparate common-wealth plainly appears, by the context, to be by the leave or conſent of the parent ſtate, and it does not appear that the other caſes were not ſo.

Your remarks upon the authority I bring to ſhew that the colony, being feudatory, is under the government of the King's Laws, is very ſingular. You ſuppoſe it muſt mean the King's Laws abſolutely, or, as you explain it, not the Laws of Parliament. Do any of you remember ever to have ſeen the expreſſion, the King's Laws, meaning the King of England, uſed in any other ſenſe than the Laws of the Realm? You ſay I have not named the authority. The caſe I refer to is the King againſt Crowle, in the 2d Volume Burrow's Reports, and for the authority, which you will find mentioned there, I am not able to name a greater.

I would paſs over in ſilence your attempt to ſhew, that allegiance is due to the natural perſon, and not to the body politic of the King, if I had not been well informed, that the artificial reaſoning of Lord Chief Juſtice Cooke upon the doctrine of allegiance, in the noted caſe of Calvin, as you have recited it, had great weight with ſome of the members of the Houſe. But have you recited this caſe truly? After all the refinements on this ſubject, does it appear that they can amount to any thing more, than that allegiance is not due to the politic capacity only? And is it not expreſly ſaid, that the natural perſon of the King is ever accompanied with the politic capacity, and the politic capacity, as it were, appropriated to the natural capacity? Or have you any clear idea of allegiance to a King in his natural capacity, without any relation to his political capacity? From this authority miſunderſtood, you infer that I am miſtaken, in ſuppoſing your allegiance to be due to the Crown of England. Without any refinements it is plain, that it was one condition, on the performance whereof the firſt Charter depended, that allegiance ſhould be borne to King Charles, his heirs and ſucceſſors. Wherever, therefore, the ſucceſſion to the Crown ſhall go, there allegiance is to follow. The condition in the ſecond Charter is the ſame, and this is enough for my purpoſe, which was to ſhew, that in whatever perſon the Regal authority ſhall be, there your allegiance is due. I wiſh you had omitted all you have ſaid upon this ſubject, for neither the reaſoning of Lord Cooke, nor the declarations of the Judges, in any meaſure tend to the purpoſe for which you produce them.

Your aſſertion that Parliament, in regulating the fiſhery, had nothing in view but to prevent a monopoly of the ſea, and claimed no authority over the plantations or lands in America, has only your own authority to ſupport it. It appears from the debates in Parliament, that it was the refuſal of the patentees to ſuffer fiſh to be dried upon the land within their patent, by any perſon who had not licence from them, which was complained of as a grievance, and the bill was brought in to remove this grievance: The King might very well refuſe his aſſent, not becauſe Parliament had no juriſdiction, but becauſe he did not think fit to join with the Lords and Commons in an act, which invalidated or abridged thoſe privileges in a patent of lands, which by his royal prerogative he had a right to grant.

I will make no particular remarks upon thoſe parts of your meſſage, which relate to the ſenſe the people have had of their conſtitution, as there can be no end of diſpute upon facts which, by ſmall deviations from the true ſtate of them, may be made to ſerve one ſide or the other.

It is evident, that the firſt ſettlers of this colony left England with a juſt ſenſe of their dependance-----that this ſenſe continued until the principles of anarchy in England ſpread in America, and it is conceded, that theſe principles were avowed by many of the inhabitants here, for near twenty years after they were exploded in England. It is equally certain that, at the time of the revolution, the people returned to a juſt ſenſe of the ſupremacy of parliament, and I think I may very ſafely ſay, that the oldeſt perſon in the province has never heard this ſupremacy called in queſtion, until within a few years paſt.

You again expreſs your concern, that I ſhould thus repeatedly inſiſt upon your giving your free ſentiments on ſo delicate a ſubject as the authority of Parliament. In the beginning of your meſſage you vindicate the town of Boſton, and the other towns in the province, which have met together, and determined upon the ſame ſubject, and made their proceedings matter of record, and publiſhed them in news-papers; and yet in the cloſe of it you aſſert, that the ſubject is too delicate, and of too great importance for you to conſider. Certainly then it muſt have been extremely irregular in the towns to take upon them ſeparately to determine points, which they had no authority to determine, and in this way to influence, if not determine, the acts and doings of their repreſentatives in General Aſſembly, who cannot have the ſame freedom of thinking and acting, after their Conſtituents have determined and reſolved as they had before.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I am ſenſible, that nice diſtinctions of civil rights and legal conſtitutions are far above the reach of the bulk of mankind to comprehend. There are, however, a few plain fundamental principles of government, which carry within themſelves ſuch evidence, as cannot be reſiſted, and are no ſooner propoſed than aſſented to----- Such as theſe-----That in every government there muſt be ſomewhere a ſupreme uncontroulable power, an abſolute authority to decide and determine----That two ſuch powers cannot co-exiſt, but neceſſarily will make two diſtinct ſtates---That in a ſtate of ſociety we give up part of our natural liberty, in order to ſecure that legal freedom, which it is the great end of government to maintain and preſerve-----That a right in individuals or parts of a government to judge of the deciſions of the ſupreme authority, and to ſubmit, or not ſubmit, as they think proper, cannot conſiſt with a ſtate of government, and muſt work the diſſolution of it. Whilſt theſe principles had their due influence, we enjoyed all that freedom, and all thoſe other bleſſings, which a ſtate of government will admit of. Our connection with our parent ſtate ſecured theſe bleſſings to us, and by means of a nominal dependance, we poſſeſſed as great a ſhare of real freedom as the parent ſtate itſelf, upon which we are ſaid to depend.

I have laid before you, Gentlemen, what appeared to me to be the true conſtitution of the Province, and recommended an adherence to it, becauſe I believed it would reſtore us to, and continue us in, that happy ſtate, in which we flouriſhed ſo long a courſe of years.

Certainly it is of the utmoſt importance to you, that theſe points ſhould be ſettled, for I know of no maxim in the law of greater truth than this, Where the conſtitution is conteſted, and the laws are vague and uncertain, there will be the greateſt ſlavery.

Council-Chamber, 6 March, 1773. T. HUTCHINSON.

IN COUNCIL, March 5, 1773.

Ordered, That the following Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Governor, and that James Bowdoin, James Pitts, Samuel Dexter, Artemas Ward, and Stephen Hall, Eſquires, be a Committee to wait on his Excellency therewith.

THOMAS FLUCKER, Secretary.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

IN your meſſage to both Houſes, of the 23d of February laſt, you were pleaſed to mention, you had acquainted the Houſe of Repreſentatives with the information you had received, that his Majeſty had been pleaſed to allow ſalaries to the Juſtices of the ſuperior Court, ſo long as they ſhall reſide in the province, or be abſent with his Majeſty's leave. Which ſalaries, your Excellency tells us, you have "no doubt were intended to commence before the firſt of January laſt."

We humbly apprehend we ſhould be guilty of an unpardonable neglect, if, on this Occaſion, we omitted freely expreſſing to your Excellency our ſentiments, reſpecting the proviſion we have the utmoſt reaſon to fear is made for the ſupport of the Juſtices of that Court, independant of the Grants of the General Aſſembly of this province, in conſequence of the order of his Majeſty for that purpoſe.

We conſider the full power and authority granted by the Royal Charter, to the General Court, to levy taxes for the ſupport of the Government of this province, as neceſſarily and conſtitutionally including the right of ſupporting thoſe Juſtices, and all other officers of the Government, who are intitled to ſalaries from the public: And we are conſtrained to ſay, that ſuch proviſion for the purport of the ſaid Juſtices, as your Excellency's meſſage leads us to conceive is intended ſhortly to take place, as it renders them altogether dependant on the Crown, will, while the tenor of their commiſſions continues the ſame as at preſent, have a tendency to produce conſequences the moſt fatal to his Majeſty's ſubjects of this province.

As the happineſs of a community ſo much depends on an impartial adminiſtration of Juſtice, this board cannot but be deeply affected with the thought, that by this innovation in Government, a foundation may be laid for rendering the rights, liberties and properties, of this people, in many reſpects, precarious and inſecure.

Our moſt gracious Sovereign we regard as the tender father of his people, however diſtant from his illuſtrious perſon; while therefore we can by no means attribute this meaſure to a diſpoſition in him, to diminiſh the felicity of his faithful ſubjects of this province, we ſtill entertain a degree of hope, that the warrants for the payment of ſuch ſalaries to the Juſtices may not have been iſſued.---But although we ſhould ſoon receive ſuch diſagreeable intelligence,---diſagreeable not only to this board, but to the whole body of the people, we ſhall nevertheleſs firmly depend on the benignity of his royal mind for relief, under this and every other grievance."

On Friday laſt the Houſe of Repreſentatives ordered the following Meſſage to be preſented to the Governor, by Captain Heath, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Ellis, Col. Gilbert, and Capt. Greenleaf, viz.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

IN your meſſage of the 19th of January, your Excellency was pleaſed to acquaint the Houſe of Repreſentatives, that the reputation which a company of the train, under the command of Major Paddock, in Col. Erving's regiment, had very juſtly acquired, had encouraged your Excellency to form ſeveral other like companies in the regiments near the ſea; and recommended to the Houſe to make ſuch proviſion for ſuch companies, as his Majeſty's ſervice, and the intereſt of the province, ſhould require. In conſequence of your Excellency's meſſage, the two Houſes paſſed a Bill for the better regulating the Militia, in which, among other things, proviſion is made for providing ſuch companies with cannon and gun-houſes; which Bill the Houſe cannot but flatter themſelves will obtain your Excellency's aſſent. The Houſe, ſtill diſpoſed to promote and encourage a military ſpirit, ſo eſſential to his Majeſty's ſervice in the ſafety of this province (being apprehenſive that the uniforming and arming of ſuch companies will be attended with conſiderable expence to the privates) take the liberty to addreſs your Excellency, and to deſire that you would be pleaſed to give order, that ſuch artillery companies as your Excellency ſhall think fit to raiſe, may be furniſhed with ſo many of the province arms, on condition, that the officers of ſuch companies become accountable, that ſaid arms ſhall be kept in good order at all times, and to return them, when called for by the Captain General.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to ſend the following Anſwer to the Houſe, viz.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

ALL the military ſtores under my care are properly the King's ſtores, and to be applied for his ſervice in the protection and defence of the province, as the Captain General ſhall think proper, or as his Majeſty ſhall think fit to direct.

I have not in my poſſeſſion a greater number of ſmall-arms, than may be neceſſary for his Majeſty's ſervice at Caſtle-William. Whilſt they are there, under the immediate charge of the ſtore-keeper, I know that they are always kept in good order, and fit for ſervice.--- If delivered out and left in the hands of the officers of the militia, I ſhould be uncertain what condition they are in. For theſe reaſons I muſt decline complying with your deſire.

Province-Houſe, March 5, 1773. T. HUTCHINSON.

This meſſage was the next day read in the Houſe, and being the laſt day of the ſeſſion, was referred for conſideration till the next ſitting of the General Aſſembly, when we hope it will be attended to, according to its real importance and tendency.

A MERCHANT-MILL and SAW-MILL, ſituate on the river Delaware, in view of Trenton ferry, about 29 miles from Philadelphia, at the head of the tide, with an Iſland, containing 44 acres of extraordinary good land, and about 27 acres on the main, oppoſite ſaid Iſland, on which 27 acres are erected, the above mills, a handſome two ſtory frame dwelling-houſe, ſtone ſtable and barn, a cooper's ſhop, ſmith's ſhop, ſhed, ſtore-houſe, and two ſmall ſtone dwelling-houſes. In this mill are one pair of burr, one pair of Cologne, and one pair of country ſtones. This houſe is of ſtone, 60 feet by 54; the rolling ſcreen, boulting works, and hoiſting geers, are all in good order for buſineſs, and go by water. This mill in dry ſeaſons is never idle for want of water, and is well ſupplied with wheat from Durham, Suſſex, &c. as the boats from theſe places may, without any riſque, come into the dam, and diſcharge almoſt at the mill door, when they cannot, without great danger, paſs the falls. The freight of flour from this place to Philadelphia is but Five-pence per barrel. The purchaſer, paying one third of the purchaſe-money, may have time for the reſt, giving good ſecurity.

SERMONS to DOCTORS in DIVINITY,

BEING THE SECOND VOLUME OF

SERMONS to ASSES,

BY THE SAME AUTHOR,

Is JUST PUBLISHED, and to be SOLD by

JOHN DUNLAP,

In MARKET-STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

THE rapid and univerſal ſale of the firſt volume hath rendered the public competent Judges of the nature and quality of this Second entertainment of our celebrated author: Being a warm friend to real, internal and practical religion, he expoſes the abſurdity of relying upon the external and ſpeculative part of it, which hath almoſt baniſhed the knowledge of the true ſpirit of chriſtianity, not only from the Laity, but alſo from many of their very learned Teachers.

Plumſtead Townſhip, Bucks County, March 19, 1773.

RAN from his bail, the 8th inſtant, an Iriſhman, named JOHN THOMSON, about 5 feet 8 inches high, very much marked with the ſmall-pox; had on, when he went away, a grey coloured ſlip-on coat, a dark brown ſtraight bodied coat, ſtamped flannel jacket, and buckſkin breeches, pieced with a large patch between the thighs, with ſeveral other old clothes that he carried with him. Whoever takes up ſaid Thomſon, and ſecures him in any of his Majeſty's goals, ſo that he may be brought to juſtice, ſhall have FORTY SHILLINGS reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by WILLIAM M'CALLA. §

Saſſafras Neck, Cæcil County, Maryland, March 13, 1773.

To be SOLD, or LEASED for a Term of Years, and to be entered upon the firſt day of June next, in the midſt of a fine wheat country, and in the neighbourhood of a reſpectable body of good farmers, between 12 and 15 miles from Apoquinimink landing, 6 miles from Frederick and George-Town, at Saſſafras ferry, and on the head of a creek of Bohemia river,

A GRIST-MILL and SAW-MILL, ſupplied by two plentiful ſtreams of water leading to each, and about 100 acres of LAND; the ſaw-mill is out of repair, but the grift-mill is in excellent order, having been lately new gea'ed, and has a pair of beſt burrs, with every thing neceſſary for merchant work, and a pair of good country ſtones for Indian corn; about 30 acres of the land are cleared, 6 or 8 of which are in meadow, and the reſt is divided into four lots, in one of which is planted a young orchard, and two of the others are laid down in clover; there are on the premiſes a good log dwelling-houſe, with 3 rooms and 2 fire-places below ſtairs, and a large cellar, walled with ſtone, a good kitchen and pantry adjoining, ſtore-houſe and granary, cooper's ſhop, meat-houſe, ſtables, and other neceſſary buildings, with a pailed garden and yard. Any perſon inclinable to purchaſe, or leaſe, may know the terms, by applying to the ſubſcriber, living on the premiſes; the title is indiſputable, and credit will be given to the purchaſer for a large part of the purchaſe money, upon good ſecurity.

By Captain SPAIN, arrived here from BRISTOL, and Captain CHAMBERS, arrived at NEW-YORK, from the ſame Place, we have the following Advices, viz.

BERLIN, January 12.

ON Sunday laſt, the 10th inſtant, the marriage of the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, with the Princeſs Phillippine of Schwedt, was celebrated in the great apartments of the palace. The ceremony began a little after ſeven, and laſted till near eleven.

Warſaw, Jan. 2. Letters received here from Walachia adviſe, that the Porte hath granted to the Ruſſians the free navigation of the Black Sea; and at the ſame time conſented to the independancy of the Crimea.

From the Danube, Jan. 4. Every thing preſents the melancholy ideas of an unavoidable war. According to advices from Vienna, couriers have never been ſo frequent between that Court, and thoſe of Peterſburgh and Berlin. The Miniſters of their Imperial Majeſties are almoſt continually in Council, and leave it only to begin freſh conferences with thoſe of Ruſſia and Pruſſia. Theſe advices add, that the Prince de Rohan, Ambaſſador from France, demanded a ſecond audience of the Empreſs Queen, which proved as long as the firſt, in which, it is thought, that Miniſter has made ſome important propoſals; for his Highneſs, ſoon after his return to his hotel, diſpatched a courier to his Court.

Hamburgh, Jan. 17. Advice has been received from Mittau of the death of his Serene Highneſs Biron, late Duke of Courland, on the 30th paſt, in the 83d year of his age; in November 1769, he reſigned the government of the Duchy to his ſon Peter, the preſent Duke of Courland.

Copenhagen, Jan. 9. Lieutenant Leith is at laſt condemned to be ſhot, but it is hoped he will be pardoned. The high tribunal have declared the Sieur Thura, author of a paper, intituled, "The Prognoſticator," guilty of high treaſon, and in conſequence he is to ſuffer the ſame puniſhment as the Counts Brandt and Struenſee.

Amſterdam, Jan. 18. The arrangements made by the venerable Council of this city, for the ſupport of commerce, have taken place. Laſt Friday an office was opened in the Chamber of the Regents of the Houſe of the Orphan-Burghers, to lend money at a moderate intereſt on ſuch goods as are not periſhable, on bonds of the Generality and of the country, and on actions and receipts of the Eaſt-India Company.

Copenhagen, Jan. 19. This morning, about ſix o'clock, her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa of Heſſe was ſafely brought to bed of a Princeſs. Her Royal Highneſs continues at preſent, as does alſo the young Princeſs, as well as can be expected.

From the Viſtula, Jan. 14. It is reported, that 30,000 Pruſſians have entered Courland, and that there has been a ſharp rencounter between the Pruſſians and Poles, at Kaliſch, in which the latter had the advantage; but we cannot warrant the authenticity of this news.

The King of Pruſſia has written a letter to the Palatinates of Great Poland in the following terms:

"Meſſ. the ſenators of the Palatinates of Poſen, Kaliſch, and Greſen.

"I acknowledge with you, agreeable to your letter of the 12th inſtant, that as your province has ſuffered very much by the Confederates, it is but juſt to relieve it as much as poſſible, with reſpect to the contributions demanded from thoſe diſtricts. I would willingly concur in it, but the preſent circumſtances render thoſe contributions indiſpenſible, and will not permit you to be exempt from them. I flatter myſelf, on the other hand, that as the neceſſity of the times render them indiſpenſible, you will not refuſe to comply with them, at leaſt, in part. I have commiſſioned Major Loſſow to treat with you on this ſubject, and there is no doubt but he will regulate things in ſuch a manner, as to give you perfect ſatisfaction. Your's, &c. (Signed) FREDERICK."

Berlin, Jan. 19. It is aſſured, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick has entered into the King of Pruſſia's ſervice, with the rank of General of foot.

Advice has juſt been received here from Thorn, that the Pruſſian troops have ſet down in form before that town, in order to compel the inhabitants to yield obedience to the King of Pruſſia.

The Magiſtrates, and a great majority of the inhabitants, have publiſhed a declaration, that they will never give up their liberty into the hands of abſolute power; that they own themſelves ſubjects of the King of Poland, and of no other Monarch, and as ſuch they will defend their own rights, as well as thoſe of their Sovereign.

Stockholm, Jan. 9. A Treaty, we hear, is now on the Tapis between our court and that of France, for ſome ſhips of the line, frigates, &c. The naval force is to be employed in the Baltic, and the military are, we are informed, to be poſted on the Norwegian frontiers. Every preparation that is now going forward ſpeaks an approaching war, notwithſtanding the pacific appearances which the court ſeems deſirous of maintaining.

LONDON.

Jan. 21. An univerſal Petition it is thought will ſoon be preſented to the Throne, containing a catalogue of the very inſupportable grievances the ſubjects labour under, and praying for a ſpeedy redreſs, for the ſafety of both king and kingdom.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, January 15.

"A pamphlet has lately appeared here, entituled, "Obſervations on the declarations of the Courts of Vienna, Peterſburgh and Berlin, concerning the partition of Poland." The author has taken ſuch liberties with the character of the King of Pruſſia, that his miniſter at the Hague has obtained a ſuppreſſion of the ſale of his work.

"Our letters from Copenhagen talk much of a reconciliation being in great forwardneſs, between the King of Denmark and Queen Carolina Matilda, through the mediation of the Kings of Great-Britain and Pruſſia. Frequent couriers paſs between theſe courts upon this occaſion, and it is ſaid, that an Engliſh nobleman of the firſt rank is expected at Copenhagen in a ſhort time, to put the finiſhing ſtroke to this affair."

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, January 5.

"Doctor Struenſee, a brother of the late Count Struenſee, who was confined in Copenhagen, and releaſed on demand of his Pruſſian Majeſty, who has appointed him to be his Counſellor of State and Profeſſor of Mathematics, was laſt week at Zell, and had the honour of a very long conference with her Majeſty the Queen Matilda, after which he returned to the Court of Berlin."

Extract of a Letter from Altona, January 8.

"There is now in our goal an Engliſhman, who being ſettled here, and married to a Printer's daughter, ſet up a news-paper, in which making a little too free with ſtate affairs, he is likely ſoon to be ſent out of the world a head too ſhort. His proceſs is going on, with us it is the ſame as his condemnation; and the moſt favourable end it can have is, that he be condemned for life to work with the other chained ſlaves upon ſome of the fortifications; yet his whole crime is copying, verbatim, and that in Engliſh too, an account of the revolution at Copenhagen, which appeared in the London Chronicle."

Letters from Copenhagen mention, that the Queen of Denmark has, after much earneſt entreaty, at length prevailed upon the King to permit her Majeſty to receive a viſit from her children, and that they are very ſhortly to ſet out for Zell, accompanied by ſeveral of the Daniſh Nobility, where they are to remain a month.

There have been complaints of a very arbitrary nature made againſt a certain Governor in America. The charge is for diſplacing three Judges for not giving deciſion contrary to law, becauſe one of his friends was concerned, who is made one of the diſplaced Judges, and came over here for that purpoſe. The governor treated this matter lightly in the beginning, but has ſince thought proper to apply, which has not been judged ſufficient. He has been permitted to make a further defence, which if not ſatisfactory, it is thought he will be recalled.

A private letter, received by a merchant in the city, dated Altona, Jan. 3. ſays, "Mr. Morris, the Engliſh gentleman, whoſe ſtory, with his young wife, has made ſo much noiſe, was again married this day to his ſpouſe, under a licence obtained by ſpecial favour from our ſovereign, the King of Denmark."

Jan. 23. The King, we hear, has been certainly adviſed to turn the ſums given annually in plates to running horſes, into encouragements for the growth of ſheep; as melancholy experience ſufficiently convinces us, that horſes are the great cauſe of our preſent ſcarcity, and that the woollen manufacture may be made the principal ſource of our proſperity as a people.

Since the late failures in Holland, near ſixteen conſiderable merchants have ſtopped in this city, ſome with very large families, and of great property, which are wrecked in the ſtorm abroad.

Yeſterday a ſtop was put to the receiving of Portugal money at the Bank, by order of Government. Since which there has been a meeting of the principal merchants in the Spaniſh and Portugal trade, to conſider the beſt method to avoid the inconveniencies, which may ariſe from the ſtoppage of taking Portugal coin at the Bank.

It being known, that many capital houſes are in poſſeſſion of undoubted good bills, and are exceedingly diſtreſſed in not being able, in the preſent general alarm, to get them diſcounted, a meeting of ſome of the firſt monied men in the city was yeſterday held, in order to raiſe the ſum of 100 000 l. for the purpoſe of diſcounting the good bills of ſuch houſes as ſhall appear, on inſpection of their accounts, to be in an undoubted proſperous ſituation.

The affairs of America will come before the Houſe of Commons next week.

Part of the tea which the India Company have in their warehouſes is rotting; in order to get ſome of it off their hands, they have been obliged to ſell part of it 32 per cent. lower than even in the foreign markets; but even there they were unſucceſsful; they will therefore be obliged to reduce it ſtill lower.

It is generally believed, that however peaceable the preſent demeanor of the French and Spaniards may ſeem to be, they mean to have a tight bout with us, as ſoon as the one has planned, and the other is in a condition to execute the deſired meaſures.

A gentleman arrived this day from Scotland, informs us, that the diſtreſſes of the poor in ſeveral parts of that country almoſt exceed belief, and the opulent inhabitants are hourly in expectation of an inſurrection.

Two regiments of foot are ordered to march into Scotland, to aſſiſt the troops already there in preventing the riots.

Jan. 26. Yeſterday ſeveral letters and papers, relative to the affair at St. Vincent's, were laid before the Houſe of Commons.

A bill is preparing to be brought into Parliament for incloſing all the waſte lands of this kingdom, and for converting them into corn lands.

Lord Townſhend was ſent for laſt night to the Queen's Palace, where he had a long conference with his Majeſty. The above nobleman ſtands high in his Sovereign's favour.

It is affirmed, that his M-----y, in pity to the people of this country, has declared no more lotteries ſhall take place, until the cry of diſtreſs ceaſes to wound the ear of humanity.

They write from Holland, that the States have forbid the exportation of any ſorts of corn, or pulſe, from all parts of the United Provinces, till the 10th of April next, under very ſevere penalties.

So little do we know of the true ſtate of a certain northern kingdom, that in the moment it is experiencing all the miſeries of a civil war, we are talking of its peace, its proſperity, and intended reconciliation.

They write from Dantzick, that his Pruſſian Majeſty intends making that port a rendezvous for ſome ſhips of war, which are now in treaty for with the Dutch.

On Saturday night died, at his houſe at Maidenhead, the Right Honourable Gabriel Hanger, Lord Coleraine. of the kingdom of Ireland. His Lordſhip's title and eſtate devolves to his eldeſt ſon, a Colonel in the guards.

Letters from Copenhagen ſay, that his Daniſh Majeſty had ordered 12 ſhips of the line, and 8 frigates, to be got in readineſs for ſea at a moment's notice.

It is aſſerted, to the honour of our Court, that on the late failure in Holland, orders were ſent to the Bank of England to diſcount any capital banker's bills to a very conſiderable amount, who might receive a ſhock from that circumſtance.

A letter from Greenock, dated January 21, giving an account of the damage of the ſtorm there on Wedneſday laſt, mentions, that "The Juno brigantine, Capt. Paton, came in, it is thought, about 4 o'clock in the morning, and when day light appeared, ſeveral wrecks were obſerved on the bank; about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, a boat and five hands went off, and found the veſſel lying on one ſide, and five corpſes ſitting leaning on each other, one of which was then warm. All were brought on ſhore, and every method uſed to recover life, but to no purpoſe; one of theſe five was Capt. Paton, in whoſe pocket papers were found, which ſhew this veſſel to be the Juno, from Cape-Fear, loaded with naval ſtores; the bills of loading are dated December 15. The veſſel now lies on one ſide, almoſt under water; and as the weather ſtill continues bad, nothing can be done for the preſervation of veſſel or cargoe."

Jan. 28. Yeſterday morning, about five o'clock, the Queen was taken in labour, when his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, with other officers of State, were ſent for, but before their arrival, her Majeſty was ſafely delivered of a Prince, about ten minutes before ſix, and both her Majeſty and the young Prince are as well as can be expected. At noon the Park and Tower guns were fired on the occaſion. The above is their Majeſties ninth child, having now ſix Princes and three Princeſſes.

Tranſlation of part of a letter from Berlin, Dec. 3.

"Our warlike preparations are purſued with more than uſual vigour; and tho' we have a well diſciplined army of about 250,000 men ready to take the field, yet our King has lately taken into pay the Heſſian and Brunſwick troops; and the Emperor, with whom our King is in a ſtrict union and alliance, has likewiſe taken the Saxon and Palatine troops into pay. The ſecrets of our Cabinet, you know very well, are impenetrable; yet the beſt politicians affirm, that this formidable armament cannot ſolely be meant to ſecure the poſſeſſions in Poland, but that certainly our King and the Emperor will put in force their favourite ſcheme of annihilating our ancient ſyſtem of government in Germany, and eſtabliſh out of its ruins two formidable monarchies. The impotence of the different powers, and the tyranny and oppreſſion of the German Princes, bid fair for ſuch an event ſoon to take place."

We are credibly informed, that a ſecret, which till very lately was known only to the miniſtry [and thoſe who are called the King's friends,] has at length tranſpired, which is, that the parliament will be diſſolved juſt time enough for a new one to meet next winter. This accounts for the private miniſterial canvaſſing in many Engliſh boroughs in the courſe of laſt ſummer, and the public ones all over Scotland; it is ſaid the fact is, that the king is determined to exert his royal perogative for once in this particular, although he could not be prevailed on either by petition or remonſtrance ſo to do.

Yeſterday the Lord Mayor went to Court, to compliment his Majeſty on the ſafe delivery of the Queen, and the birth of a Prince.

Neither the Dukes of Glouceſter nor Cumberland were ſent for when her Majeſty was brought to bed, though as Princes of the Blood they were entitled to ſuch a diſtinction, previous to any of the Great Officers of the Crown.

Jan. 30. The congratulatory addreſſes of both houſes of parliament were yeſterday preſented to his Majeſty, on the birth of another Prince, &c. and a moſt gracious anſwer was returned to each.

We hear, that the Dukes of Glouceſter and Cumberland ſent very polite congratulatory cards to his Majeſty at St. James's, on the delivery of the Queen.

The Dutcheſs of Glouceſter is far advanced in her pregnancy, and great preparations are making for her Royal Highneſs's lying-in at Glouceſter-Houſe. Notice on the occaſion will be given in form to the Privy Council.

Extract of a Letter from St. David's, in Pembrokeſhire, Jan. 29.

"On Monday night, the 18th of January, a ſhip of 200 tons burthen, from Philadelphia to Newry, in Ireland, laden with linſeed, &c. was driven by a ſtorm near the rocks of St. Elvis, within a mile of Solva harbour, in St. Bride's Bay, where ſhe let go her anchor; and as ſoon as it was day ſhe was deſcried by the people of Solva, when four ſtout dexterous ſeamen, Henry John, William Mortimer, William Wilcock, and Peter Richards, went out of Solva harbour to aſſiſt the ſhip, or bring the people on ſhore. Finding it impoſſible to ſave the ſhip, they brought ſome of the people off, and landed them ſafe at Solva. They returned again to the ſhip, and brought another boat load off. Among that number was a young gentleman lately married, who begged of them to bring his wife the next trip. He eagerly waited to receive her; but as they were coming through the Eaſtern Sound, a dreadful ſea broke upon them, and turned the boat upſide down, and our good humane neighbours, this young lady, and a woman with a child at her breaſt, periſhed in the ſight of numbers of diſtreſſed ſpectators, among whom were the father of Mortimer, Peter Richards's wife, and the unfortunate ſtranger. I muſt not pretend to picture the ſcene of grief and lamentation that enſued; but I cannot omit telling you, that the unhappy ſtranger exclaimed----Oh! my deareſt Fanny, thou didſt quit the beſt of parents to follow me ---- unknown to them I took thee away;----I alone am acceſſary to thy death.---How ſhall I inform them of thy deſtiny? ---- In diſtraction he tore a parcel of letters he had in his hand.---Poor old Mortimer's fate is truly melancholy, his ſon and daughter both drowned within a twelvemonth. Henry John's widow and four ſmall children are great objects of pity, but not more ſo than his aged father and mother, who, paſt their labour, he had taken to his houſe to ſpend the reſt of their days, with the chearful conſent of his wife, who made it her ſtudy to cheriſh them in the tendereſt manner. Soon after this affecting accident, the Captain of the ſhip and ſeveral others were coming in the ſhip's boat, but ſhe ſhared the ſame fate as the other, and all were drowned except the Captain, who got aſtride the keel of the boat, and three others, one of whom was taken off the keel with the Captain, one ſwam aſhore, and a third was picked up by another Solva boat, which, in ſpite of all dangers, put out to their relief. From what I can learn, there are 21 lives loſt, ſome were women and children. Many of their bodies are thrown on ſhore. John and Richards were buried this afternoon, and Fanny is to be buried to-morrow at Whitchurch. The four brave men, who went to the relief of the ſhip, were people of moſt excellent characters in their ſtations; the three firſt mentioned were maſters of ſloops in the coaſting trade, and Peter was a foremaſt-man.---This laſt act of benevolence is a ſufficient proof of their excellent hearts, and no doubt will recommend them to greater bliſs than this world can give."

The week before laſt the Earl of Chatham received, in his retirement at Burton Pynſent, a packet from the King of Pruſſia; but whether on public or private affairs is not known. His Pruſſian Majeſty has long done the Britiſh Cincinatus the honour of correſponding with him; and, we are told, has, on many important occaſions, condeſcended to aſk the advice of that truly great man.

Advices from Cologne ſay, all is in motion in Weſtphalia; a camp is marked out near Hamburgh, about five leagues from Brunſwick, for an army of 30,000 Pruſſians. Another camp is marked out near Hildwheim, and another body of troops is filing off for Sileſia.

Letters from Gibraltar adviſe, that the Emperor of Morocco has demanded of the governor of that fort, twenty pieces of braſs cannon, beſides a quantity of ammunition.

Yeſterday morning an expreſs was diſpatched to the Queen of Denmark at Zell.

Little as the importation of American wheat is encouraged in this country, the Spaniards are well acquainted with its value; and whilſt we are, by the fatherly care of our governors, left expoſed to all the miſeries of a famine, even in the boſom of peace, they are induſtriouſly providing, by well-ſtored magazines, againſt the inconvenience of long ſieges, in caſe a war ſhould take place.

The Parliament of Ireland is prorogued to Tueſday, the 1ſt of March.

Feb. 2. The Houſe of Commons yeſterday agreed to the report of their reſolutions on Friday laſt, on the ſupply, viz.

That 424,554 l. be granted for defraying the charge of the ordinary of the navy, including half-pay to ſea and marine officers for 1773.

That 42,455 l. be granted for defraying the charge of building, rebuilding, and repairs of ſhips for the ſaid year.

Received a petition, for leave to bring in a bill to encourage the manufacture of ſteel in America.

Some letters from Rome mention, that buſineſs of the greateſt importance now engages the attention of the Holy Conſiſtory, which meets almoſt daily with the greateſt privacy.

They write from Leghorn, that all the Italian States are preparing to act on the defenſive, as very warm work is expected in the Mediterranean, the enſuing ſummer. The Genoeſe, in particular, are very buſy, and are fitting out ſome capital veſſels.

Letters from good hands aſſure us, that a corps of Ruſſian troops is marching into Finland.

We hear that a perſon of diſtinction from Denmark, is expected here very ſoon, on buſineſs of an important nature.

Letters from Copenhagen, give an account of a great fire in the harbour of Elſineur, which had deſtroyed ſeveral merchant ſhips, and ſome frigates of war lying there.

An enquiry, it is ſaid, has been made at a public office, to know in what time they could victual out 10,000 men, in caſe of exigency.

Some letters from Madrid mention, that the King has prohibited the exportation of grain or pulſe from the Spaniſh dominions.

Authentic letters from the Hague mention, that two of the United Provinces have lately denied paying their quota, which has cauſed much ſpeculation among the politicians.

It is a certain fact, that the Dutcheſs of Glouceſter has privately viſited a great and amiable Lady ſince her delivery.

Sunday two expreſſes were ſent from the War-office, with orders for the troops quartered in Dorſetſhire and Devonſhire to hold themſelves in readineſs to march, at the requiſition of the magiſtrates, into Cornwall, where large bodies of the tinners have done much miſchief.

The Under-writers at New Lloyd's have lately ſuffered much, by the violent ſtorms which have raged on the northern coaſts of this kingdom; a circumſtance which ſhould be regretted by every thinking man, as their loſſes are a dead ſum taken from the public ſtock of the community.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, Jan. 20.

"A freſh diſturbance is likely to ariſe here, and if it does, we expect the worſt conſequences. The Miniſters of the three powers, which are now in poſſeſſion of this kingdom, have inſiſted that a Senatus Conſilium ſhall be held immediately, and the King has iſſued out warrants accordingly; but the chief of the army, the civil magiſtrates, and moſt of the nobility, have proteſted againſt it, and declare publicly, that they will never give any more aſſiſtance to his Majeſty, unleſs he holds a national diet directly. The foreign Miniſter, and the Poliſh Chiefs, are equally obſtinate, and we have the greateſt fear of the affair ending in bloodſhed."

Feb. 3. We have learnt from good authority, that private meſſengers have been paſſing and re-paſſing very frequently between the Courts of France, Spain and Portugal, for theſe laſt ſeven weeks; and that ſeveral augmentations have been made in the laſt mentioned kingdom, which cannot be conſidered in any other light, than as being a prelude to a ſpeedy rupture with ſome power.

Feb. 4. Tueſday afternoon, between four and five o'clock, the long ſubſiſting difference between Lord Townſhend and the Earl of Bellamont was finally decided in Marybone Fields, when the latter received a ball in the right ſide of his belly, near his groin. They were armed with ſmall ſwords, and a caſe of piſtols, but it was agreed to uſe the latter firſt. Lord Townſhend fired firſt, which gave the unfortunate wound, and Lord Bellamont diſcharged his piſtol immediately after, without effect. The ſeconds were, the Hon. Mr. D------n for Lord Bellamont, and Lord L------r for Lord Townſhend. Lord Bellamont was immediately taken up, and put into a chaiſe, but, from the agony ariſing from his wound, he could not bear the motion; a chair was therefore inſtantly ſent for, and he was with great pain put into it, and carried to his lodgings, where, when he arrived, he deſired to be laid on his back. Mr. Bromfield, and other ſurgeons, were immediately called in, who endeavoured, but in vain, for a long time to extract the ball.

The noble Peers behaved to each other in the field with great politeneſs. When they had taken their ground, Lord B. took off his hat, which was returned by Lord T. who aſked his antagoniſt, which he choſe ſhould fire firſt? Lord B. anſwered, he begged Lord T. would, which was immediately complied with.

About one o'clock yeſterday Lord Bellamont's caſe was thought very desperate. The ball was not then extracted, nor the surgeons able to trace it. His Lordship keeps in a kind of sitting posture, as any other occasions him great torture. He speaks very highly of the behaviour of Lord Townshend, at the time of the engagement.

The ball, which wounded Lord B. fell down between the intestines of the muscles of the thigh, it penetrated the lower part of the belly, near what the anatomists call the ring of the abdominal muscle, and narrowly missed the inguinal artery, which, if it had wounded, must have proved instant death.

When the report of Lord Bellamont's being wounded reached St. James's, a Great Personage pathetically exclaimed, "Unhappy nation, where the loss of life is deemed a satisfaction for an imaginary wound of honour."

The King, since the duel on Tuesday, has, we hear, been shut up for two hours with Lord North, considering of some method to stop the manual decisions of honour; and it is said, not more highly to the credit of the Prince than to the honour of the Minister, that a plan is suggested, which will make personal resentments infinitely less dangerous than at present to the interests of society.

CHARLES-TOWN (in South-Carolina) March 26.

On Saturday, the 6th of this Month, at Newbern, his Excellency Josiah Martin, Esq; Governor in Chief of North-Carolina, gave his Assent to 25 Bills, and rejected 17. His Excellency then, in a Speech, wherein he censured the Conduct of the Commons House, prorogued the General Assembly to Tuesday the 8th, and the next Day dissolved the same by Proclamation. Writs are ordered to be issued for electing a new Commons House of Assembly, returnable at Newbern on the First of May. One of the Reasons for not passing the Court-Act with the Attachment Clause, is said to be, that the Property of many honest British Subjects had been unnecessarily attached, and subjected to the Controul of unjust Creditors, &c. The Court-Laws having expired with the last Session of Assembly, no Courts can be holden in North-Carolina, until the old Laws are revived, or new ones made, and it is very uncertain when either of these may happen, the People appearing at present, determined not to give up the Clause for attaching the Effects of Non-residents, and the Governor being positively instructed not to assent to any Law with such a Clause.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.

Last Night the Ship RICHARD PENN, Captain ALL, arrived here from London; by him we have the public Prints to the 20th of February; from which we had only Time to take the following Articles, viz.

LONDON, February 10.

YESTERDAY the Earl of Dartmouth had a grand Levee of Colony-Governors, Agents, and West-India Merchants, at his Lordship's House in St. James's Square.

We hear certain unfavourable Monopolies in the Portuguese Commerce are speedily to be removed, which will be of much Benefit to all concerned in the Trade of that Kingdom.

The Wallworth, M'Causland, from Philadelphia in 26 Days, was driven on Shore in a violent Storm, the 20th of January, near Londonderry; but the Crew were unloading the Cargoe, and hoped the Ship would be got off, though it would be with much Damage.

Lord Bellamont was very ill yesterday morning, and complained much of a pain in his bowels, which greatly alarmed his physicians, and shook their opinion with respect to his recovery.

Last night died Mr. Alderman Rossiter, Alderman of Broad-street Ward.

Extract of a Letter from Copenhagen, Jan. 30.

"The Danish Ministry are certainly apprehensive of the designs of his Swedish Majesty on the kingdom of Norway, and are making preparations to act on the defensive; all the military, especially the King's Corps du Garde, and the heavy infantry, are now receiving very considerable augmentations; all the towns in the different provinces of Norway, that are capable of maintaining garrisons, are obliged to receive them, even at this inhospitable inclement season of the year, and every repair to the fortifications, that the weather will admit of, is now proceeding, and the navy will be attended to as soon as the frost will permit.

We hear from Paris, that the King has taken a surprising turn, and seems at present to find his greatest pleasure in politics; he has quitted the bosom of Madam Barre, for the cabinet; and, feeble as he is, never fails of assisting at all the councils. Some say that this is in consequence of the present disposition of the three powers, who are now about to make division of the kingdom of Poland; and that, if possible, he is determined to frustrate their cruel and ambitious designs. For this purpose, he is endeavouring to engage the Kings of Great-Britain and Spain to join him, and oppose those usurpers. A messenger is said to have arrived at the French Ambassador's in Great George-street from Paris, on the above important business. Should Great-Britain and Spain acquiesce to Lewis's scheme, which is not improbable, it is very likely we shall see Europe in arms in less than three months.

It is reported, that the Duke of Leinster, and some other persons of distinction, are daily expected here from Dublin, on business of great importance.

Feb. 17. The Earl of Bellamont's case, we can certainly assure our readers, is not agreed upon by the surgeons; some say he is entirely out of danger, others think that there is some fear of mortification; for his own part, he wishes the surgeons still to cut away, and behaves with a heroism perfectly consonant to the general gallantry of his character.

The most authentic accounts received both from France and Spain say, that their monarchs are very jealous of the triumvirate, who are about to seize the helpless King of Poland's dominions; and that something is now in embryo for the purpose of frustrating their inhuman designs.

Some letters from Petersburgh mention accounts having been received of a dangerons mutiny amongst the Russian soldiers in the Crimea.

Letters from the Hague say, the late encrease of our navy seems to give umbrage to some public Ministers here; they have not yet required an explanation of the States on this head.

Feb. 20. Lord Bellamont is now so well recovered, that Dr. Heberden, and Messrs. Hawkins and Tomkyns, his surgeons, allow him to drink wine, and live in his usual manner. His wound is not yet cicatrized, but has every salutary appearance that can be wished for.

Orders are sent to his Majesty's Consul at Algiers to renew the treaty of peace with the Dey, which is near expiring, for five years longer.

Deal, Feb. 15. Came down, the Randolph, M'Nabb, for Virginia; and the Richmond, Love, for Maryland.

Gravesend, Feb. 18. Past by, the Planter, Miller, and the Carolina, Pinsen, from Virginia; the Sampson, Cooper, from New-York; and the Lydia, Hood, from Boston.

Captain All left the Downs on the 5th of March, in Company with the Pennsylvania Packet, Captain Osborne, and the Mary and Elizabeth, Captain Mesnard, both for this Port, who may be hourly expected.

Captain Sutton informs us, that on the 1st of March, a Body of Rioters assembled in Bridgetown, under Arms, to the Number of 18 or 20; they came under Articles, to be true to each other, which Articles were drawn up by a Schoolmaster, who afterwards signed them; they have done a Deal of Mischief, killed one Negroe, wounded some others, and shot a white Man through the Back, so that it was thought he could not live: The Governor issued a Proclamation, and the next Day 12 of them were taken, and sent to Goal.

Captain Bagley, arrived at New-York from the Grenades, on the 21st ult. in Lat. 29: 36, Long. 67, spoke a Sloop, Captain Gensell, from this Port for St. Croix.

The Brig Prince of Wales, Captain Mason, and the Brig Charlestown Packet, Captain Wright, are arrived at Charlestown from this Port.

Captain Gilbert, from Jamaica, on the 2d Instant, in Lat. 36: 7, Long. 72: 30, spoke the Brig Sally, Captain Bryan, from this Port for Hispaniola, out 35 Days: Captain Shields sailed in Company with Captain Gilbert for this Port.

The Ship Boyne, Captain Cunningham, from this Port, is arrived at Jamaica.

The Ship Betsey, Captain Hood, and the Ship Concord, Captain Volans, were to sail on the 10th of March from Bristol for this Port.

The Ship Lydia, Captain Dean, was to sail from Liverpool for this Port about the 10th of February.

The Phœnix, Capt. Gamble, of this Port, is arrived at Bristol.

Captain Marsh, from St. Kitts, on the 2d Instant, in Lat. 35, spoke a Sloop, Captain Walker, from Hispaniola for this Port, out 18 Days, all well; and on the 5th, in Lat. 36: 49, he spoke a Brig, from Virginia for Glasgow, out 4 Days, but the Wind blowing very hard, he could not learn the Master's Name.

Queen Ann's County, Maryland, April 1, 1773.

Last Night departed this Life, after a few Days Illness, the Reverend THOMAS ALKIN, Rector of St. John's Parish; a Gentleman who in all the various Characters of a Divine, a Father and Husband, rendered himself acceptable both in public and private. His unwearied Assiduity in the Discharge of his Office, Fervency and humble Zeal, in impressing the practical Doctrines of Christianity upon his Hearers, universal Regard for Men of different Persuasions, who were labouring, not to establish a particular Sect, so much as to reform the Lives and Conversations of Mankind in general, were indisputable Evidences of his being a faithful Minister of the Gospel.

BY virtue of a writ of Venditioni Exponas, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale, or vendue, at the house of Peter Bright, Tavern-keeper, in Reading, on the 10th day of May next, a certain messuage or tenement, and lot of ground, situate in the town of Reading, in Berks county, on the south side of Penn-street, containing in breadth east and west 60 feet, and in length 270 feet, marked in the general plan of the said town No. 56, with the appurtenances; late the estate of John Yerger; seized and taken in execution, by Reading, April 10, 1773. GEORGE NAGEL, Sheriff.

HAMILTON and MOORE,

Of Lancaster, take this opportunity of acquainting their friends, and the Public in general,

THAT they have removed from the house they lately lived in, to the house long occupied by the the late John Cameron, next door to the Widow Groos, where they have opened a large and neat assortment of goods, suitable to the season, which they are determined to sell upon the lowest terms; they have a compleat assortment of boulting cloths, for merchant and country work, which they will sell much lower than they have been usually sold, and warrant to be good. They also have a large assortment of sadlery, and intend to supply sadlers with every thing suitable to their business, upon the lowest terms. The friendship of the public, which they have experienced ever since their first coming to Lancaster, makes them hope for the continuance of their favours, as they make it their study to sell every article remarkably low, and shall omit nothing in their power that shall contribute to the satisfaction of their customers. They think it unnecessary to particularize their goods, and shall only say that they intend keeping a large and general assortment, and they flatter themselves that as many as have not yet dealt with them, will find upon trial that they may be supplied upon the most equitable terms. They keep wine, rum and melasses, and waggoners may be supplied with coarse and fine salt; they also have German and English steel.

N. B. HAMILTON and MOORE give the highest price for bees-wax, hemp, flaxseed in its season, country made linen, and most sorts of country produce. Tbc. 3 M.

WAS LOST, on the 26th of February last, between the Signs of the Warren and the Ship, on Lancaster road, Several SETTS of MUSIC, calculated to the violin, viz. Martin's sonatas, Humphrey's sonatas, Carter's ditto, and Ursillo's ditto; all wrapped in a large sheet of brown paper. Whoever has found the same, and will deliver them, undefaced, to Mr. ISAAC WEBB, at the Warren; Mr. ROBERT PARKS, at the Ship; or the PRINTERS hereof; shall have TWO DOLLARS reward, paid by either of them, or the subscriber, in Lancaster, MATTHIAS SLOUGH. ¶

To COVER this Seaſon.

THE noted ENGLISH DRAY HORSE, a jet black, 17 hands high, meaſures 16 inches round the knee joint, and is well proportioned otherwiſe; he is judged the broadeſt horſe in the province; he is much admired for courage, ſhape, marks and beauty, and likewiſe for his ſtrength and trueneſs in drawing, as perhaps there are none in the province able to exceed him; he is remarkably ſure in getting colts, many of which ſeem likely to be nearly or quite as large as himſelf. The ſaid horſe was foaled in Lincolnſhire, in Old England, was imported by Colonel FRANCIS, is now kept by the ſubſcriber, in Pennſbury townſhip, formerly called Kennet, in Cheſter county, between Kennet Meeting-houſe and the Forks of Brandywine-creek, near Benjamin Taylor's mill, where he is to cover at Twenty-five Shillings per Mare, the ſeaſon, until the firſt of Auguſt. The ſubſcriber therefore offers a reward of Ten Pounds, to any perſon that will produce as many likely able well made ſtockey colts, got by any one horſe in the province, as were got by the ſaid Dray Horſe in three ſeaſons covering; much more might be ſaid in regard to his performance and goodneſs, but it is thought needleſs, as he is ſo well known, and his colts ſo much applaud him. Any perſon that pleaſes to ſend their mares, may depend upon their being taken good care of by ISAAC TAYLOR.

BOSTON, March 25.

At a legal Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, at Faneuil-Hall, on Monday, the 8th of March, 1773, and continued by Adjournment to the 23*d Inſtant.*

MR. Samuel Adams acquainted the Moderator, that he was directed by a Committee (of which he was Chairman) to make a Report; and the ſame was read as follows, viz.

THE Committee, appointed "to conſider what is proper to be done, to vindicate the Town from the groſs Miſrepreſentations and groundleſs Charges in his Excellency's Meſſage to both Houſes of the General Aſſembly, reſpecting the Proceedings of the Town, at their laſt Meeting," beg Leave to report,

THAT having carefully looked over the ſeveral Speeches of the Governor of the Province to the Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives, in the laſt Seſſion of the General Aſſembly, they find that his Excellency has plainly inſinuated;

Firſt, That the ſaid Meeting of the Town was illegal in itſelf.

Secondly, That the Points therein determined were ſuch as the Law gives the Inhabitants of Towns, in their corporate Capacity, no Power to act upon; and, therefore, that the Proceedings of ſaid Meetings were againſt Law. And,

Thirdly, That the Inhabitants thus aſſembled advanced, and afterwards publiſhed to the World, ſuch Principles, as have a direct Tendency to alienate the Affections of the People from their Sovereign: And he plainly aſſerts, that they "denied, in the moſt expreſs Terms, the Supremacy of Parliament, and invited every other Town and Diſtrict in the Province to adopt the ſame Principles."

We have therefore thought it neceſſary to recur to the Methods taken for calling ſaid Meeting. And we find that three Petitions were preferred to the Selectmen, ſigned by 198 reſpectable Freeholders and Inhabitants, making Mention of a Report that then prevailed, and which ſince appears to have been well grounded, that Salaries were allowed to be paid to the Juſtices of the Superior Court of the Province, by Order of the Crown; whereby they were to be made totally independant of the General Aſſembly, and abſolutely dependant on the Crown; and ſetting forth their Apprehenſions, that ſuch an Eſtabliſhment would give a finiſhing Stroke to the Syſtem of Tyranny already begun, and compleat the Ruin of the Liberties of the People. And therefore earneſtly requeſting the Selectmen to call a Meeting, that this Matter might be duly conſidered by the Town, and ſuch Meaſures taken, as the Neceſſity and Importance thereof required. Whereupon the Selectmen iſſued a Warrant for calling a Meeting accordingly. All which was ſtrictly agreeable to the Laws of this Province, and the Practice of this and other Towns from the earlieſt Times.

By an Act of this Province, made in the fourth Year of William and Mary, it is enacted, that "when and ſo often as there ſhall be Occaſion of a Town-Meeting, for any Buſineſs of public Concernment to the Town there to be done, the Conſtable or Conſtables of ſuch Town, by Order of the Selectmen or major Part of them, or of the Town-Clerk, by their Order, in each reſpective Town within this Province, ſhall warn a Meeting of ſuch Town," &c. And by another Act made in the 2d George I. it is enacted, that "when and ſo often as ten or more of the Freeholders of any Town ſhall ſignify under their Hands to the Selectmen, their Deſire to have any Matter or Thing inſerted into a Warrant for calling a Town-Meeting, the Selectmen are hereby required to inſert the ſame in the next Warrant they ſhall iſſue for the calling a Town-Meeting."

But were there no ſuch Laws of the Province, or ſhould our Enemies pervert theſe and other Laws made for the ſame Purpoſe, from their plain and obvious Intent and Meaning, ſtill there is the great and perpetual Law of Self-preſervation, to which every natural Perſon or corporate Body hath an inherent Right to recur. This being the Law of the Creator, no human Law can be of Force againſt it: And indeed it is an Abſurdity to ſuppoſe that any ſuch Law could be made by common Conſent, which alone gives Validity to human Laws. If then the "Matter or Thing," viz. the fixing Salaries to the Offices of the Judges of the Superior Court as aforeſaid, was ſuch as threatened the Lives, Liberties and Properties of the People, which we have the Authority of the greateſt Aſſembly of the Province to affirm, the Inhabitants of this or any other Town had certainly an uncontrovertable Right to meet together, either in the Manner the Law has preſcribed, or in any other orderly Manner, jointly to conſult the neceſſary Means of their own Preſervation and Safety. The Petitioners wiſely choſe the Rule of the Province Law, by applying to the Selectmen for a Meeting; and they, as it was their Duty to do, followed the ſame Rule, and called a Meeting accordingly. We are therefore not a little ſurprized, that his Excellency, ſpeaking of this and other principal Towns, ſhould deſcend to ſuch an artful Uſe of Words, that "a Number of Inhabitants have aſſembled together, and having aſſumed the Name of legal Town-Meetings," &c. thereby appearing to have a Deſign to lead an inattentive Reader to believe, that no Regard was had to the Laws of the Province in calling theſe Meetings, and conſequently to conſider them as illegal and diſorderly.

The Inhabitants being met, and for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, the Points determined, his Excellency ſays, "were ſuch as the Law gives the Inhabitants of Towns, in their corporate Capacity, no Power to act upon." It would be a ſufficient Juſtification of the Town to ſay, that no Law forbids the Inhabitants of Towns, in their corporate Capacity, to determine ſuch Points as were then determined. And if there was no poſitive legal Reſtraint upon their Conduct, it was doing them an eſſential Injury, to repreſent it to the World as illegal. Where the Law makes no ſpecial Proviſion for the common Safety, the People have a Right to conſult their own Preſervation; and the neceſſary Means to withſtand a moſt dangerous Attack of arbitrary Power. At ſuch a Time, it is but a pitiful Objection to their thus doing, that the Law has not expreſly given them a Power to act upon ſuch Points. This is the very Language of Tyranny: And when ſuch Objections are offered, to prevent the People's meeting together in a Time of public Danger, it affords of itſelf juſt Grounds of Jealouſy, that a Plan is laid for their Slavery.

The Town entered upon an Enquiry into the Grounds of a Report, in which the common Safety was very greatly intereſted. They made their Application to the Governor, a Fellow Citizen, as well as the firſt Magiſtrate of the Province; but they were informed by his Excellency, that "it was by no Means proper for him to acquaint them, whether he had or had not received any Advices relating to the public Affairs of the Government of the Province." Their next Determination was, to petition the Governor, that the General Aſſembly might be allowed to meet at the Time to which it then ſtood prorogued: But his Excellency refuſed to grant this Requeſt, leſt it ſhould be "encouraging the Inhabitants of other Towns to aſſemble," "to conſider of the Neceſſity or Expediency of a Seſſion of the General Aſſembly." Hitherto the Town had determined upon no Point but only that of petitioning the Governor. And will his Excellency, or any one elſe affirm, that the Inhabitants of this or any other Town have not a Right, in their corporate Capacity, to petition for a Seſſion of the General Aſſembly, merely becauſe the Law of this Province, that authorizes Towns to aſſemble, does not expreſly make that the Buſineſs of a Town-Meeting? It is the Declaration of the Bill of Rights, founded in Reaſon, that it is the Right of the Subjects to petition the King: But it is apparent in his Excellency's Anſwer, that the Inhabitants of this Town were in Effect denied, in one Inſtance at leaſt, the Right of petitioning his Majeſty's Repreſentative; which was the more grievous to them, becauſe the Prayer of their Petition was nothing more, than that the General Aſſembly might have the Opportunity of enquiring of the Governor into the Grounds of the Report of an intolerable Grievance, which his Excellency had before ſtrongly intimated to them it was not in his Power to inform them of, "conſiſtent with Fidelity to the Truſt which his Majeſty had repoſed in him."

We have been the more particular in reciting the Tranſactions of that Meeting thus far, in order that the Propriety and Neceſſity of the further Proceedings of the ſame Meeting may appear in a true Point of Light.

His Excellency having thus frowned upon the reaſonable Petitions of the Town; and they having the ſtrongeſt Apprehenſions that in Addition to, or rather in Conſequence of, other Grievances not redreſſed, a mortal Wound would very ſoon be given to the Civil Conſtitution of the Province, and having no Aſſurance of the timely Interpoſition of the General Aſſembly, to whoſe Wiſdom they were earneſtly ſollicitous to refer the whole Matter, the Town thought it expedient to ſtate, as far as they were able, the Rights of the Coloniſts, and of this Province, to enumerate the Infringements on thoſe Rights, and, in a circular Letter to each of the Towns and Diſtricts in the Province, to ſubmit the ſame to their Conſideration; that the Subject might be weighed as its Importance required, and the collected Wiſdom of the whole People, as far as poſſible, obtained. At the ſame Time, not "calling upon" thoſe Towns and Diſtricts "to adopt their Principles," as his Excellency, in one of his Speeches, affirms, but only informing them, that "a free Communication of their Sentiments to this Town of our common Danger, was earneſtly ſollicited, and would be gratefully received." We may juſtly affirm that the Town had a Right, at that Meeting, to communicate their Sentiments of Matters, which ſo nearly concerned the public Liberty, and conſequently their own Preſervation. They were Matters, to uſe the Words of the Province Law, of "public Concernment" to this and every other Town, and every Individual in the Province. Any Attempt, therefore, to obſtruct the Channel of public Intelligence in this Way argues, in our Opinion, a Deſign to keep the People in Ignorance of their Danger, that they may be the more eaſily and ſpeedily enſlaved. It is notorious to all the World, that the Liberties of this Continent, and eſpecially of this Province, have been ſyſtematically and ſucceſsfully invaded from Step to Step; is it not then, to ſay the leaſt, juſtifiable in any Town, as being Part of the great Whole, when the laſt Effort of Tyranny is about to be made, to ſpread the earlieſt Notice of it far and wide, and hold up the iniquitous Syſtem in full View. It is a great Satisfaction to us, that ſo many of the reſpectable Towns in the Province, and we may add, Gentlemen of Figure in other Colonies, have expreſſed, and continue to expreſs themſelves much pleaſed with the Meaſure; and we encourage ourſelves that from the manifeſt Diſcovery of an Union of Sentiments in this Province, which has been one happy Fruit of it, there will be the united Efforts of the Whole, in all conſtitutional and proper Methods, to prevent the entire Ruin of our Liberties.

His Excellency is pleaſed to ſay in one of his Speeches, that the Town have "denied in the moſt expreſs Terms the Supremacy of Parliament." It is fortunate for the Town that they made Choice of the very Mode of Expreſſion, which the preſent Houſe of Repreſentatives in their Wiſdom made uſe of, in ſtating the Matter of Controverſy between the Governor and them: And after what they have advanced upon the Subject, it appears to us impoſſible to be ſhewn, that the Parliament of Great-Britain can exerciſe "theſe Powers of Legiſlation for the Coloniſts in all Caſes whatever," conſiſtently with the Rights which belong to the Coloniſts, as Men, as Chriſtians, and as Subjects, or without deſtroying the Foundation of their own Conſtitution.---If the Aſſertion, that the Parliament hath no Right to exerciſe a Power in Caſes where it is plain they have no Right, hath a direct Tendency to alienate the Affections of the People from their Sovereign, becauſe he is a conſtituent Part of that Parliament, as ſeems to be his Excellency's Manner of reaſoning, it follows, as we conceive, that there muſt never be a Complaint of any Aſſumption of Power in the Parliament, or Petition for the Repeal of any Law, made repugnant to the Conſtitution, leſt it ſhould tend to alienate the Affections of the People from their Sovereign; but we have a better Opinion of our Fellow Subjects than to concede to ſuch Concluſions. We are aſſured they can clearly ſee, that a Miſtake in Principle may conſiſt with Integrity of Heart; and for our Parts, we ſhall ever be inclined to attribute the Grievances of various Kinds, which his Majeſty's American Subjects have ſo long ſuffered, to the Weakneſs or Wickedneſs of his Miniſters and Servants, and not to any Diſpoſition in Him to injure them. And we yet perſwade ourſelves, that could the Petitions of his much aggrieved Subjects be tranſmitted to his Majeſty, through the Hands of an honeſt impartial Miniſter, we ſhould not fail of ample Redreſs.

His Excellency's Argument ſeems to us to be rather ſtrained, when he is attempting to ſhew, that we have "invited every other Town and Diſtrict to adopt our Principles." It is this the Town ſays, "if it ſhould be the general Voice of the Province, that the Rights as ſtated do not belong to them, truſting however, that this cannot be the Caſe, they ſhall lament the Extinction of Ardor for civil and religious Liberty;" therefore, ſays his Excellency, the Town invited them to adopt their Principles. Could it poſſibly be ſuppoſed that when his Excellency had declared to the whole Province, that we had invited every other Town and Diſtrict in the Province to adopt the ſame Principles, he intended to avail himſelf of ſuch an Explanation! Much the ſame Way of Reaſoning follows (though it would not be much to the Reputation of the other Towns if it ſhould have any Weight) that becauſe their conſequent Doings were ſimilar to thoſe of this Town, therefore they underſtood that they were invited to adopt the ſame Principles, and therefore they were thus invited to adopt them.

Upon the whole, there can be no Room to doubt but that every Town, which has thought it expedient to correſpond with this on the Occaſion, have acted their own Judgment, and expreſſed their own Principles: It is an unſpeakable Satisfaction to us that their Sentiments ſo nearly accord with ours, and it adds a Dignity to our Proceedings, that when the Houſe of Repreſentatives were called upon by the Governor to bear their Teſtimony againſt them, as "of a dangerous Nature and Tendency," they ſaw Reaſon to declare, that "they had not diſcovered that the Principles advanced by the Town of Boſton were unwarrantable by the Conſtitution."

The foregoing Report was accepted in the Meeting, Nemine Contradicente, and ordered to be recorded in the Town's Book, as the Senſe of the Inhabitants of this Town.

It was alſo Voted, That ſaid Report be printed in the ſeveral News-Papers, and that the Committee of Correſpondence be directed to tranſmit a printed Copy thereof to ſuch Towns and Diſtricts as they have or may correſpond with.

Atteſt. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-Clerk.

To be SOLD, by PUBLIC VENDUE, at DURHAM, on the Third Day of MAY next,

FORTY-FOUR TRACTS of LAND, being the lands bounded on Delaware, about 40 miles from the city of Philadelphia, well known by the name of The Durham Tract, divided into ſo many convenient farms. A furnace lately built, and the mine-hill, which contains a very great quantity of ore, of the beſt quality, are ſituate on one of them. Many of the others are extremely well watered, and contain great plenty of the beſt lime-ſtone; ſome of the tracts are already cleared for plantations, and one of them has a large quantity of the beſt watered meadow in the province, and, on many of them, more of the like quality may be made. The land is in general good, and well adapted to the raiſing wheat, barley, &c. which may be tranſported to Philadelphia, by water, at a very reaſonable rate. A more particular account of the quantities, qualities, and advantages of the ſeveral tracts, is as follows, viz.

No. 1. Containing 327 acres. On this lot there is a log houſe, about 60 acres of land, moſtly low, cleared, and about 10 acres of meadow may be made, the remainder has a great quantity of thriving young timber, with very good lime and ſand ſtone thereon; in general, Durham creek running through this tract into Delaware, forms a very commodious landing place and harbour for boats at the mouth, as well as a convenient ſeat for erecting mills, and in all probability will become a conſiderable place for trade and buſineſs.

No. 2. Containing 335 acres and 142 perches. This lot includes the Upper Forge and the Rattle-ſnake Hill, in which is certainly contained much iron ore; there is a conſtant ſpring at the foot of Rattle-ſnake Hill, and a good proportion of meadow may be made. Two thirds of this lot is extraordinary land for tillage, and there is a good body of young thriving timber, lime, and a ſort of free or ſand-ſtone thereon, very uſeful.

No. 3. Containing 232 acres-----Includes the ſtamping-mill, furnace and mine-hill, in which, perhaps, is the beſt iron ore hitherto diſcovered in America; about 20 acres of watered meadow may be made, and there is ſome good thriving young timber thereon.

No. 4. Containing 244 acres and 50 perches. This is the Manſion-houſe Lot, ſo called---Is capable of being made an exceeding fine farm, there are 60 acres of extraordinary good watered meadow, and more may be made; about 50 acres of arable land cleared, a good orchard, a fine ſpring and ſpring-houſe, and ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 5. Containing 102 acres and 45 perches----Is a very good piece of land, has lime-ſtone, ſeveral good ſprings, and is well wooded.

No. 6. Containing 168 acres and 56 perches----Is a very good tract of arable land; very little ſtony or broken; ſome meadow may be made.

No. 7. Containing 147 acres and 129 perches----There are ſprings, and ſome meadow may be made on this tract.

No. 8. Containing 168 acres and 32 perches----A good piece of land, thriving young wood, ſome meadow and upland cleared, 20 acres of meadow ground may be made, and the greateſt part watered.

No. 9. Containing 183 acres and 78 perches----Is generally well ſet with young timber; a ſmall improvement thereon; much meadow may be made.

No. 10. Containing 205 acres and 53 perches----Contains very good arable land; the ſouthermoſt part takes in part of Bucket's Hill; it has two good ſprings, and ſome thriving young timber.

No. 11. Containing 267 acres and 150 perches----A very fine lot, a great deal of good arable land, ſix acres of meadow are cleared, and much more may be made; extraordinary ſprings of water, and lime-ſtone.

No. 12. Containing 164 acres----The greateſt part thereof is good arable land, three ſprings, and a ſmall improvement by the river ſide.

No. 13. Containing 176 acres. This lot takes in the greateſt part of Roach's Run; ſuitable for erecting a mill, or mills; there is in the tract about 25 acres of low land by the river; the upland on the hill is good; a good ſpring and lime-ſtone thereon.

No. 14. Containing 205 acres and 36 perches---A good piece of land, about 71 acres of it low land; 14 acres of good meadow may be made.

No. 15. Containing 163 acres. This is a very good lot, contains about 62 acres of low land on the river, all clear; 15 acres of meadow may be made and watered; there is a meſſuage on it.

No. 16. Containing 194 acres and 121 perches----Some good arable land; plenty of water on this tract.

No. 17. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----In part good arable land, a few ſprings of water, the young wood on this lot thriving, and ſome timber; includes part of Bucket's Hill.

No. 18. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----The arable land in this lot good, about 10 acres of meadow may be made, and moſtly watered; the young timber very thriving.

No. 19. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches----A very good lot, ſeveral ſmall ſtreams of water thereon, about 6 acres of meadow may be made, a ſmall improvement on it, the arable land good, and the young timber thrifty.

No. 20. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches---There is water on this lot; it includes part of Poquampum Hill; ſome cheſtnut wood.

No. 21. Containing 178 acres 120 perches----Takes in the the whole of Poquampum Hill, ſome water, and a good deal of young cheſtnut timber.

No. 22. Containing 57 acres 150 perches,
No. 23. Containing 88 acres 127 perches,
No. 24. Containing 76 acres 40 perches,
} Theſe three lots will ſerve for timber.

No. 25. Containing 237 acres and 68 perches----About 10 acres of meadow next the creek may be made, and ſome of it watered; the arable land under the hills, and in ſome ſpots on the hills, is very good, and lies well to the ſouth ſun.

No. 26. Containing 243 acres and 100 perches----About 30 acres of watered meadow may be made near the creek, the arable land under and on the hills, rather better than in the preceding lot.

No. 27. Containing 236 acres and 66 perches----About 10 acres of meadow ground can be made on this lot; the arable land good, as in the former lot; ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 28. Containing 297 acres and 153 perches----About 30 acres of meadow may be made on this lot, and great part watered; 10 acres thereof already cleared; a large proportion of arable land, and good lime-ſtone.

No. 29. Containing 276 acres and 101 perches----Is generally good arable land, there is a ſmall improvement, and ſome cleared land on it; two ſprings, and a quantity of meadow can be made; the young timber good and thrifty.

No. 30. Containing 277 acres and 35 perches----The quality of this lot near the ſame with the preceding.

No. 31. Containing 129 acres, called King David's Palace. This lot has ſome water, and on a part thereof is ſome of the very beſt cheſtnut wood on the whole Durham tract.

No. 32. Containing 257 acres and 80 perches. This lot is contiguous to No. 1, on the river, and generally good; near the half of it low land; an improvement thereon, near the river; one third part thereof cleared; lime-ſtone, and very good young thriving timber.

No. 33. Containing 193½ acres----Is nearly as good as lot No. 32; a part thereof cleared.

No. 34. Containing 90 acres and 50 perches. And, No. 35. Containing 86 acres and 100 perches. Both theſe lots have good arable land, and thriving young timber.

No. 36. Containing 191 acres and 126 perches----Includes Peter Grubb's and George Heinlein's improvements, about 7 acres of Meadow already made, and ſome more can be made; the arable land middling ſtrong and good; plenty of good ſpring water; lime-ſtone, and a ſhad-fiſhery.

No. 37. Containing 206 acres and 98 perches------George Kleiſſey's improvement.

No. 38. Containing 196 acres and 82 perches---Thirty acres clear; ſprings on the north and ſouth ſides; ſome apple and peach trees.

No. 39. Containing 209 acres and 98 perches-----A large quantity of meadow may be made; it is well watered.

No. 40. Containing 216 acres and 7 perches---What is ſaid of the preceding lot, may with equal propriety be ſaid of this.

No. 41. Containing 211 acres and 35 perches---Shirley's improvement is on the north end of this lot; ſome meadow is made, pretty good, and more can be made; ſprings on both ends of the lot; the young timber very thrifty.

No. 42. Containing 209 acres and 20 perches----Two little improvements, one on the ſouth and the other on the north ſide of this lot, ſome meadow to each, the reſt nearly the ſame as the preceding lot.

No. 43. Containing 207 acres----Water on each ſide; ſome meadow can be made; very thrifty young timber.

No. 44. Containing 114 acres. This lot is nearly of the ſame quality with lot No. 30, except ſome meadow which it has on it, and a cleared field of about 18 acres on the north end.

ALEXANDER SMITH, WHITESMITH, late of LONDON, in Second-street, at the Sign of the Lock, Jack and Bell, between Walnut and Spruce-streets, a little below the Bridge,

GIVES NOTICE, that he continues to make, mend, and clean all sorts of JACKS; he also hangs BELLS, after the newest, best and neatest manner. As he has worked in some of the first shops in London, he flatters himself that he is able to give satisfaction to all those who may be pleased to employ him, in any of the aforesaid branches, as they may depend upon having their work done with fidelity and dispatch.

N. B. As the making and mending of Jacks, and hanging of Bells, has as yet been but imperfectly performed in this place, he hopes that a little experience of his performance, will entitle him to the friendship of his employers, which shall always be acknowledged with gratitude. Tbc. 6 w. ¶

DR. GEORGE WEED,
BEGS leave to inform the PUBLIC, that as he hath been lately engaged in inoculating for the small-pox in New-Jersey, is now returned to Philadelphia, and designs to inoculate this spring as usual, and hath already begun; and for the encouragement of those who have a desire to be inoculated for the small-pox, he can inform them, that he believeth he hath found out and prepared such medicines as the great Dr. Boerhaave hinted at in his practical aphorisms on the small-pox, which by the blessing of God have proved effectual in destroying that virulency of the pock, so as greatly to lessen the malignity of it, so that the disorder proves light and easy for the patient to undergo; and out of above eighty he hath prepared by these medicines, there were not above four or five that had any quantity of them, and they could not be said to have it bad, but all presently recovered, and, by the blessing of God, he hath had none of those he inoculated die under his hands, for which he ought to be truly thankful, and he trusts he is; and while the Lord continues thus to bless his means, he will continue to inoculate for those who apply to him, as far as he is able. We may use means, but the blessing depends upon God alone, and there is all his trust and confidence.

N. B. What greater proof can there be of the utility of medicines than the great success that attends them.

Richmond, James River, Virginia, January 1, 1773.
To be SOLD, by the SUBSCRIBER,
THAT valuable TRACT of LAND, called Mocock's Island, lying within a mile of the Mouth of Chickahomony river, one mile from James river, a quarter of a mile above Barret's ferry, and within ten miles of the city of Williamsburg: It contains six hundred acres of the highest, driest, and richest marsh in this colony; in its present state, during the spring and summer months, it will afford grazing for above one thousand head of cattle: In the marsh are three Islands, the eastermost or low Island contains about 150 acres of rich high land, has two good springs upon it, a barn, two Negroe-quarters, and an overseer's house; a quarter of a mile distant, is Middle or High Island, containing about 40 acres; half a mile distant, lies westermost Island, containing 3 or 4 acres; and they are so situated, that the banking in the marsh is rendered very easy; the eastern and northern parts of these Islands, are divided from the main land by a branch of the river, no more than 30 yards broad; and the southern and western parts, are divided by the main body of Chickahomony, about 300 yards broad; up this river is navigation for 20 miles, for vessels of 4000 bushels; the branch dividing the Island from the main land, is esteemed the best fowling and fishing in this colony: Opposite Low or Great Island there are on the continent one hundred and odd acres of well timbered land, belonging to this plantation, pleasantly situated, and overlooking the whole Island; this land runs from the branch, across the main road leading from the ferry to Williamsburg, so that the distance from town is not above 9 miles; common tides cover no part of the marsh; spring tides, with a continued north-east wind, cover the greater part of it, with four inches water; but the best criterion of the tide is taken from the remarkable great gust, on Friday, September 8, 1769, which spread over great part of America, and then there were only seven inches water in the said marsh. Any person purchasing this Island, may have the stock and utensils upon reasonable terms. PATRICK COUTTS. 6 w.

[For more new ADVERTISEMENTS, ſee the Fourth Page.]

By Captain MESNARD, from London, and the Captains DEAN and COOPER, from Liverpool, we have the following Advices, viz.

CONSTANTINOPLE, December 17.

THE advices received here from Buchareſt, touching the negotiations of peace, do not publicly tranſpire. We are only informed, that the Reis Effendi and M. d'Obreſcow, between whom there appears to be a good underſtanding, continue to ſee each other regularly every day, and confer together. The Porte is, however, exactly informed of all that paſſes, and on the arrival of the couriers here with diſpatches, conferences are immediately held at the Mufti's houſe, but the ſubject of them is kept a moſt profound ſecret. The Grand Viſir's army is gone into Winter quarters.

Genoa, Jan. 9. Laſt Thurſday Signor Ferdinando Spinola was elected Doge of this Republic by a great majority; but on account of his great age, and bad ſtate of health, he declined that honour, and next Monday is appointed for a new election.

From the Viſtula, Jan. 15. Mr. Richard, who went to Dantzick to ſettle with the Magiſtrates concerning the port duties there, is gone from thence without ſucceeding in his commiſſion; but, it is aſſured, that two other Gentlemen will be ſent thither upon the ſame buſineſs.

Frontiers of Poland, Jan. 16. The number of Poliſh Lords which return to their country, under the preſent circumſtances, are very few; many chuſing rather to abandon their fortunes, than be reſtored to the poſſeſſion of them, by a ſubmiſſion which they are averſe to. The oath which the Ruſſians require the inhabitants of this country to take, is as follows:

"I do ſwear to Almighty God, upon the Holy Evangeliſts, and I promiſe by the preſent oath an inviolable fidelity, and perfect obedience, to her Imperial Majeſty, the Empreſs Catherine Alexiowna, Autocratrix of all the Ruſſias, and to her beloved ſon, the Grand Duke, Paul Petrowitz, preſumptive heir of all the Ruſſias. I promiſe to be always ready to ſacrifice my life, and to ſhed the laſt drop of my blood for their ſervice. I kiſs the Holy Scriptures, and the Croſs of my Saviour, to render my oath ſacred and inviolable."

The Magiſtrates of Leopol have taken the oath of fidelity to the Empreſs Queen. The Auſtrians are actually in poſſeſſion of the whole Palatinate of Lublin, except the town of that name.

Warſaw, Jan. 13. The Miniſters from the Courts of Vienna, Peterſbourg and Berlin, have drawn up a very intereſting plan, which they propoſe to deliver to the Senatus Conſilium, which is to meet the 8th of February next. Some of the principal articles of it are as follow:

Firſt, His Majeſty, the Emperor of the Romans, and his Majeſty, the King of Pruſſia, having amply demonſtrated their reſpective rights to the provinces of Poland, which have been ſo long occupied by the Republic, and having informed all the Powers of Europe thereof, ſeveral of whom have acknowledged the validity of their pretenſions: And, in like manner, her Imperial Majeſty, the Empreſs of Ruſſia, having united with theſe Powers, to ſet forth her pretenſions to part of Red Ruſſia, as well as to part of the Ukraine and Lithuania, on account of the great expence of the Ruſſian troops, in the reigns of Auguſtus II. and Auguſtus III. and alſo under the preſent reign of King Staniſlaus Auguſtus, which troops were called into Poland by the Republic itſelf: In conſequence thereof, the States of the kingdom will declare in the enſuing Diet, in the preſence of their King, that the right of the ſaid Powers, and their taking poſſeſſion, is founded in juſtice.

Secondly, After the pretenſions of the three Powers ſhall have been previouſly approved of in the Diet, the frontiers of the kingdom of Poland ſhall be likewiſe regulated and confirmed for ever by the States of the kingdom.

Thirdly, In order to make this convention or agreement relative to the frontiers the better known to the inhabitants of Poland, a map ſhall be taken of that country, in which the frontiers of the kingdom of Poland ſhall be very exactly delineated, and the States in Diet ſhall acknowledge and confirm them for ever.

Fourthly, In order that theſe arrangements may be durable, the ſaid Powers will make treaties relative thereto, with the other Powers of Europe.

Fifthly, As it is well known that the preceding conſtitution of Poland occaſioned great prejudice to the Kingdom itſelf; that the power of their Kings was limited, and very much diminiſhed; and that diſorders had even been occaſioned thereby in the neighbouring countries; it is propoſed to make ſome conſiderable alterations in the conſtitution, the neceſſity and the legality of which is acknowledged by the States of Poland.

Ratiſbon, Jan. 17. It is reported here, that the negotiations of peace, which were reſumed at Buchareſt between the Ruſſian and Turkiſh Miniſters, are again broke off.

The Grand Vizir has written a letter with his own hand to one of the principal Poliſh Noblemen in the confederacy, dated the 2d of Nov. 1772, ſetting forth, that the Sublime Porte being firmly reſolved never to depart from its engagements with the illuſtrious Poliſh Nation, its dear neighbour, nor to give peace to thoſe with whom it is at war, unleſs Poland is healed of her wounds, and peace reſtored in that unfortunate republic: Prayers are ordered in all the moſques of that country for the ſucceſs of thoſe illuſtrious Polanders; and deſires him to impart theſe ſentiments of the Sultan his Maſter, to all his countrymen wherever diſperſed throughout Europe, &c.

Warſaw, Jan. 20. The 17th of this month, being the birth day of our Sovereign, who entered into the 42d year of his age, the Court was in gala; but his Majeſty did not appear in public, nor did he receive the uſual compliments from the foreign Miniſters on the occaſion.

It is reported, that the Ruſſians are preparing to leave Lublin and Cracow, and that the Auſtrians are to ſupply their place. The Biſhop of Cujavia has ſent an eſtafette here, with accounts, that the Pruſſian troops are arrived at Petrikau.

From Poland, Jan. 31. It is aſſerted, that, at the interceſſion of the maritime Powers, the Court of Berlin has agreed to ſoften its conduct with reſpect to the trade of the City of Dantzick; and that the commerce between that City and Poland ſhall be on the ſame footing as that of Konigſberg with Lithuania.

Vienna, Jan. 15. The meaſures taken by Government to alleviate the misfortunes occaſioned by the dearth in Bohemia, have proved ineffectual, and the depopulation in that country in conſequence is every day greater. The quantity of corn, rice, &c. ſent there has been of little uſe, as other cauſes have concurred to occaſion a ſcarcity. An unhappy experience of two years has now convinced the Court of Vienna, of the neceſſity of taking meaſures entirely to ſuppreſs the third of the ſtatute work, which the Peaſants are forced to do for their Lords; and Prince Furſtenburgh, Caſtellan of that Province, has lately returned to Prague, to notify to the States the above reſolution. This will be very diſagreeable to the Lords, but the Government ſeems determined to make this uſeful arrangement for the good of the people.

Turin, Feb. 22. On Wednesday evening, the 17th inſtant, about ſix o'clock, his Sardinian Majeſty was taken ill, and at two the next morning he loſt his ſpeech, and apparently all kind of ſenſation, not taking any nouriſhment from that time, or ſhewing any other ſign of life, than barely continuing to breathe, till near one o'clock this morning, when he expired, as ſincerely lamented by all his ſubjects, as he had conſtantly lived beloved and reſpected by them, during a reign of upwards of forty years.

His preſent Majeſty, and all the Royal Family, are in the deepeſt affliction on this mournful event, and purpoſe to remove from hence to-morrow to the Veneria for ſome days.

Dantzick, Feb. 16. His Pruſſian Majeſty has, for a ſmall time, relaxed the ſeverity of the taxes which he at firſt required of this once free city. But, notwithſtanding, the number of military which he has thrown into it, and the preparations he is making, plainly evince that he looks upon it in the light of a conquered place. By his orders the three ports of the city are to be each of them fortified viz. Voorſtat, Alſtat, and Rechſtat. Ships of war are likewiſe building in the docks. He has alſo deprived this city of the right of coining their own money, has diſbanded the city garriſon, and obliges the inhabitants to maintain a Pruſſian one.

Copenhagen, Feb. 16. Vice Admiral Hoogland is to have the command of the fleet that is equipping here. It is to conſiſt of twelve ſhips of the line, and ſix frigates. Each man of war is to take on board 100 ſoldiers, and the frigates 50 each.

Warſaw, Feb. 17. The Senatus Conſilium cloſed its ſittings laſt Monday, with the uſual formalities; but though the reſult of its deliberations is not yet publiſhed, we know, however, that it was reſolved, 1ſt. To fix the opening of the approaching Diet to the 19th of April. 2d. To anſwer the declarations delivered to the Miniſtry by the Miniſters of the partitioning powers. 3d. To write to the powers who guarantied the peace of Oliva and Welau, to demand their good offices and mediation at the approaching Diet. 4th. To demand of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, the releaſe of the Confederate priſoners. 5th. To proceed to the trials of the criminals, who attempted the King's life; and to order the Referendary of the Crown to ſummon thoſe who have dared to publiſh the interregnum.

The Biſhop of Kaminiec did not aſſiſt at the Senatus Conſilium, under pretence, that as part of his dioceſe was actually under Auſtrian domination, he was conſequently a ſubject of their Imperial and Royal Majeſties.

A courier ſet out for Peterſburgh this day, with the reſult of the Senatus Coſilium, and a detail of all that was done here.

L O N D O N.

Feb. 2. The following is his Majeſty's anſwer to the congratulatory addreſs of the Houſe of Commons on the birth of the Prince:

"His Majeſty returns thanks to this Houſe, for this inſtance of their affectionate attachment to him and his family."

A ſhip, name unknown, from Virginia to Liverpool, is put into Dolgelhew, in North Wales, in diſtreſs.

Feb. 4. They write from Madrid, that the Court has given orders for a conſiderable body of troops to be embarked immediately at Cadiz for the Havanna.

We are aſſured that there never was any real foundation for the report, of a deſign to form an union between Great-Britain and Ireland.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, January 26.

"The laſt letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that all the Sailors lately raiſed in Denmark have received orders to be in readineſs to go on board the 12 ſhips of the line and ſix frigates, which are to be fit for ſea towards the end of the preſent month. It is pretended, but with what foundation we know not, that the ſhips abovementioned are intended to join a French ſquadron in the Mediterranean to execute ſome ſecret expedition."

Extract of a Letter from Stockholm, January 25.

"Every appearance here confirms us in the opinion, that a war with Denmark is inevitable, and that it will commence very early in the enſuing Summer. It is thought likewiſe that it will in ſome meaſure be carried on at ſea, as every attention is now paying to render our marine very formidable. The Duke of Aſtrogotha is to be appointed High Admiral of the fleet, and his Swediſh Majeſty intends taking the ſupreme command of the army upon himſelf. A ſecret treaty is now going forward here with the Court of Peterſburgh, by which it is ſaid the Swedes are to be ſupplied with a large body of men to ſecond them in their operations."

Feb. 6. The Commons agreed to the report of Wedneſday's reſolutions on the ſupply, viz. that 6336 l. be granted for the civil eſtabliſhment of Senegambia.

1885 l. for defraying the expences of general ſurveys in North-America for 1773.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, January 26.

"Yeſterday the Imperial, Ruſſian and Pruſſian troops, who were quartered in the contiguous cantonments of this city, were marched into the ſuburbs and environs, where many of them were quartered, and the remainder in the city itſelf. The reaſons of this ſtep is not publicly known; but it is ſuppoſed to be previous to ſome deſigns, which each of the three powers may have in view at the approaching Diet. The fears of all people here are engaged for the ſafety of the Poliſh Sovereign, whoſe life they apprehend to be in danger, that unfortunate Prince being now in a manner a priſoner to the Emperor, whoſe guards encompaſs the unhappy King."

They write from Dantzick, that though the Magiſtrates are endeavouring to accommodate matters with the King of Pruſſia, yet they intend to make a vigorous defence, and have actually made every preparation, as if they were in expectation of an immediate ſiege.

Feb. 9. Her Majeſty was ſo well yeſterday, as to be able to receive the viſits of ſeveral ladies of diſtinction; and the young Prince continues in perfect health.

Extract of a Letter from Stockholm, Jan. 10.

"A report prevails here, that his Swediſh Majeſty is ſoon to publiſh his pretenſions to the parts of the kingdom of Norway which he claims, and to demand them in a peaceable manner of the Daniſh King, and, if he refuſes, war will inevitably be the conſequence. The provinces which the Swedes demand, we hear are theſe; the governments of Wardhuys, Drontheim, and of Aggenhuys, which, with the government of Berghen, make up the four grand diviſions of Norway."

Feb. 11. Yeſterday orders were given from the War-office for all Officers, Subalterns, and private men, abſent from regiments on duty in Great-Britain and Ireland, to join them immediately.

Feb. 13. A letter from Warrington, dated the 9th inſt. concludes thus, "I do not know how proviſions are with you, but here every thing is ſcarce, and exceſſive dear, and trade quite dead. There are multitudes of people going out of this country to ſettle in America, where work and proviſions are believed to be plenty."

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, Feb. 2.

"We are in daily apprehenſions here of the whole forces belonging to the Poliſh kingdom being diſbanded, as it is impoſſible for the King or the Republic to maintain them; they are very clamorous for their pay, and threaten raiſing contributions on the countries, if they do not immediately receive it. The conſequences attending ſuch a ſtep muſt be dreadful, and it is apprehended that the three Potentates who have divided the kingdom will in ſecrecy encourage the mutinous ſpirit of the troops, as it will divide them into parties, and afford a pretence of puniſhing them for any outrages they may commit.

"The King's body guards, the corps of huſſars, and another regiment, have juſt ſet off for Cracow without orders, on what account is not publicly known."

They write from Liſbon, that a Portugueſe ſhip, with a very valuable cargoe from the Eaſt-Indies, has been taken by two Salletine frigates, and carried into Sallee; and that two men of war are ſailed from the Tagus for that port, to demand the reſtitution of them.

Feb. 16. Yeſterday arrived a mail from New-York, brought by the Mercury packet-boat, Captain Dillon.

A letter from Dublin ſays, "Orders are come over here from London, for ſome land forces to be embarked from this kingdom immediately for New England."

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, February 2.

"Advice has been juſt received here, that a large body of Ruſſians are now on their march from Wilna, and it is ſuppoſed for this capital, but for what purpoſe is not publicly known."

Feb. 19. Yeſterday morning, between 4 and 5 o' clock, a terrible fire broke out at Mrs. Collier's and Jewſon's, milliners in Biſhopſgate Street, which intirely conſumed that, and two other houſes backwards. It is ſuppoſed there were 13 perſons in the houſe, out of whom only three have yet been found that have eſcaped: A maid ſervant and Miſs Milne jumped out of the Windows, fractured their ſculls, and died inſtantly.---Mrs. Jewſon is one that is miſſing; Mr. Jewſon, who eſcaped, remains in a ſtate of inſanity from the fright. One of the bodies was laſt night dug out without head or arms. A ſervant, the evening before, deſired the Watchman to ring the bell before he went off in the morning, but he, when he went to do it, ſeeing a light in the kitchen, concluded the family were up, and therefore went off without ringing the bell. The family had been before remarkably careful of fire, but having ſat up late, and been fatigued in preparing dreſſes for the maſquerade, omitted their uſual precaution; ſo many lives have hardly ever before been known to be loſt in this city, from a fire that did not ſpread further

Feb. 23. The following is the moſt exact account that has yet appeared of particulars at the above unhappy fire, viz. On Thurſday morning a little before ſix, a lawyer going to work, heard a crackling like ſomething burning, which he told to a perſon paſſing by, and ſtooping down, both of them ſaw the kitchen in flames, and immediately alarmed the family. The firſt perſon who awaked was a man ſervant, up three pair of ſtairs, in whoſe room the bell hung. He ran firſt to the room door of his maſter, who anſwered him, then to that of Mr. Jewſon, and after alarming him, had juſt time to make a precipitate retreat out of the window on a beam, into the window of a publick houſe back of Mrs. Collier's: ---While on the beam, he perceived two of the young women attending him; one of them begged him to aſſiſt her in ſaving her life, which he did, but in her fright miſſing her hold, ſhe fell into the Little Court, was much bruiſed, but eſcaped with life. The other was ſuppoſed to be Miſs Smith, ſiſter and partner to Mrs. Collier, who, before ſhe could reach the window, ſunk with part of the houſe into the flames, and was ſeen no more. Mr. Jewſon, on opening his chamber door, found the flames aſcending very faſt, and calling to his wife to follow him, he groped his way into the dining room, got out of the window, and was taken down ſafe into the ſtreet, but before his wife could reach the window, the floor gave way, and ſhe, together with the unfortunate maſter and miſtreſs of the houſe, a maid ſervant, and Miſs Noble, an apprentice, ſunk into the ruins and periſhed in the flames; another maid ſervant, and Miſs Milne, flung themſelves out of a two pair of ſtairs window, and were killed on the ſpot; ſo that out of 11 perſons, who went to bed over night in perfect health, and ſeeming ſecurity, only 3 were alive at ſeven in the morning, and one of them moſt violently bruiſed. The remains of the unhappy ſufferers are placed in 2 coffins, to be interred together. The cataſtrophe was occaſioned by leaving a large fire, which was communicated to ſome clothes left on a horſe to dry.

Feb. 27. Letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that on the 2d inſt. a courier arrived there from the Daniſh Miniſter at the Court of Peterſburgh, on the opening of whoſe diſpatches orders were immediately iſſued, for four men of war and two frigates to poſſeſs the different ſtations at the Sound. The order was executed as ſpeedily as poſſible, but the reaſon was unknown when theſe letters came away.

The Pruſſian Envoy has it, we hear, in command from his Court, to enquire whether there is any real foundation for the report of a Britiſh ſquadron appearing in the Baltic next ſummer.

An anonymous correſpondent ſays, great miſunderſtanding now ſubſiſts between Lord North and one of the Secretaries of State.

March 1. Expreſſes are come from Germany of a very ſerious nature: The King of Pruſſia is in motion, and has publicly declared his inclinations towards Hanover.

It is ſaid that, in order to bring the Empreſs of Ruſſia to terms about Poland, Britain will ſhut her ports againſt her fleet, and leave it to ſhift for itſelf.

The Hon. Mr. Greville Montague ſucceeds Sir W. Trelawney in the government of Jamaica; Lord William Campbell ſucceeds Mr. Montague in the government of Carolina; and the Hon. Mr. Legg is appointed Governor of Halifax.

March 2. Lord North, we hear, has actually intimated his deſire of reſigning to a Great Perſonage, who has conſented to it upon the following condition: That his Lordſhip do procure a ſucceſſor, who will agree to act under his directions; the Great Perſonage having the higheſt opinion of his Lordſhip's ſkill in politics.

We learn from Gibraltar, that the Emperor of Morocco has ordered out ſeveral ſail of cruizers from Modagor and Larache, to cruize againſt the Venetians, with whom they are going to break, on account of the latter having eſpouſed the cauſe of the Ruſſians againſt the Ottoman Porte.

The King of Pruſſia is now endeavouring to conclude a treaty of commerce between the Courts of London and Berlin; but this, we are aſſured, he will never effect; our Miniſtry being too well aware of the motive that induces him to this ſtep.

All the veſſels lying in the river outward bound for the Mediterranean, are fitting as in time of war; and ſome, we hear, have applied for Letters of Marque to fight againſt the Barbary States.

The Court at St. James's has ſo far relaxed its ſeverity, with reſpect to the Dukes of Glouceſter and Cumberland, that no offence is now taken at any of the nobility or gentry, though even in the King's ſervice, who viſit them, ſo that we may ſpeedily look for a reconciliation between the brothers of the Royal Family.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, Feb. 20. 1773.

"His Holineſs the Pope has, we are informed, wrote letters to the Empreſs of Ruſſia, the Emperor of Germany, and to the Pruſſian Monarch, in favour of the unhappy kingdom of Poland, and its more unfortunate Sovereign, who is now in a worſe ſituation than many of his ſubjects, eſpecially thoſe who have ſubmitted to either of the three powers, they being treated with the greateſt generoſity, and are much honoured and careſſed. But there are ſtill ſome few Poles left, who ſcorn to deliver up their liberties, and are anxious to receive a call from their King, to endeavour to revenge the oppreſſion with which all Poland is now burthened."

March 4. The Earl of Bellamont was better yeſterday than the preceding day; but is relapſed again, and ſeems to be in great danger.

On Monday laſt, being St. David's day, a great number of Nobility and Gentry, natives of Wales, went to St. James's, to pay their duty to the Prince of Wales. They were informed by the Lord in waiting, that they could not be admitted to ſee his Royal Highneſs, that he had, however, as uſual, ſent them a purſe of 100 guineas for the uſe of their charity ſchool. This treatment gave very great offence.

The Principality of Wales having loſt its privilege of addreſſing the eldeſt ſon of the King as uſual, it is thought he will relinquiſh the title of P. of W. for that of Duke of Edinburgh, and Lord of the Orkneys.

Whoever it was (ſays a correſpondent) that adviſed a certain great Perſonage ſo to forget himſelf, as to ſlight the annual voluntary compliments of the ancient Britons, deſerves the harſheſt epithet language can beſtow, and the ſupreme contempt of every generous, loyal and free ſpirited ſubject, in the three kingdoms; but it is to be accounted for, ſince it does not appear that any of the Flintſhire addreſſers were among the above moſt reſpectable body, either laſt year or this.

It is ſaid that a fleet will ſoon be ordered up the Baltick, under the command of an eminent ſea commander, to give due weight to ſome late remonſtrances.

We are aſſured the augmentation of the half pay Captains, &c. which will ſhortly take place, by authority of Parliament, will be as follows, viz. 20 Captains will be added to the 10s. liſt; 30 ditto to the 8s. liſt, and the other poſt Captains, with the maſters and commanders, at 6s. a day each.

The 4th Battalion of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, now quartered in Chatham Barracks, commanded by Colonel Ord, are ordered to hold themſelves in readineſs to embark for America, to relieve the 1ſt Battalion of the ſaid Regiment, commanded by Lieut. Gen. Belford.

It is remarkable, that while all the powers in Europe declare their intentions to be altogether peaceable, they are all as vigorouſly exerting themſelves in military preparations, as if they were upon the very eve of a war. France and Spain are increaſing their forces, both by land and ſea. The Emperor of Germany, the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and the King of Pruſſia, have each powerful armies all ready for action. The Swedes and Danes, are aſſiduous in augmenting their forces, and putting them in the beſt order for actual ſervice; ſo are the States-General, the King of Portugal, the Republic of Venice, the Emperor of Morocco, &c. It is reported the negotiations at Bucharеſt for peace between the Turks and Ruſſians are broken off.----Be that as it will, it is certain the Turks are as diligent as they have ever been during the war, in raiſing forces and putting their army and fortifications into the beſt condition. So that from appearances, we have reaſon to apprehend the renewal of hoſtilities, and that they will be as fierce and general as ever were known.

The miniſtry carry every queſtion as they pleaſe in the Houſe of Commons. It is ſaid, the Eaſt-India Company cannot prevail to have the duty on tea taken off, though it is fallen in London as low as 1s. 10d. per lb. and is in danger of being utterly ſpoiled.

We can aſſure our readers from good authority, that the Bank have come to a reſolution not to refuſe taking any Portugal money, provided it be good, ſo that the circulation of that coin, which has lately been almoſt intirely ſtopped, will without doubt ſpeedily become as general as ever.

March 5. Advices from Turin ſay, there is the greateſt reaſon to believe, that agents are employed there by the Spaniſh Court, to raiſe rebellion and inſurrections in that kingdom. Since the death of his late Majeſty, no leſs than three riots have happened in Piedmont, the firſt of which was with difficulty quelled. The government is, however, taking all precautions to prevent the like in future.

By the laſt accounts from Meſſina, the plague had made its appearance at that place, and that 700 of the galley ſlaves (who were releaſed to aid in the hoſpitals) all died in one week.

March 6. At a Court of Common Council held yeſterday, preſent the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen Wilkes, Bull, Plomer, Lewes, Thomas, Oliver, Kirkman, Sawbridge, Hopkins, and Alſop, with a full Court of Commons, when the buſineſs proceeded upon was as follows:

A petition from that Court to the Houſe of Commons, ſetting forth the ſcarcity of bread corn, and the dangerous conſequences ariſing from that Houſe neglecting the proper remedies; was agreed to, and ordered to be preſented by Sheriff Lewes on Monday next.

A motion was made by Mr. Hurford, "That the Court doth concur with the Court of Aldermen, that a frequent appeal to the people, by ſhort parliaments, is the undoubted right of the ſubject, and the only means of redreſs for the various grievances under which the inhabitants of theſe kingdoms have ſo long laboured."

This motion was agreed to nem. con.---Another motion to the following purport, "That it be recommended to the electors of this kingdom, that previous to an election of a repreſentative in Parliament, they enjoin the Candidate that he ſhall vote for, and uſe his intereſt to procure, an Act of Parliament to ſhorten the duration of Parliament."

Upon this motion a debate enſued.---Mr. Alderman H. oppoſed the motion in a tedious ſpeech, which did not reflect much honour either on his head or heart; the whole of which was, that "ſhort Parliaments would produce much confuſion." Nothing further could be gathered from the worthy Alderman's ſpeech, although it was very long. He was anſwered in a very maſterly manner by Mr. Alderman Wilkes, who entered into the cauſes of the confuſions, which the Alderman ſo much dreaded; and proved inconteſtibly, that not only ſhort but annual Parliaments were agreeable to the rights of a free people, and the ſpirit of our conſtitution. The Aldermen Oliver, Sawbridge, and Lewes, were of the ſame opinion, and each of theſe gentlemen gave great ſatisfaction. When the queſtion was put by the Recorder, there appeared only three hands againſt it.

Then a motion was made, that a committee be appointed, conſiſting of ſix Aldermen, and twelve Common-Councilmen, to prepare a reſolution, and circular letters to the Corporations and Electors of England, for forwarding the above very important buſineſs; and carried as above.

Mr. Alderman Kirkman moved the Court, that a petition be preſented to Parliament, againſt the baneful practice of ſtate lotteries in times of peace. The motion was agreed to, and referred to the ſame Committee as were appointed to further annual Parliaments.

This day's buſineſs will be a laſting monument of the virtue and diſintereſtedneſs of the citizens of London: The alarm bell is now rung by the firſt corporation, and the wealthieſt body of men in England, and there is no doubt but the various independent corporations of this kingdom, and the county electors will join in unity with the citizens of London, in regaining their antient conſtitution, and undoubted right of annually electing their repreſentatives in Parliament.

It was laſt night rumoured about town, that Admiral Montague, and the other Commiſſioners, who went with him on the expedition to Rhode-Iſland, had been tarred and feathered, and were returned over land to Boſton in a very woeful condition.

Yeſterday bills were ſtuck up at the Royal Exchange, for volunteers to enter on board the following men of war, under the command of Admiral Spry, viz. the Ocean, Albion, Somerſet, Raiſonable, Torbay, Dublin, Boyne, and Kent,

Lord Bellamont's health continues in a fluctuating ſtate: On Thurſday the ſurgeons diſcovered where the ball was lodged in his body, which they apprehend will ſoon be extracted without any dangerous conſequences.

The Pallas, Bailey, from South-Carolina, is arrived in the Downs: She has been a miſſing ſhip, and valued at 25,000 l.

The Induſtry, Berwick, from Newcaſtle to London, was run foul of, and deſerted in the Swin laſt Friday morning; ſhe drove on ſhore on Orford Beach, but is likely to be got off. Three other brigs came on ſhore on the ſame place, and all hands periſhed, except one man. Four more foundered, and all hands loſt.

There has lately been diſcovered in the ſubterraneous ruins of Pompeia, a room with a window in it, containing four panes of glaſs, conſiderably thicker than any uſed at preſent; a proof that the invention of it is of older date than has been imagined.

Captain Palliſton, who arrived a few days ſince in the River, ſpoke with, in lat. 27, long. 43: 30, five French men of war; the largeſt of them, which mounted 80 guns, carried an Admiral's flag at the foretop-maſt-head.

The aſſiduous attention, ſays a correſpondent, which Lord Rochford has paid to ſettling the commercial differences, between the Courts of London and Liſbon, deſerves the higheſt praiſes, and the warmeſt thanks.

A Committee is ſummoned to meet at Guildhall on Monday next, in order "to draw up the form of an engagement for the electors of Great Britain to enter into, for ſhortening the duration of Parliaments." Which engagement is to be reported at the next Court of Common Council.

S H I P N E W S.

Feb. 18. The Galloway, Biſhoprick, from Maryland for London, is aſhore near Boulogne.

The Port Maria, Atkins, from Jamaica for London, loſt her rudder at ſea, and was ſo leaky, that on the 30th of January, Lat. 49, Long. 17: 30, the Captain and crew left her, and got on board the Woodbridge, Thomas, who is arrived at Dover from Virginia.

The Abſent Friend, Ferguſon, from Maryland for Liverpool, was, on the 19th of January, driven on ſhore at Longkendall, but will be got off without much damage. Eight or 9 veſſels, driven on ſhore at the ſame time and place, are all loſt.

Feb. 19. The Adventure, Smith, from Cape Fear for Hull, is arrived at Dover, having met with bad weather off the Banks of Newfoundland, which obliged them to throw part of their cargoe overboard.

A large veſſel, with about 500 hogſheads of tobacco on board, is loſt on Pembray Sands, near Lanelly, in Carmarthenſhire, and all the crew periſhed. No papers are yet found; but a plank, on which is the word Pompey, is come on ſhore from the wreck.

A ſloop, Lewis Farquhar, maſter, laden with tobacco, from Maryland for Liverpool, is aſhore near Edinburgh, but expected to be got off without much damage.

From North-Carolina, the Ranger, Campbel, for Briſtol, was loſt the 1ſt of March, on the Fingers; three of the people are brought to Briſtol, by Captain White, from Cape Fear. From the ſame place, the Ann, Crow, is arrived at Plymouth.

From London, the Suſanna, Dobbie, for Virginia, at Deal.

The Thomas, Callahan, from London to Boſton, is put into Chatham ſince the ſtorm.

BOSTON, April 8.

Captain Eliſha Towers arrived here from St. Martins informs, that on the 20th of March, in Lat. 40: 10, Long. 71, he came acroſs a ſmall ſloop, about 35 Tons Burthen, full of Water, Lumber loaden, with Shingles, &c. on Deck, no Perſon on board: He took from her, Cables, Anchors, and ſtript her of the greater Part of her Rigging, Foreſail and Jibb, and ſeveral other Articles: There was a Shirt and Blankets marked S. P. and Bed; two Compaſſes, one made in London, the other at New-York.

PROVIDENCE (Rhode-Iſland) April 3.

At the Superior Court, which ſat here laſt Week, a Cauſe was tried, wherein Meſſieurs Clark and Nightingale, Merchants, of this Place, were Plaintiffs, and Charles Dudley, Eſq; Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the Port of Rhode-Iſland, Defendant. The Plaintiffs ſued in an Action of the Caſe, for refuſing to admit a Poſt-Entry ſundry Weſt-India Goods, imported by them in June laſt, by which Means the ſaid Goods were ſeized and forfeited. The Jury brought in a ſpecial Verdict, which was determined by the Court in Favour of the Plantiffs, Five Hundred Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Seven-pence Sterling Damages, and Coſts of Suit.---The Collector has appealed heme.

NEW-YORK, April 19.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated April 3, 1773.

----"I likewiſe acquaint you, that I have ſeen John Wall executed Yeſterday, for being in Connection with thoſe who counterfeited the Paper Currency of this Province; two others were hanged with him for that Fact. Wall was a hardened Villain, and I believe a great Rogue; as he hung on the Gallows, I had the Curioſity to take up his Cap, and ſaw, as I before heard, that he was cropped. Such Work as he and his Fellow-priſoners made the Day before they were executed, was never known here before; they got off their Bolts in the Night, and made their Eſcape out of Goal, but were ſoon apprehended, and their Irons renewed; the next Morning (when they were to be executed) they had them off again, barred the Room they were confined in, bid Defiance to the Sheriff and his Party, and were determined to kill any Perſon that ſhould attempt to take them out; the Militia and the whole City was obliged to be got under Arms. Wall and his two Fellows kept them off, and none dare go in. As they were to die at any Rate, Wall ſet Fire to the Goal, and expected to die ſo; but the Inhabitants ſoon brought the Engines, and extinguiſhed it. His next Contrivance was thus: He got about two Pounds of Powder from ſome malicious Fellow, put it in a Bottle, and had a Match to put to it when the Sheriff or any other Perſon dare venture in. They thus kept the City in an Uproar for ſome Time; at laſt a Party ſuddenly broke in upon them, and according to his Scheme, he fixed his Match to the Bottle, which he held in his Hand, but, through the Mercy of Providence, the Powder did not take Fire. After which they were carried to the Gallows, and executed according to their Deſert. Wall ſeemed to die a Penitent, and ſung Pſalms at the Place of Execution."

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.

We hear, that a Society of Gentlemen in Edinburgh, for the Advancement and Propagation of Arts and Sciences, have conferred on Mr. JOHN BARTRAM, of Pennſylvania, Botaniſt to their Majeſties, Fellow of the Royal Society, &c. &c. A curious Gold Medal, in Teſtimony of the great Reſpect they bear to the many ingenious and uſeful Diſcoveries he has favoured them with, in the Courſe of a long Correſpondence.

Captain Cooper, from Liverpool, on the 13th of March, in Lat. 50: 13, Long. 14: 50, ſpoke the Brig Expedition, belonging to New-York, from South-Carolina for Cowes, out 33 Days, all well; and on the 12th Inſtant, in Lat. 38: 47, Long. 63: 40, he ſpoke a Schooner, Capt. Buſh, from New-London for Barbados.

The Ship Carolina, Captain Loxley, is arrived in London; and the Ship Britannia, Captain Peters, at Portſmouth, from South-Carolina, both of this Port.

The Ship Roſanna, Capt. Cox, and the Snow Sterling, Capt. Thompſon, both of this Place, are arrived in London from Jamaica.

By Captain Simpſon, from Cape Fear, we learn, that on the 20th ult. two Dwelling-houſes were burnt to the Ground, and a Sloop, Captain Angel, belonging to Rhode Iſland, who was taking in Tar, was burnt to the Water's Edge, ſo that they did not ſave any Thing. The Fire was occaſioned by burning the Woods to clear the Land, the Wind at that Time blowing very hard, communicated the Flames to the Houſes.

Captain Walker, from Hiſpaniola, on the 26th ult. in Lat. 32: 30, Long. 72: 44, met with a heavy Gale of Wind, which continued three Days, in which he was very near foundering; in ſcudding, he ſhipped two heavy Seas on his Quarter, which laid him on his Beam Ends for a conſiderable Time, and ſhifted chief Part of his Cargoe, by which he loſt ſeveral Hogſheads of Melaſſes; his Boat, Hencoops, and every Thing were waſhed off the Deck, and loſt, carried away his Jibb-boom, Square-ſail Boom, and ſplit his Sails to Pieces; the People kept the Pumps going the whole Time of the Gale, and it was as much as they could do to keep the Veſſel above Water.

A Letter from Glaſgow, dated January 21, ſays, "Yeſterday Morning we had a hard Gale of Wind, when the Peggy, Crawford, from Virginia, was obliged to cut away her Main and Mizen-maſts to ſave her from going aſhore.---We juſt hear, that the Blandford, Troop, from Virginia, is put aſhore between Irwin and Ayre."

On Sunday Night, the 17th of January, in a violent Storm, at W. N. W. the Brig Induſtry, Captain Savage, from this Port for Drogheda, laden with 600 Hogſheads of Flaxſeed, Lumber, Apples, &c. was forced up Dingle-Bay, and wrecked on the Banks and Shoals at the Bottom of the Bay, near the Peninſula of Inch, already infamous for many Shipwrecks. The Captain and Cook were drowned, and the Remainder of the Crew eſcaped with the utmoſt Difficulty.

Captain Gregory, from Jamaica, on the 29th ult. in the Gulph of Florida, ſpoke the Ship Charming Nancy, Captain Tree, belonging to this Port, from Jamaica for London, out 14 Days, all well.

Captain Shewell, from Hiſpaniola, on the 6th Inſtant, in Lat. 35: 9, Long. 71: 40, ſpoke the Brig Soleſbay, Captain Robinſon, from Maryland for Cadiz, out 4 Days; the ſame Day ſpoke a Brig, from Hiſpaniola for Rhode-Iſland, out 21 Days.

Captain Shewell informs, that the French are very ſtrict at the Cape, ſearching every Veſſel that arrives from America: Juſt before he ſailed they took a Sloop belonging to New-York, laden with Flour, and a Sloop belonging to Rhode-Iſland, the Captains and Crews are confined in Goal, as well as many others: He further informs us, that a Gentleman from Rhode-Iſland was in Goal there, and had been tried, and ſentenced to forfeit his Veſſel and Cargoe, and to ſtand in the Pillory for three Hours, with a Label at his Breaſt; and that the French are determined to ſuppreſs the American Trade, as they are now ſupplied with Proviſions from Old France.

Captain Crew, from Gibraltar, on the 20th ult. in Lat. 25: 16, Long. 53: 22, ſpoke the Ship Friendſhip, Captain Carter, from Briſtol for Charleſtown, out 6 Weeks, all well; and on the 5th Inſtant, in Lat. 33: 20, Long. 69: 55, ſaw a Brig and two Sloops; he ſpoke one of the Sloops, who informed him they were from Virginia, that they had loſt one Man overboard in a Gale of Wind; but it blowing very hard, could not learn who they were, or where bound.

Philadelphia, Fourth-Month (April) 20, 1773.

To be SOLD, by PUBLIC VENDUE, on the premiſes, on the 12th day of the Fifth-Month, called May (if not diſpoſed of before by private ſale) at one o'clock in the afternoon, preciſely [Being part of the eſtate of WILLIAM BETTLE, deceaſed]

A LARGE and commodious TAN-YARD, in the Northern Liberties, near this city, and on the ſouth ſide of a certain lane, called Long-lane, between Third and Fourth-ſtreets continued; the lot contains in breadth, eaſt and weſt, on the ſaid lane, 100 feet, and in length or depth, north and ſouth, 200 feet; bounded on the north, by ſaid lane, on the eaſt, by Edmund Woolley's ground, on the ſouth, by a certain run of water, called Pegg's Run; the tan-yard conſiſts of 37 vats, 12 handlers, 3 limes and 3 bates; there is on the premiſes, a bark-houſe, large enough to contain 200 cords of bark, and every other building neceſſary and convenient for a compleat tan-yard, all in good order; alſo a well of good water, with a new pump in it, at the head of the yard; likewiſe a new well-built ſtable and chair-houſe, with a loft over the whole, for hay. The whole ſubject to a groundrent of Forty-ſix Spaniſh Dollars and Two-thirds of a Dollar per annum.

The purchaſer, on paying one third of the money, may have a term of years for payment of the remainder, giving ſecurity and paying intereſt. There is a parcel of Spaniſh and black-oak bark, which he may have at the valuation of two indifferent men.

At the ſame time and place will be ſold by vendue, the whole ſtock of leather in the pits, conſiſting of all the different kinds of leather manufactured by tanners, and nearly all of green hides and ſkins. Six months credit will be given to thoſe perſons who may purchaſe to the amount of Fifty Pounds and upwards, and three months to thoſe who purchaſe a ſmaller quantity, not leſs than 25l. giving ſecurity, if required.

Attendance will be given at the place and time of ſale, by the ſubſcribers. All perſons indebted to the eſtate of the ſaid William Bettle, are deſired to make payment, and thoſe who have any demands againſt it, to bring in their accounts, legally proved, that they may be diſcharged, by SARAH BETTLE, Executrix, SAMUEL BETTLE, and JOSEPH HOWELL, Executors.

Philadelphia, Fourth-Month (April) 20, 1773.

WHEREAS there will be wanted this preſent year, in and near this city, above 2000 CORDS of Spaniſh white-oak, beech and hemlock BARK, for which good prices and ready money are given; it is to be hoped, that all perſons who have timber of thoſe kinds to cut, and are convenient to navigation or land carriage to this city, will be careful to do it in the proper ſeaſon and get the bark, as they will not only find their own advantage therein, but will alſo have the ſatisfaction of contributing to public utility, by furniſhing the manufacturers of leather with ſo ſcarce and neceſſary an article, and the bark, if kept dry, will receive no damage by keeping; a quantity thereof, in any perſon's poſſeſſion, may be always conſidered as ready caſh, and brought to market when it may be moſt convenient.

It is thought a large quantity may be got up Delaware, and very advantageous to thoſe, who are convenient to ſend it down in the Durham boats, or otherwiſe. ¶

PHILADELPHIA: Printed by HALL and SELLERS, at the NEW PRINTING-OFFICE, near the Market.

To be SOLD, by PUBLIC VENDUE, at DURHAM, on the Third Day of MAY next,

FORTY-FOUR TRACTS of LAND, being the lands bounded on Delaware, about 40 miles from the city of Philadelphia, well known by the name of The Durham Tract, divided into ſo many convenient farms. A furnace lately built, and the mine-hill, which contains a very great quantity of ore, of the beſt quality, are ſituate on one of them. Many of the others are extremely well watered, and contain great plenty of the beſt lime-ſtone; ſome of the tracts are already cleared for plantations, and one of them has a large quantity of the beſt watered meadow in the province, and, on many of them, more of the like quality may be made. The land is in general good, and well adapted to the raiſing wheat, barley, &c. which may be tranſported to Philadelphia, by water, at a very reaſonable rate. A more particular account of the quantities, qualities, and advantages of the ſeveral tracts, is as follows, viz.

No. 1. Containing 327 acres. On this lot there is a log houſe, about 60 acres of land, moſtly low, cleared, and about 10 acres of meadow may be made, the remainder has a great quantity of thriving young timber, with very good lime and ſand ſtone thereon; in general, Durham creek running through this tract into Delaware, forms a very commodious landing place and harbour for boats at the mouth, as well as a convenient ſeat for erecting mills, and in all probability will become a conſiderable place for trade and buſineſs.

No. 2. Containing 335 acres and 142 perches. This lot includes the Upper Forge and the Rattle-ſnake Hill, in which is certainly contained much iron ore; there is a conſtant ſpring at the foot of Rattle-ſnake Hill, and a good proportion of meadow may be made. Two thirds of this lot is extraordinary land for tillage, and there is a good body of young thriving timber, lime, and a ſort of free or ſand-ſtone thereon, very uſeful.

No. 3. Containing 232 acres-----Includes the ſtamping-mill, furnace and mine-hill, in which, perhaps, is the beſt iron ore hitherto diſcovered in America; about 20 acres of watered meadow may be made, and there is ſome good thriving young timber thereon.

No. 4. Containing 244 acres and 50 perches. This is the Manſion-houſe Lot, ſo called---Is capable of being made an exceeding fine farm, there are 60 acres of extraordinary good watered meadow, and more may be made; about 50 acres of arable land cleared, a good orchard, a fine ſpring and ſpring-houſe, and ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 5. Containing 102 acres and 45 perches----Is a very good piece of land, hath lime-ſtone, ſeveral good ſprings, and is well wooded.

No. 6. Containing 168 acres and 56 perches----Is a very good tract of arable land; very little ſtony or broken; ſome meadow may be made.

No. 7. Containing 147 acres and 129 perches----There are ſprings, and ſome meadow may be made on this tract.

No. 8. Containing 168 acres and 32 perches----A good piece of land, thriving young wood, ſome meadow and upland cleared, 20 acres of meadow ground may be made, and the greateſt part watered.

No. 9. Containing 183 acres and 78 perches----Is generally well ſet with young timber; a ſmall improvement thereon; much meadow may be made.

No. 10. Containing 205 acres and 53 perches----Contains very good arable land; the ſouthermoſt part takes in part of Bucket's Hill; it has two good ſprings, and ſome thriving young timber.

No. 11. Containing 267 acres and 150 perches----A very fine lot, a great deal of good arable land, ſix acres of meadow are cleared, and much more may be made; extraordinary ſprings of water, and lime-ſtone.

No. 12. Containing 164 acres----The greateſt part thereof is good arable land, three ſprings, and a ſmall improvement by the river ſide.

No. 13. Containing 176 acres. This lot takes in the greateſt part of Roach's Run; ſuitable for erecting a mill, or mills; there is in the tract about 25 acres of low land by the river; the upland on the hill is good; a good ſpring and lime-ſtone thereon.

No. 14. Containing 205 acres and 36 perches---A good piece of land, about 71 acres of it low land; 14 acres of good meadow may be made.

No. 15. Containing 163 acres. This is a very good lot, contains about 62 acres of low land on the river, all clear; 15 acres of meadow may be made and watered; there is a meſſuage on it.

No. 16. Containing 194 acres and 121 perches----Some good arable land; plenty of water on this tract.

No. 17. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----In part good arable land, a few ſprings of water, the young wood on this lot thriving, and ſome timber; includes part of Bucket's Hill.

No. 18. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----The arable land in this lot good, about 10 acres of meadow may be made, and moſtly watered; the young timber very thriving.

No. 19. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches----A very good lot, ſeveral ſmall ſtreams of water thereon, about 6 acres of meadow may be made, a ſmall improvement on it, the arable land good, and the young timber thrifty.

No. 20. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches---There is water on this lot; it includes part of Poquampum Hill; ſome cheſtnut wood.

No. 21. Containing 178 acres 120 perches----Takes in the the whole of Poquampum Hill, ſome water, and a good deal of young cheſtnut timber.

No. 22. Containing 57 acres 150 perches,
No. 23. Containing 88 acres 127 perches,
No. 24. Containing 76 acres 40 perches,
} Theſe three lots will ſerve for timber.

No. 25. Containing 237 acres and 68 perches----About 10 acres of meadow next the creek may be made, and ſome of it watered; the arable land under the hills, and in ſome ſpots on the hills, is very good, and lies well to the ſouth ſun.

No. 26. Containing 243 acres and 100 perches----About 30 acres of watered meadow may be made near the creek, the arable land under and on the hills, rather better than in the preceding lot.

No. 27. Containing 236 acres and 66 perches----About 10 acres of meadow ground can be made on this lot; the arable land good, as in the former lot; ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 28. Containing 297 acres and 153 perches----About 30 acres of meadow may be made on this lot, and great part watered; 10 acres thereof already cleared; a large proportion of arable land, and good lime-ſtone.

No. 29. Containing 276 acres and 101 perches----Is generally good arable land, there is a ſmall improvement, and ſome cleared land on it; two ſprings, and a quantity of meadow can be made; the young timber good and thrifty.

No. 30. Containing 277 acres and 35 perches----The quality of this lot near the ſame with the preceding.

No. 31. Containing 129 acres, called King David's Palace. This lot has ſome water, and on a part thereof is ſome of the very beſt cheſtnut wood on the whole Durham tract.

No. 32. Containing 257 acres and 80 perches. This lot is contiguous to No. 1, on the river, and generally good; near the half of it low land; an improvement thereon, near the river; one third part thereof cleared; lime-ſtone, and very good young thriving timber.

No. 33. Containing 193½ acres----Is nearly as good as lot No. 32; a part thereof cleared.

No. 34. Containing 90 acres and 50 perches. And, No. 35. Containing 86 acres and 100 perches. Both theſe lots have good arable land, and thriving young timber.

No. 36. Containing 191 acres and 126 perches----Includes Peter Grubb's and George Heinlein's improvements, about 7 acres of Meadow already made, and ſome more can be made; the arable land middling ſtrong and good; plenty of good ſpring water; lime-ſtone, and a ſhad-fiſhery.

No. 37. Containing 206 acres and 98 perches------George Kleiſſey's improvement.

No. 38. Containing 196 acres and 82 perches---Thirty acres clear; ſprings on the north and ſouth ſides; ſome apple and peach trees.

No. 39. Containing 209 acres and 98 perches-----A large quantity of meadow may be made; it is well watered.

No. 40. Containing 216 acres and 7 perches----What is ſaid of the preceding lot, may with equal propriety be ſaid of this.

No. 41. Containing 211 acres and 35 perches---Shirley's improvement is on the north end of this lot; ſome meadow is made, pretty good, and more can be made; ſprings on both ends of the lot; the young timber very thrifty.

No. 42. Containing 209 acres and 20 perches----Two little improvements, one on the ſouth and the other on the north ſide of this lot, ſome meadow to each, the reſt nearly the ſame as the preceding lot.

No. 43. Containing 207 acres----Water on each ſide; ſome meadow can be made; very thrifty young timber.

No. 44. Containing 114 acres. This lot is nearly of the ſame quality with lot No. 31, except ſome meadow which it has on it, and a cleared field of about 18 acres on the north end.

A MULATTOE GIRL's TIME to be diſpoſed of, who has 5 years to ſerve, is capable of town or country buſineſs, and about 25 years old. Enquire of the Printers hereof. ¶

TO BE SOLD,

THAT moſt agreeably ſituated and valuable farm (late Mr. Saltar's) in New-Jerſey, where the ſubſcriber now lives, on the river Delaware, about two miles below Trenton Falls; the farm contains about 360 acres of land, 154 of which are excellent low meadow in full improvement, and divided in eight ſeveral fields, well fenced, and the whole dry enough for any kind of grain, or hemp, for which the ſoil ſeems particularly adapted; the cleared upland contains about 120 acres, properly divided, and in good fence; the remainder is very good wood and timber-land, a very fine out-lot, or range for cattle and horſes, both above, and on the river below; the orchard is large, thrifty, and of the beſt graſted fruit, both for cyder and houſe uſe; the garden is large, neat, well incloſed, and ſtored with a variety of the beſt table fruit. The houſe, barn, ſtables, and out-houſes, are all in good repair; a large quantity of hay, with about 70 acres of wheat, barley, and rye, in the ground, will alſo be diſpoſed of; together with ſeveral valuable farming Negroes, men, women, and children, breeding mares, of the beſt kind, a number of horſes, young and old, about 100 head of cattle, ſeveral pair of working oxen, ſheep, hogs, and farming utenſils of all kinds, &c. boats, and a fiſhing net, there being ſome valuable fiſheries on the river, within the lines, and the navigation coming up to the very banks, will always render the tranſporting any produce to Philadelphia market extremely convenient and eaſy.

The elegant ſituation of this place, and the noble proſpect it commands, both for extent of view, as well as lawn and water ſcene, muſt ever recommend it as a ſeat to any gentleman of taſte, and for ſport none excels, particularly for the gun and angling in the different ſeaſons; many other advantages attend it, both as a valuable and profitable farm, as well as genteel ſeat, that are too numerous to be deſcribed here, and better underſtood on a view of the premiſes. If the purchaſe-money be well ſecured; the whole, or any part, may remain eight or ten years, if agreeable, or more. WILLIAM PIDGEON.

Bow-Hill, April 2, 1773. ¶ 10s.

ALL perſons indebted to the eſtate of ABRAHAM VASTINE, deceaſed, late of Hill-town, Bucks county, are hereby requeſted to make immediate payment; and all thoſe that have any demands againſt the ſaid eſtate, are deſired to bring them in, properly proved, that the accounts may be ſettled by SARAH VASTINE, and JAMES ARMSTRONG, Execut.

THIRTY DOLLARS Reward.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, the 13th of March laſt, a Negroe man ſlave, named Brit, is the ſame fellow that the Salmons has had at Wyoming for 3 years, he is a very ſtout well made fellow, near 6 feet high, about 33 years of age; had on, when he went away, a red great coat, half worn, a blue coat, and a blue kerſey jacket, with flat white metal buttons, buckſkin breeches, black and white ſtockings; he can read and write, and it is ſuppoſed he will forge a paſs. Whoever will ſecure him in Philadelphia or Eaſton goals, ſo that his maſter may get him again, ſhall have the above reward, and all reaſonable charges for bringing him to the ſubſcriber, near Elizabeth-Town, in New-Jerſey. Whoever takes him up are deſired to be very careful in pinioning him, as he will undoubtedly make his eſcape if he can. All perſons are forbid harbouring or entertaining ſaid ſlave, as they will do it at their peril; he is ſuppoſed to be gone in the back parts of Pennſylvania, to Shamokin or Wyoming, where he is well known; he was ſeen to croſs Delaware the Monday after he run away. JACAMIAH SMITH. ¶

TO BE SOLD,

A PLANTATION and TRACT of LAND, ſituate in Rye townſhip, Cumberland county, on Little Juniata creek, about one mile from the river Saſquehanna, containing 263 acres, and 102 perches, with the uſual allowance for roads; the title indiſputable; whereon is erected a griſt-mill and ſaw-mill, upon a never ceaſing ſtream of water; the griſt-mill agreeably ſituate to carry on merchant work, being convenient to Saſquehanna to export the flour, and in a fine wheat country to get wheat, both from Shearman's Valley, and Juniata. The ſaw-mill's ſituation is extraordinary, being ſurrounded every where with a growth of the fineſt of pine timber; on the premiſes is alſo erected a good dwelling-houſe, ſtill-houſe, and other convenient office-houſes, together with 4 acres of meadow made, and more may be made, about 12 acres of plough land clear, under good fence, with 10 acres of winter grain in the ground. Alſo a tract of land, containing 333 acres, well watered and timbered, convenient for the uſe of the ſaw-mill, abounding with a large quantity of fine pine timber, and the land good for tillage. Whoever inclines to purchaſe the ſame, may be informed of the terms of ſale, by the ſubſcriber, living on the premiſes. ¶ ISAAC JONES.

The gallant HORSE LEADER,

IS in very good order, and will COVER this ſeaſon, at the ſubſcriber's ſtable, near Capt. Ogle's, in Chriſtiana Hundred, New-Caſtle County, at the ſmall ſum of Ten Shillings the ſingle leap, Twenty Shillings the ſeaſon, or Forty Shillings to enſure a foal. Good paſture will be provided for mares, at Two Shillings per week, and proper care taken of them, by WILLIAM UNDERWOOD.

LEADER is a dark cheſtnut, well marked, four years old this ſeaſon, 16 hands high, very ſtrong and handſome made according to his height, of a fine temper, great ſpirit, lofty carriage, fierce look, and uncommonly well gaited; he paces and trots very well, and is thought to be equal in ſpeed to any horſe of his age, blood and practice. He was got by Col. Hopper's famous Pacolet, and came out of one of the beſt country mares in this province. As he is ſo young, I do not intend to let him cover many mares, and would be glad people would ſend them in time, that they may be ſure of a colt. He got a few colts at two years old, which are allowed to be the fineſt that have been ſeen in the neighbourhood, and large enough. ¶

Philadelphia, April 11, 1773.

THE CONTRIBUTORS to the PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL are desired to attend their annual Meeting, at the said Hospital, on the third Day of next month (May) between the Hours of Two and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, being the second Day of the Week, the Time by Law appointed for the Election of Twelve Managers, and a Treasurer, for the ensuing Year; when the Accounts of the Expences and Proceedings for the Year past, will be submitted to their Inspection.

THE Subscriber, after returning his unfeigned thanks to the public in general, and his friends in particular, for their past favours, begs leave to acquaint them, that the Royal-Oak INN is removed to Trenton Ferry, where he hopes for their continuance, as he expects to merit them, from his care and diligence, both in regard to the Ferry (in the due attendance of which he will be particularly careful) and House, having provided himself with a stock of liquors, &c. &c. for the keeping the same. The many advantages of baiting at a Ferry (above that of stopping at a distance from one) where their carriages, horses, &c. &c. can be put over, without any loss of time, while they are refreshing themselves, is so well known to every traveller, that they need not here be mentioned by

The Public's much obliged humble servant,

¶ 4 w. RENSSELAER WILLIAMS.

ALL persons having any just demands against the estate of JOHN COCKLAN, late of Whitemarsh township, in the county of Philadelphia, Cooper, deceased, are desired to produce the same to Isaac Mather, of said township, Miller, on or before the 4th day of June next, in order that they may may receive their dividend of the said estate; otherwise they will be precluded from any part of the same, after that day.

For the Encouragement of the Breed of good HORSES,

THE subscriber hath purchased that noted full blooded horse, called THE TRUE BRITON, formerly kept by Captain Heard, and Mr. Waters, at Woodbridge, East-Jersey, to COVER at the subscriber's stables this season, in Woodberry, Gloucester county, about 9 miles below Philadelphia, at the small rate of Four Dollars the single leap, Three Pounds the season, or Five Pounds Eight Shillings to ensure a foal. The money to be paid at the expiration of the season or before. Good pastures will be provided for the MARES, at Two Shillings and Six-pence per week, and proper care taken of them, by

JEHU WOOD, Innkeeper, in Woodberry.

The True Briton is a most beautiful lively brown, 15 hands high, and is reckoned by the best judges of horses in America, to be the strongest and best made horse on the continent to get colts for either gears, saddle or running, as he hath got a large number of the smartest colts of any half bloods in the Jerseys or Pennsylvania, and is now in most excellent order. It would be needless to say any thing of his pedigree or stock, as it hath been so well and so often ascertained heretofore. ¶

BY virtue of a writ of Venditioni Exponas, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale, or vendue, at the house of Peter Bright, Tavern-keeper, in Reading, on the 10th day of May next, a certain messuage or tenement, and lot of ground, situate in the town of Reading, in Berks county, on the south side of Penn-street, containing in breadth east and west 60 feet, and in length 270 feet, marked in the general plan of the said town No. 56, with the appurtenances; late the estate of John Yerger; seized and taken in execution, by

TO THE PUBLIC.

Kennet Square, April 12, 1773.

AT the intercession of a large number of acquaintances, the subscriber has given up to keep at his stables this season YOUNG SPARK, coming 4 years old this grass, full 16 hands high, remarkably broad and well proportioned, a beautiful brown, and very well marked. The race from which he is descended leaves no scruple of his being likely to get as good draught horses as any horse on the continent. Likewise a genteel hackney Horse, comes seven years old this grass, a dark bay, about 15 hands high, a good hackney, and a swift Pacer.---Each of which horses is to cover at the small sum of Ten Shillings each mare the season.

The subscriber has several houses and lots to lett at this place, for tradesmen and labourers, among which there is a good smith much wanted, as there is a good shop, shed and coal-house; plenty of timber to be got for coal at a moderate price, and, beyond a doubt, plenty of business all seasons of the year. For terms, apply to JOSEPH MUSGRAVE. ¶

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, will be exposed to sale, on Wednesday, the 21st of April instant, at six o'clock in the evening, at the London Coffee-house, A certain three story brick messuage or tenement, and lot or piece of ground, situate on the west-side of Third-street, between Arch and Race-streets, in the city of Philadelphia, containing in breadth about 18 feet, and in length or depth about 118 feet; bounded by Third-street aforesaid, and by ground of Jeremiah Warder, Frederick Phile, and others; late the estate of William Coffing; seized and taken in execution, by JUDAH FOULKE, Sheriff.

BY virtue of several writs of Venditioni Exponas, to me directed, will be sold by public vendue, on Thursday, the 6th day of May next, at 9 o'clock in the morning, on the premises, several large and valuable tracts of land, situate in the townships of Passyunk and Kingcess, within three or four miles of the city of Philadelphia, consisting of excellent meadow and upland (the whole to be subdivided into lots, so as to suit the purchasers, a plan of which will be to be seen at the Coffee-house, and other places, as soon as the surveyors can complete the same, and of which public notice is hereafter to be given) seized and taken in execution by

JUDAH FOULKE, Sheriff.

To be SOLD, by way of public VENDUE,
on Saturday, the 1st of May next (if not sold before at private sale) at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises,

A TWO story brick house, and lot of ground, on a street, called Long Lane, near Pegg's Run, in the Northern Liberties; the said lot being 176 feet front upon said street, called Long Lane, and running northwardly 291 feet to a 50 feet street, bounded westward by a lot belonging to Joseph Fox, Esq; and eastward by land of Edmund Woolly; there are on the premises a good garden, with asparagus beds, a young orchard of choice fruit, and a well of good water, with a pump before the door; the whole is divided into 13 lots, and will be sold together or separately, as will best suit the purchasers, it being the estate of Charles Batho, Esq; deceased. A plan of the same to be seen at the London Coffee-House, and at the premises. For terms apply to JOHN WILCOCKS, or PAUL FOOKS, Executors. 4 W.

To be SOLD by the Subscriber, at PUBLIC VENDUE, on Friday, the 23d day of this instant April,

THE noted TAVERN, known by the Siga of the Fox-chace, situate in Haverford township, Chester county, 9½ miles from Philadelphia, adjoining the lands of Messieurs Charles and Samuel Humphreys, and others, containing about 50 acres of land, about 20 acres whereof are good woodland, the rest cleared, about 4 or 5 acres of meadow; there are on the premises two houses adjoining each other, with two good cellars under the same; there are five rooms on the first floor, and five ditto on the second floor, besides garrets, a good kitchen adjoining the houses, and a good lodging room adjoining the kitchen, a large barn and stables, a large shed, a well of excellent water close to the kitchen door, a good garden, paled in, a good apple-orchard. This place is very well situated for this or any other public business, as it lies on a cross road leading from Philadelphia to Lancaster, Darby, Chester and Brandywine, now under a lease of about 12 months yet unexpired, to John Richard, at 26l. per annum. Whoever inclines to view the premises before the day of sale, may apply to the subscriber, living on the next plantation adjoining the above tavern, who will shew the same to those who may incline to view it, or to CHRISTOPHER PECHIN, in Philadelphia. PETER PECHIN.

N. B. If the weather should prove bad, the sale will be held the first good day afterwards, Sunday excepted. ¶

To be SOLD, or LETT for a Term of Years,

A LOT of GROUND, containing near two acres, situated on the east side of the Old Germantown Road, or Front-street continued, a short mile from the city, whereon are a three story brick house, two rooms on a floor, a large TANYARD, a currying-shop, mill-house, and other out-houses, utensils, &c. it being an old accustomed place for many years; a draft of which may be seen at the London Coffee-house; it may be entered upon immediately, and credit will be given (if desired) for one half of the purchase money. For farther particulars, enquire of the PRINTERS hereof. Tbctf.

To COVER this Season.

THE noted ENGLISH DRAY HORSE, a jet black, 17 hands high, measures 16 inches round the knee joint, and is well proportioned otherwise; he is judged the broadest horse in the province; he is much admired for courage, shape, marks and beauty, and likewise for his strength and trueness in drawing, as perhaps there are none in the province able to exceed him; he is remarkably sure in getting colts, many of which seem likely to be nearly or quite as large as himself. The said horse was foaled in Lincolnshire, in Old England, was imported by Colonel FRANCIS, is now kept by the subscriber, in Pennsbury township, formerly called Kennet, in Chester county, between Kennet Meeting-house and the Forks of Brandywine-creek, near Benjamin Taylor's mill, where he is to cover at Twenty-five Shillings per Mare, the season, until the first of August. The subscriber therefore offers a reward of Ten Pounds, to any person that will produce as many likely able well made stockey colts, got by any one horse in the province, as were got by the said Dray Horse in three seasons covering; much more might be said in regard to his performance and goodness, but it is thought needless, as he is so well known, and his colts so much applaud him. Any person that pleases to send their mares, may depend upon their being taken good care of by ISAAC TAYLOR.

Good pasture to be had at Eighteen-pence per week. ‖ 6 w.

THE subscriber hereof informs the public, that he has fitted a Stage-Waggon, to go from Great Egg-Harbour to Philadelphia once in the week, to set off from Ann Risley's, at Absseekam, on Monday, to go by Thomas Clark's mill, and the Forks, to the Blue Anchor, from thence to Longacoming and Haddonfield, to arrive at Samuel Cooper's ferry on Tuesday, and set off from thence on Thursday, and return to Absseekam on Friday. The mileage of said Stage is as follows, for passengers 1½d. per mile, for dead carriage 1d. each hundred, per mile, for laying out cash for dry goods or other articles 1d. per Shilling, for news-papers or letters 4d. each; all persons that live convenient may have the news-papers regular, by applying to the subscriber, and those that have any business for said Stage may enquire for the subscriber at the New Ferry, where they shall be carefully attended upon, by WILLIAM M'CARRELL.

To be SOLD peremptorily, by public Vendue,

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS, and OTHERS, may be supplied with SPERMACETI, of the purest Kind, at the Spermaceti-Works, in Market-street, at the Corner of Ninth-street; where also is sold, fine Spermaceti Lamp-Oil, which will burn all Night, in the coldest Weather, and yields a Light, strong and clear enough to read or write by, which may be encreased or diminished at Pleasure, by enlarging or lessening the Wick. Tbctf.

To be SOLD, together or separately, as may best suit the PURCHASER,

TWO BRICK HOUSES, each two stories high, with a kitchen to each, and the lots of ground thereunto belonging, on the south side of Chestnut-street, between Third and Fourth-streets; bounded westward by ground now or late of George Emlen, and eastward by a 15 feet alley; one of them is 17 feet wide, and 91 feet deep, and the other 17 feet wide, and 95 feet deep, clear of groundrent. Enquire of WILLIAM MILNOR, in Water-street, near Arch-street, or MORDECAI LEWIS, at the corner of Second and Spruce-streets.

Also to be SOLD, a three story BRICK HOUSE, 16 feet wide, with a two story brick kitchen, and a cellar under the whole, with the lot of ground thereunto belonging, containing 17 feet in breadth, and in depth 65 feet, situated on the east side of Fourth-street, a little above Market-street, and next to a house and lot of James Tilghman, Esq; subject to a groundrent of £8 2 0 per annum. Enquire of MORDECAI LEWIS. tf.

LUDWIG LAUMAN, of Lancaster,

TAKES this opportunity of acquainting the PUBLIC in general, and his Friends and Customers in particular, that he has removed to his new house, built by the late John Cameron, adjoining to the house in which said Cameron formerly kept his store; where he has just opened a fresh and quite new assortment of European and East-India GOODS, which he will sell on the very lowest terms; he hath also a quantity of superfine, fine, middling, and coarse boulting-cloths, which he will likewise sell very cheap. He thinks it unnecessary to particularize his goods, as it is well known that he always keeps the greatest and most compleat assortment in the place; and that he sells them at the lowest prices, is likewise very well known, to the satisfaction of all his CUSTOMERS; and those who have not yet experienced it, may easily acquaint themselves, by trial; as his utmost endeavour shall be exerted to give general satisfaction, he therefore flatters himself, that he will meet with the encouragement of the public. ¶ 3 M.

Red-Lion Hundred, New-Castle county, Dec. 30, 1772.

TO BE SOLD,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, situate in Red-Lion Hundred, New-Castle county, adjoining the Red-Lion Inn, containing about 170 acres of LAND, 100 acres whereof are cleared, including six acres of rich bottom meadow, in good order; the soil is strong and fertile, and the woodland well stocked with timber; on the premises are a convenient dwelling-house, sheds, barn, stables, and a large Wheelwright's shop. The dwelling-house being on the great road leading from New-Castle to Maryland, in a public and wealthy part of the country, and within a few miles of Hamburgh landing, on Delaware river, hath been found, by many years experience, to be an excellent stand for a store; the situation is healthy and pleasant, and the title indisputable. For terms, apply to ROBERT PORTER, on the premises. ‖ 8 W.

TO BE SOLD,

A PLANTATION, containing 479 acres, lying on Delaware, in Amwell, Hunterdon county, West New-Jersey, 20 miles from Trenton, and 34 from Philadelphia, 260 acres cleared, and in good fence; there is on said plantation, a good dwelling-house, barn, and a good young orchard. For further particulars, apply to the subscriber, living on Biles's-Island, two miles below Trenton. ¶3M. ASHER MOTT.

To be SOLD, by the SUBSCRIBERS,
The following HOUSES and LOTS of ground, in the town of Carlisle, and county of Cumberland, and sundry TRACTS of LAND, in Bedford county, viz.

ONE lot of ground, 60 feet broad, on the main street, and 240 feet deep, on which is erected a stone dwelling-house, 33 feet square, two stories high, and four rooms on a floor, well finished, with a cellar under the whole; also a back stone building, two stories high, 25 feet square, on the first floor is a kitchen and bar room, and on the second four lodging rooms; under the kitchen and bar room is a convenient brewery and still, with all the vessels in good order:---Also a malt-house, 55 feet by 24, a stone stable, 33 feet by 22, and two log stables, all in good repair. One other lot of ground, adjoining the above described lot, 60 feet in breadth, and 240 feet deep, on which is erected a log-house, 26 feet by 21, one story and a half high, with a cellar under it, and a good kitchen adjoining. One other lot of ground, 60 feet in breadth, and 240 feet in depth, situated at the corner of one of the back streets, northward of the main street, on which is a square log house, 26 feet square, two stories high, four rooms on a floor, with a good cellar under it, and a back building of stone, 25 feet by 20, part of which is a kitchen, and the other part a bake-house, with a large oven, in good repair. Several tracts of land in Bedford county, the most of which are improved, and the furthest not more than 14 miles from the county town. Any person inclinable to purchase any of the above lots and houses, or tracts of land, by applying to JOHN POLLOCK, tavern-keeper, in Carlisle, may view the same, and be informed of the price; the purchaser, on paying down one third of the purchase money, may have credit for the remainder, on giving security, and paying interest. Adjoining ſaid tract, another parcel of good land, containing 172 acres, well watered, and plenty of timber, whereon much meadow may be made; there are two log dwelling-houſes erected on ſaid tract, alſo two bearing apple orchards. Alſo another tract of land, ſituate and lying in or near Fawn townſhip, York county, containing 200 acres of unimproved land, whereon may be built an extraordinary good mill, upon a never failing ſtream of water, known by the name of Muddy-creek, the main branch thereof; 30 or 40 acres of meadow ground may be made upon this tract, the body whereof is moſtly good land, having 40 acres hazle bottom. The whole of the above deſcribed lands will be ſold together or ſeparate, as may ſuit the purchaſer, the terms will be made known by JOHN LEWDEN, at Chriſtiana Bridge, or ESTHER BROWN, living upon the premiſes, in Weſt-Nottingham, who will ſhew the lands to any perſon deſirous of purchaſing. ¶15s. 2m.

Wilmington, March 16, 1773.

To be SOLD by the SUBSCRIBER,

TWELVE Hundred and Forty-four ACRES of LAND, in the county of New-Caſtle; 255 acres thereof in Whiteclay Creek Hundred, bounded by Chriſtiana Creek, and the lands of John Evans, Eſq; there are on this land a log houſe, barn and weaver's ſhop, about 40 acres cleared, ſome meadow already made, and more may be made, and eaſily watered.

Alſo 217 acres, in Pencader Hundred, 4 miles from Chriſtiana Bridge, and 2 miles from Newark, on the great road leading from thence to the Head of Elk, and adjoining the lands of Thomas Cooch, Eſq; is very well ſituated for public buſineſs; 35 acres thereof cleared, and eſteemed good wheat land, and very well watered and timbered.

Alſo 292 acres, in Pencader Hundred, ſituate on the great road from Chriſtiana Bridge to the Head of Elk, which divdes this tract nearly equal: there are about 50 acres cleared, part under fence, and a number of bearing apple-trees; ſeveral acres of meadow already made, and a large quantity more may be made, being well watered by the main branch of Chriſtiana Creek, which runs through the ſame; bounded by lands of Thomas Cooch, Eſq; Thomas Watſon, and Hugh Muldrow.

Likewiſe 480 acres of well timbered woodland, in Pencader Hundred, within 4 miles of Chriſtiana Bridge, and about the ſame diſtance from Hamburgh Landing; this tract is extraordinary well watered, the ſeveral capital runs, called the Heads of Chriſtiana Creek, running through it; there are ſeveral fine bottoms on this land, from whence it is apprehended that a large quantity of meadow may be made; it is bounded by lands of Thomas Cooch, Eſq; Adam Barr, ----- M'Intire, and Jeremiah Morgan.

Any perſon inclining to purchaſe the whole, or any one of the ſaid tracts, may know the terms, by applying to JOHN ELLIOTT, of Philadelphia, or to the ſubſcriber, who is impowered to make a good title for the ſame.

Philadelphia, April 19, 1773.

WANTED, to go into the province of New-York, a PERSON that underſtands taking care of a kitchen Garden; a bound ſervant, of a good character, would anſwer. Any perſon that has ſuch to diſpoſe of, may meet with a purchaſer, for one of that buſineſs, or a labouring man, by applying to FRANCIS WADE, near the Drawbridge, who will likewiſe treat with any freeman that can be well recommended, and will engage for one, two or three years, to attend a Garden.

N. B. Said Wade has to give out for ſeed, an extraordinary kind of ſpring barley, likewiſe ſome of the four rowed common barley. He purchaſes empty bottles, as uſual, and will ſend for any quantity above ſix dozen, to the perſons houſes that have them to ſell. Maſters of veſſels and others may have a conſtant ſupply of bottled beer, warranted good, for any of the Weſt-India Iſlands, or elſewhere. ¶

TEN DOLLARS Reward.

RUN AWAY, on the 12th day of this inſt. April, from the ſubſcriber, living in Forks townſhip, Northampton county, a ſervant man, named Abraham Fitched, or Fiſher, born in Long Iſland, of Engliſh deſcent, about 34 years old, dark hair, 5 feet 8 inches high, ruddy complexion, ſmall faced, rediſh beard, ſeveral powder ſpots in his face, by the flaſh of a gun, ſpeaks Engliſh, and ſometimes broken Low Dutch; had on a half-worn Five Shilling felt hat, a new coarſe tow ſhirt, one new fine Iriſh linen ditto, with a heart, and I think the ſubſcriber's name on it, a green or almoſt ſnuff coloured coat, a fulled linſey half-worn double breaſted jacket, white breeches, of country cloth, blue and white yarn ſtockings, half-worn Dutch pumps, with a pair of large buckles, of Bethlehem make. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and brings him home, or ſecures him in any of his Majeſty's goals, ſhall have the above reward, and reaſonable charges paid by JOHN VAN ETTEN.

From the DANUBE, January 29.

THE Governor of Belgrade having ſent the Port advice, that a body of 50,000 Auſtrians were gathered together near Semlin, the Turks are very much upon their guard, and the army of the Grand Vizir is drawn into quarters, which have communication with each other, ſo that it can be aſſembled on the ſhorteſt notice; and, it is ſaid, that if a peace is not concluded upon, the Sultan will reinforce it with 140,000 men.

Stockholm, Jan. 22. By letters from Wonerſberg we have received the following account of the damages done lately near that place: The ſhocks of earthquakes have been ſo violent, that they have forced open the doors of ſeveral houſes, and thrown down a vaſt number of chimneys: The waters of the lake Wener ſwelled prodigiouſly, and deſtroyed from its very foundation the bridge of Dalhbo, which is now one maſs of ruins under the water; the ſhips ſnapt their cables, ſeveral were wrecked, and one veſſel, which had on board 6000 quintals of iron, was carried over the little hill of Dalhbo, and left on a plain where the fair was kept, and where the troops performed their exerciſes, which is now entirely overflown. Greater damage would have enſued, if ſome dikes had not been immediately broken to carry off the water. The loſs ſuſtained on this occaſion amounts to ſeveral tons of gold.

Maeſtricht, Feb. 26. The Prince Biſhop of Liege having found ſome obſtacles in his reſolution to ſecularize a Convent of Monks, has appealed to the Emperor, and it is thought the Monks muſt ſubmit. There are many well informed perſons who think, that before the end of the preſent century all the Convents of both ſexes will be ſuppreſſed, or reduced to a very ſmall number.

Peterſburgh, Feb. 3. The Intendant of the Royal Mines in Siberia has lately communicated intelligence to her Ruſſian Majeſty, that there have been lately diſcovered in that inhoſpitable country ſeveral rich ſilver mines, three of which he cauſed to be opened, and the produce of them already amounts to at leaſt 150 quintals (or 3000 weight) of fine ſilver, and he has the greateſt hopes that the other mines will prove full as valuable. In conſequence of this advice, the Empreſs has ordered the Intendant a grant of land in the province of Dwina, with 2000 Peaſants, a penſion of 40,000 rubles, and an immediate preſent of 120,000; ſhe has likewiſe ordered the other mines to be opened as ſoon as practicable, and that particular care be taken of the workmen, &c.

Leghorn, Feb. 2. A Venetian man of war is juſt arrived here from a cruize in the Archipelago, and brings advice, that in the beginning of laſt month, as three Ruſſian ſhips of force, and a ſmall tranſport, were ſailing by the iſland of Stanchio, or Coos, they were ſuddenly attacked by four Turkiſh galleys; but the Turks, meeting with a much warmer reception than they expected, ran into the harbour of Stanchio, and were cloſely purſued by the Ruſſians, who fired at them on entering the Bay. Immediately the guns on the Caſtle began to play, but were ſoon ſilenced by the Ruſſians, who took the galleys without more oppoſition, and directly ſet ſail for the iſland of Malta.

LONDON.

Jan. 21. The preſent ſtate of the Chileſe Indians, with the vigorous efforts of the natives all over South-America, to expel the Spaniards from their territories, ſufficiently ſhew the practicability of the plan on which a certain Nobleman came to England; a plan which, if carried into execution, would in eight years have enabled us to pay off the whole national debt, beſides bringing in the moſt conſiderable commercial advantages.

Among other particulars of this plan, we are informed, that Great-Britain was immediately to be preſented with the ſum of Seventy Millions ſterling, as an earneſt of future loyalty and attachment, and afterwards with the ſum of Fifteen Millions of Pounds annually for protection, excluſive of ſeveral fine towns, and a very large extent of territory, peculiarly well ſituated for trade.

Jan. 23. Some letters from Peterſbourg, mention, that the Grand Duke is ſhortly to ſerve in the capacity of a ſubaltern Officer, on board a Pruſſian man of war.

It is ſaid an augmentation will be ſoon made to the military force on the Iriſh eſtabliſhment.

Orders are iſſued to the purſers of ſeveral of the ſhips of war now at Portſmouth, to take on board four months proviſions immediately.

Extract of a Letter from Conſtantinople, Dec. 18.

"We have juſt received advice here of a dangerous revolt of the Janiſſaries at Coſin, on the coaſt of the Red Sea, which it is feared will be attended with very bad conſequences, as it is univerſally feared they will join with the malecontents in Egypt, and ſtrengthen them in a very eſſential manner. Orders were immediately ſent off, on the receipt of the above intelligence, to the Baſſas of the contiguous cities and towns, to uſe their beſt efforts in bringing the revolters to their duty."

Jan. 26. They write from Malaga, that great numbers of ſeamen are daily raiſing in different ports, to man the ſhips now fitted out at the ports of Spain.

Extract of a Letter from Peterſburgh, Jan. 16.

"Our politicians here are much engaged now in ſpeculations on the Empreſs's deſigns in carrying on every warlike appearance, whilſt the language of peace prevails through the whole Court and Empire. Certain it is, that conſiderable augmentations, both in the naval and military departments, are now going forward, and great quantities of warlike ſtores are laying in; theſe appearances have raiſed doubts in the breaſts of ſome, but moſt people conclude, that the Empreſs only intends to ſecure herſelf the advantages ſhe has gained, and remain in a ſtate to defend herſelf from any ſubſequent attacks of the Porte."

Jan. 28. They write from Leghorn, that the Bey of Tunis has arreſted all the Greek Merchants in his territories, and ſeized all their effects, and keeps them confined till further orders from the Grand Signor.

We hear that the preſent Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, a little after his entering into that office, publicly declared to ſeveral of the minority leaders in that kingdom, that an union with England was neither directly nor indirectly an object of his commiſſion. This frank declaration on a point they ſo much dreaded, has opened a proſpect of his becoming very popular.

We learn from Marſeilles, that a number of Gallies are now fitting out there for a ſecret expedition in the Mediterranean.

They write from Hanover, that ſome very material alterations in the civil and military government of that electorate are now going foward.

Jan. 30. All the French and Spaniſh ſubjects have received orders to leave the Duke of Parma's territories, and to return home immediately.

The affairs of America have within theſe few weeks been under conſideration in the cabinet, and it is reported that they will very ſhortly be the ſubject of particular diſcuſſion in a great Aſſembly.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, Jan. 1.

"We are informed that the Spaniſh Miniſtry have ſome very particular deſigns in view, reſpecting their poſſeſſions in the Eaſt Indies, eſpecially Manilla; for which place many of the ſhips now fitted out at Cadiz are ſoon to ſail; a number of engineers, ſeamen, and a great body of the military, are likewiſe to embark, in order to raiſe new fortifications, &c. a ſtrong naval force is alſo to be kept there, and it is boaſted that Manilla will be in a ſhort time impregnable."

A draught from ſome of the marching regiments is ordered to be made, to reinforce the Weſt-India garriſons.

St. James's, Feb. 5. This day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of London, in Common Council aſſembled, waited upon his Majeſty; and being introduced to his Majeſty, by the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſhold, John Glynn, Eſq; the Recorder, made their compliments in the following addreſs:

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's loyal ſubjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the city of London, in Common Council aſſembled, approach your Majeſty with their congratulations on the happy delivery of their moſt amiable Queen, and the birth of another Prince.

Your faithful Citizens of London, ever zealous for your Majeſty's happineſs, and the true honour and proſperity of your reign, will continue to rejoice in every event which adds to your Majeſty's domeſtic felicity; and they hope, that every branch of the auguſt Houſe of Brunſwick, will add further ſecurity to thoſe ſacred laws and liberties, which their anceſtors would not ſuffer to be violated with impunity; and which, in conſequence of the glorious and neceſſary revolution, that illuſtrious Houſe was called forth to protect and defend.

Signed, by order of Court,

JAMES HODGES.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I THANK you for this dutiful addreſs, and your congratulations on the happy delivery of the Queen, and the birth of another Prince. The religion, laws, and liberties of my people have always been, and ever ſhall be, the conſtant objects of my care and attention."

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the honour to kiſs his Majeſty's hand.

After which his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the honour of Knighthood on Thomas Halifax, Eſq; Alderman, and Watkin Lewes, Eſq; Alderman, and one of the Sheriffs.

Feb. 9. Letters from Peterſbourg ſay, that great military preparations are making in that city, and an army of 25,000 men collecting in different parts of the Empire, which is to be cantoned betwixt Wibourg and that place.

Extract of a Letter from Padſtow, Jan. 29.

"We have been in a great commotion here, the town being alarmed by 500 Tinners from the Weſt, who are come to ſtop the exportation of corn, coaſtways, from this port. They have plundered and carried off 600 buſhels of wheat and barley, from the ſeveral Corn-factors. A party of 19 Soldiers, were ſent to oppoſe them, but they were ſoon diſarmed, and the Tinners were maſters of the place in leſs than an hour. One of the Corn-buyers was much hurt, and one of the Tinners killed, by a ſtone thrown at his forehead. They behaved very orderly, except to the Corn-buyers, and paid for every thing they had, except corn. The country is in a deplorable ſtate, from the great number of poor out of employ, through the badneſs of the copper and tin trade; ſo that it is imagined moſt of the works will ſtop, as little ſhort of 20,000l. now lies dead in thoſe articles. The ſource of ſupport which the weſtern Tinners uſed to have from the Iſle of Wight in flour, is now ſtopped, the price being ſo high, that it is next to a prohibition. The poor cannot purchaſe it, and many families do not taſte bread for days together."

Extract of a Letter from Plymouth, Feb. 2.

"This morning a company of the 7th regiment of foot marched from this place, as did a company of the Welch Fuzileers from dock, both which are gone into Cornwall, in order to prevent the rioters from doing any more miſchief."

Extract of a Letter from Peterſbourg, Jan. 28.

"Some treaties of importance are, we hear, now on the tapis, between her Imperial Majeſty, and the King of Sweden. By one of theſe, the Empreſs is to give up to the Swede, the Province of Novogorod Welicki, or great Novogorod, in conſideration of a ſupply of ſix ſhips of the line, compleatly fitted out and manned. The abovementioned Province is a very fine one, and the chief town is a place of great trade, being ſituated in a fine plain on the river Wolcoff, which is navigable into the Lake Ladoga, and from thence has a communication with the Baltic ſea, and will certainly prove a grand acquiſition to the Swede."

Feb. 11.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, February 5.

"According to the laſt letters from Warſaw, the troops of the three Powers concerned in the partition of Poland, continue to approach nearer and nearer towards that city. The Pruſſians are but ſeven miles from thence, and they have a large body of troops diſperſed about Great Poland.

"Letters from Pruſſian Poland adviſe, that every thing relating to the commerce of that country is put upon a proper footing, by the interpoſition of ſome maritime Powers.

"Some letters of good authority have been received at the Hague, intimating that the negotiations at Buchareſt advance ſo favourably, that there is no doubt of a peace being concluded between the Ruſſians and Turks, before the expiration of the armiſtice."

Extract of a Letter from Vienna, January 29.

"A report is very prevalent here, that his Imperial Majeſty, the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and the Pruſſian Monarch, are to have an interview in a few months time, in order to ſettle their reſpective claims on Poland. Great hopes are formed from this meeting; it is expected that the miſeries of that unfortunate kingdom will then find an end. It is ſaid that the King of Poland will be taken under the protection of the Emperor."

Feb. 13. They write from Stockholm, that the utmoſt harmony ſtill prevails between the two Courts of Ruſſia and Sweden, notwithſtanding many late reports of a contrary nature.

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, Feb. 3.

"His Pruſſian Majeſty has given orders to make out a complete liſt of all the cities, towns, and villages in his new acquiſitions in Poland, together with the number of inhabitants in each, their avocations, &c. for the purpoſe of laying them under the reſtriction of a new code of laws, which, it is ſaid, the Monarch is now forming himſelf. He has likewiſe given orders for ſtrengthening the fortifications in all places of any conſequence, eſpecially at the Viſtula, which ſeems the chief object of his attention, being a place of much importance."

Extract of a Letter from Conſtantinople, January 7.

"Some letters have lately arrived here from Smyrna, which bring advice, that the inhabitants of that populous city have been for ſome time under a great conſternation, from a large body of banditti which infeſt that part of the country, and have laid all the little villages and towns in the vicinity of Smyrna under contribution. On the morning of the 23d of December laſt, the whole troop of banditti (amounting to near 6000) came under the walls of the city, and demanded of the Magiſtrates 20,000 crowns to ranſom it from the flames. This ſum was paid, and the robbers marched off for Epheſus. The Grand Signor has ordered 8000 Janiſſaries, and 1000 Spahis, to march againſt them immediately."

Feb. 25. This evening the ceremony of chriſtening the young Prince was performed in the Great Chamber, by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury. His Royal Highneſs was named Auguſtus Frederick.

The Sponſors were his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Saxe Gotha, repreſented by the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſhold; his Serene Highneſs Prince George of Mecklenburgh Strelitz, repreſented by the Earl of Briſtol, Groom of the Stole: And her Serene Highneſs Princeſs Louiſa of Heſſe Caſſel, repreſented by Viſcounteſs Weymouth, Lady of her Majeſty's Bed-chamber in waiting.

Feb. 27. Great damage was done to the ſhipping in the Thames on Thurſday night and yeſterday morning, by the high winds: From Greenwich to London-bridge but few ſhips eſcaped; ſome were diſmaſted, others loſt their bowſprits and rudders, ſeveral corn veſſels and colliers were ſunk, the greateſt part driven from their moorings, were forced againſt each other, and much damaged, many were drove on ſhore, but it is hoped they will be got off. We hear ſome lives were loſt in endeavouring to ſecure the ſhips at their moorings. Many ſmall boats were daſhed to pieces by the ſhips being driven upon them as they lay at the landing-places.

We hear from Yarmouth, that the ſtorm on Monday evening laſt was ſo very violent, that four veſſels were loſt in the Roads, and that terrible accounts are received from the neighbouring ports.

March 1. It is ſaid that Miniſterial campaigns are ſo very pacific, that the Premier has formed a deſign of leſſening his number of troops; ſome late conqueſts have been gained with ſo much eaſe, that he thinks he has not half ſo much to fear from the enemy as from his own army, who, being ſo numerous, half eat him up; and if he is to pay ſo dear for his victories, he might as well truſt to the mercy of his enemies.

A deputation from the body of American Merchants will very ſhortly wait upon Lord Dartmouth, to receive his Lordſhip's anſwer to ſome propoſals lately ſubmitted to his conſideration, for reconciling the diſagreements between the Colonies and the Mother Country.

March 4. The laſt advices from Warſaw intimate, that all the chiefs of the late confederacy have actually joined their Sovereign King Poniatowſki, to oppoſe the deſigns of Ruſſia, Auſtria and Pruſſia.

Letters from certain Ruſſia merchants trading to North Tartary mention, a late diſcovery of an iſland, ſuppoſed, from various circumſtances, to be the very place from whence America was firſt peopled; the continent being but at a little diſtance, and the firſt migration is thought to have been made by large bodies of floating ice; the inhabitants, who live by fiſhing, being ſometimes carried off to ſea thereon even at this day.

There never was ſo favourable a proſpect of the repeal of the act laying a duty upon tea, exported to the American colonies, as at preſent; Lord Dartmouth, the favourite Secretary of State, has declared for the meaſure, and it was generally thought, the annihilation of it would be effected in this ſeſſion of Parliament.

March 5. The inſurrection of the Tinners in Cornwall is become ſo ſerious an affair, that, beſides the regiment of Old Buffs now on their march to that place, ſome more troops, we hear, are ordered to repair thither to ſuppreſs the riots.

The Court of Directors of the Eaſt-India Company have appointed ------ Wood, Eſq; to be Sub Actor for the management of their affairs at Bengal; and Thomas Rombald, Eſq; is appointed Second in Council in the ſaid Province.

The General Wolfe, Hill, from London to New England, after being on Romney Sands, is put into Dover Pier, with the loſs of her anchors and cables.

Monday night the crew belonging to the ſhip Friends Advice, bound from Boſton to London, Captain Robert Thompſon, which was loſt near Yarmouth in the late bad weather, arrived in the long boat, after a paſſage of five days, during which time they ſuffered inconceivable hardſhips.

Within theſe few days there have been ſeveral conſultations between the moſt eminent Lawyers, on certain queſtions, for their opinions concerning ſome parts of America.

Yeſterday the following papers were delivered at the bar of the Houſe of Commons, by the proper Officer, from the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms: An account of the neat produce on the duty on tea imported into his Majeſty's colonies in America, by an Act of the 7th of his preſent Majeſty, diſtinguiſhing each year as far as the ſame can be made up.---And an account of the quantity of tea exported to his Majeſty's colonies and plantations in America for ten years laſt paſt, diſtinguiſhing each year.

Yeſterday the Commons agreed to the report of their reſolutions on corn, and recommitted the corn regulation bill to a Committee of the whole Houſe for this day.

On account of the multiplicity of buſineſs now depending in Parliament, it has been determined to defer the further conſideration of ſeveral matters till next Seſſion, that others of a nature more immediately temporary may be concluded before the prorogation.

By recent letters from Paris we learn, that trade is almoſt at an entire ſtand, and proviſions exceedingly dear in that metropolis; and that many hundreds of workmen, belonging to different branches of handicraft, daily parade the ſtreets, ſolliciting charity for the ſupport of themſelves and families.

By a private letter from the Shire of Sutherland we are informed, that the accounts ſent from North and South Carolina, by the ſeveral Emigrants who went thither laſt year, have prevailed upon many others to follow their example, and they now are preparing to croſs the Atlantic, with their wives and children, as in their native country meal ſells at 16s. per boll.

A few days ſince 27 perſons from the neighbourhood of Thirſk, and five from Malton, paſſed through Leeds, on their way to Liverpool, in order to ſhip themſelves off for America; a perſon alſo went from Bramley, near that town, purpoſing to go to Philadelphia. They all took with them ſome woollens and other marketable goods.

Extract of a Letter from Canterbury, March 3.

"The ſhip that run aſhore off Kingſdown (as mentioned lately) proves to be the Dartmouth, Hall, from Boſton, in New-England, laden with oil and coffee, bound to London. She loſt her rudder, and received other damage."

It does not ſeem probable that L--d B------nt ſhould be in ſuch a dangerous ſituation as the news papers have for ſome days paſt reported, for L--d T-------d ſat very eaſy at Drury-lane Theatre laſt Tueſday night, and appeared rather chearful with the company in the box; but that behaviour might be aſſumed, on finding himſelf noticed by moſt of the audience.

NEW-YORK, April 26.

Monday Night put in here, in Diſtreſs, the Snow Philadelphia Packet, Captain Hollock, from Maryland, bound to Liverpool; ſhe left Maryland on the 11th of March, and on the 16th, in Lat. 36, 17, ſpoke a Brig, Captain Driſdell, from Maryland for Liverpool; on the 23d, they met with a violent Gale of Wind at S. S. W. which continued till the 27th, when he loſt his Mainmaſt, and all the Rigging belonging to it; on the 28th, loſt the Top of his Rudder, and next Day the Gale abated.

By a Letter from St. Vincents, of the 6th of March, we are informed, that Orders had been iſſued by Brigadier Dalrymple, for the 14th Regiment to embark on the 16th, and to ſail on the 20th, to relieve the 29th Battalion, in Garriſon at St. Auguſtine. The 31ſt Regiment was ordered to embark for New-York on the 25th.

The famous HORSE DABSTER;

IS in good order, and will cover this ſeaſon, till the firſt of Auguſt, at the ſubſcriber's, in Ridley townſhip, Cheſter county, within two miles of Cheſter-town, at Six Dollars the ſeaſon, Three Dollars the ſingle leap, or Five Pounds to inſure a colt; good paſture for mares, at 2/6 per week, will be provided, and good care taken of them, by CALEB PHIPPS.

DABSTER is a beautiful bay, 9 years old, 15 hands high, remarkable for ſtrength and lofty carriage; he was got by the noted running horſe Valiant, in old Virginia, imported by Col. Cox, came of the mare Expreſs, ſhe was a full blood, and ſprung from the beſt ſtock in Europe, and was likewiſe imported by Col. Cox; he won three grand purſes in old Virginia and was allowed to be one of the ſwifteſt horſes there. ¶

AS it is become a cuſtom, the ſubſcriber takes this method to inform the public, that, at a conſiderable expence, he has lately purchaſed two STALLIONS, of our own country breed, both in their prime, the one a fine cheſtnut ſorrel, well marked and well ſhaped, full 15 hands and an inch high, and is allowed, by the beſt judges, as ſwift a pacer as any on the continent; the other a dark bay, with a ſtar, and one white foot, he is of our old wood breed, 14 hands 3 inches high, which are known to be better for the ſervice of our country, than any imported from Europe, he is compleatly made, and will cover the enſuing ſeaſon, at the ſmall price of Ten Shillings per mare, and the cheſtnut ſorrel at Ten Shillings in hand, and Five Shillings more if a colt. The ſubſcriber lives in New-Garden townſhip, Cheſter county, at the Sign of the Coneſtogoe Waggon, where good paſture may be had for ſuch mares as may be left in his care, by ISAAC ALLEN. ¶

To be SOLD, by PUBLIC VENDUE, at DURHAM, on the Third Day of MAY next,

FORTY-FOUR TRACTS of LAND, being the lands bounded on Delaware, about 40 miles from the city of Philadelphia, well known by the name of The Durham Tract, divided into ſo many convenient farms. A furnace lately built, and the mine-hill, which contains a very great quantity of ore, of the beſt quality, are ſituate on one of them. Many of the others are extremely well watered, and contain great plenty of the beſt lime-ſtone; ſome of the tracts are already cleared for plantations, and one of them has a large quantity of the beſt watered meadow in the province, and, on many of them, more of the like quality may be made. The land is in general good, and well adapted to the raiſing wheat, barley, &c. which may be tranſported to Philadelphia, by water, at a very reaſonable rate. A more particular account of the quantities, qualities, and advantages of the ſeveral tracts, is as follows, viz.

No. 1. Containing 327 acres. On this lot there is a log houſe, about 60 acres of land, moſtly low, cleared, and about 10 acres of meadow may be made, the remainder has a great quantity of thriving young timber, with very good lime and ſand ſtone thereon; in general, Durham creek running through this tract into Delaware, forms a very commodious landing place and harbour for boats at the mouth, as well as a convenient ſeat for erecting mills, and in all probability will become a conſiderable place for trade and buſineſs.

No. 2. Containing 335 acres and 142 perches. This lot includes the Upper Forge and the Rattle-ſnake Hill, in which is certainly contained much iron ore; there is a conſtant ſpring at the foot of Rattle-ſnake Hill, and a good proportion of meadow may be made. Two thirds of this lot is extraordinary land for tillage, and there is a good body of young thriving timber, lime, and a ſort of free or ſand-ſtone thereon, very uſeful.

No. 3. Containing 232 acres-----Includes the ſtamping-mill, furnace and mine-hill, in which, perhaps, is the beſt iron ore hitherto diſcovered in America; about 20 acres of watered meadow may be made, and there is ſome good thriving young timber thereon.

No. 4. Containing 244 acres and 50 perches. This is the Manſion-houſe Lot, ſo called---Is capable of being made an exceeding fine farm, there are 60 acres of extraordinary good watered meadow, and more may be made; about 50 acres of arable land cleared, a good orchard, a fine ſpring and ſpring-houſe, and ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 5. Containing 102 acres and 45 perches----Is a very good piece of land, hath lime-ſtone, ſeveral good ſprings, and is well wooded.

No. 6. Containing 168 acres and 56 perches----Is a very good tract of arable land; very little ſtony or broken; ſome meadow may be made.

No. 7. Containing 147 acres and 129 perches----There are ſprings, and ſome meadow may be made on this tract.

No. 8. Containing 168 acres and 32 perches----A good piece of land, thriving young wood, ſome meadow and upland cleared, 20 acres of meadow ground may be made, and the greateſt part watered.

No. 9. Containing 183 acres and 78 perches----Is generally well ſet with young timber; a ſmall improvement thereon; much meadow may be made.

No. 10. Containing 205 acres and 53 perches----Contains very good arable land; the ſouthermoſt part takes in part of Bucket's Hill; it has two good ſprings, and ſome thriving young timber.

No. 11. Containing 267 acres and 150 perches----A very fine lot, a great deal of good arable land, ſix acres of meadow are cleared, and much more may be made; extraordinary ſprings of water, and lime-ſtone.

No. 12. Containing 164 acres----The greateſt part thereof is good arable land, three ſprings, and a ſmall improvement by the river ſide.

No. 13. Containing 176 acres. This lot takes in the greateſt part of Roach's Run; ſuitable for erecting a mill, or mills; there is in the tract about 25 acres of low land by the river; the upland on the hill is good; a good ſpring and lime-ſtone thereon.

No. 14. Containing 205 acres and 36 perches---A good piec of land, about 71 acres of it low land; 14 acres of good meae dow may be made.

No. 15. Containing 163 acres. This is a very good lot, contains about 62 acres of low land on the river, all clear; 15 acres of meadow may be made and watered; there is a meſſuage on it.

No. 16. Containing 194 acres and 121 perches----Some good arable land; pleaty of water on this tract.

No. 17. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----In part good arable land, a few ſprings of water, the young wood on this lot thriving, and ſome timber; includes part of Bucket's Hill.

No. 18. Containing 223 acres and 11 perches----The arable land in this lot good, about 10 acres of meadow may be made, and moſtly watered; the young timber very thriving.

No. 19. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches----A very good lot, ſeveral ſmall ſtreams of water thereon, about 6 acres of meadow may be made, a ſmall improvement on it, the arable land good, and the young timber thrifty.

No. 20. Containing 145 acres and 5 perches---There is water on this lot; it includes part of Poquampum Hill; ſome cheſtnut wood.

No. 21. Containing 178 acres 120 perches----Takes in the the whole of Poquampum Hill, ſome water, and a good deal of young cheſtnut timber.

No. 22. Containing 57 acres 150 perches,
No. 23. Containing 88 acres 127 perches,
No. 24. Containing 76 acres 40 perches,
} Theſe three lots will ſerve for timber.

No. 25. Containing 237 acres and 68 perches----About 10 acres of meadow next the creek may be made, and ſome of it watered; the arable land under the hills, and in ſome ſpots on the hills, is very good, and lies well to the ſouth ſun.

No. 26. Containing 243 acres and 100 perches----About 30 acres of watered meadow may be made near the creek, the arable land under and on the hills, rather better than in the preceding lot.

No. 27. Containing 236 acres and 66 perches----About 10 acres of meadow ground can be made on this lot; the arable land good, as in the former lot; ſome lime-ſtone.

No. 28. Containing 297 acres and 153 perches----About 30 acres of meadow may be made on this lot, and great part watered; 10 acres thereof already cleared; a large proportion of arable land, and good lime-ſtone.

No. 29. Containing 276 acres and 101 perches----Is generally good arable land, there is a ſmall improvement, and ſome cleared land on it; two ſprings, and a quantity of meadow can be made; the young timber good and thrifty.

No. 30. Containing 277 acres and 35 perches----The quality of this lot near the ſame with the preceding.

No. 31. Containing 129 acres, called King David's Palace. This lot has ſome water, and on a part thereof is ſome of the very beſt cheſtnut wood on the whole Durham tract.

No. 32. Containing 257 acres and 80 perches. This lot is contiguous to No. 1, on the river, and generally good; near the half of it low land; an improvement thereon, near the river; one third part thereof cleared; lime-ſtone, and very good young thriving timber.

No. 33. Containing 193½ acres----Is nearly as good as lot No. 32; a part thereof cleared.

No. 34. Containing 90 acres and 50 perches. And, No. 35. Containing 86 acres and 100 perches. Both theſe lots have good arable land, and thriving young timber.

No. 36. Containing 191 acres and 126 perches----Includes Peter Grubb's and George Heinlein's improvements, about 7 acres of Meadow already made, and ſome more can be made; the arable land middling ſtrong and good; plenty of good ſpring water; lime-ſtone, and a ſhad-fiſhery.

No. 37. Containing 206 acres and 98 perches------George Kleiſſey's improvement.

No. 38. Containing 196 acres and 82 perches---Thirty acres clear; ſprings on the north and ſouth ſides; ſome apple and peach trees.

No. 39. Containing 209 acres and 98 perches-----A large quantity of meadow may be made; it is well watered.

No. 40. Containing 216 acres and 7 perches----What is ſaid of the preceding lot, may with equal propriety be ſaid of this.

No. 41. Containing 211 acres and 35 perches---Shirley's improvement is on the north end of this lot; ſome meadow is made, pretty good, and more can be made; ſprings on both ends of the lot; the young timber very thrifty.

No. 42. Containing 209 acres and 20 perches----Two little improvements, one on the ſouth and the other on the north ſide of this lot, ſome meadow to each, the reſt nearly the ſame as the preceding lot.

No. 43. Containing 207 acres----Water on each ſide; ſome meadow can be made; very thrifty young timber.

No. 44. Containing 114 acres. This lot is nearly of the ſame quality with lot No. 31, except ſome meadow which it has on it, and a cleared field of about 18 acres on the north end.

To be SOLD, or LETT,

A PLANTATION, in East-Nottingham, Chester county, containing about 180 acres of LAND, of which about 60 acres cleared, 10 acres thereof meadow, it is well watered with several constant streams, one of which is sufficient for a saw-mill, a considerable part of the woodland is suitable for meadow, and the whole well timbered. There are two commodious dwelling-houses, two barns, and a valuable young orchard, so that it may be conveniently divided into two small farms; there are about 8 acres of wheat in the ground, and 4 or 5 loads of hay in the barns, which a purchaser or tenant may have, and may immediately enter upon the premises. For terms, enquire of GEORGE CHURCHMAN, on the adjoining plantation, or of ISRAEL PEMBERTON, in Philadelphia.

TO BE LETT, on Groundrent,

SEVERAL LOTS, on the west side of Second-street, between Spruce and Pine-streets, and on the north side of Union-street, between Second and Third-streets. For terms, apply to SAMUEL PLEASANTS, who hath for sale, at his store, in Water-street, the second door above Chestnut-street, an assortment of best super and superfine BROADCLOTHS, being the remains of the store of CHARLES PEMBERTON, deceased; supers, at 23s. and superfines, at 32s. per yard, for cash only. Those persons yet indebted to the estate of Charles Pemberton, are desired to make speedy payment, to

SAMUEL PLEASANTS, Executor.

A MULATTOE GIRL's TIME to be disposed of, who has 5 years to serve, is capable of town or country business, and about 25 years old. Enquire of the Printers hereof. ¶

On Tuesday, the 29th of June next, by the Executors of Caleb Dorsey, of Anne-Arundel County, in the Province of Maryland, Esq; lately deceased, will be SOLD, on the Premises, by public VENDUE,

A TRACT of LAND, called Caleb's Delight Enlarged; also a Tract, called Timber-Ridge, and Part of a Tract, called the Mill-Frog, all adjoining and lying near the main Road between Baltimore and Frederick, about 30 Miles from Baltimore-Town, and containing in the whole about 2400 Acres. The said Lands are well adapted to Farming, and will be sold together, or in Parcels, as may best suit the Purchasers. Also, on Tuesday, the 20th of July, will be sold, by the said Executors, Two Thirds of about 6000 Acres of Land, lying in Anne-Arundel County, on Curtis's Creek, about 7 Miles from Baltimore-Town, on which is a neat well built Furnace, almost new, and delightfully situated, within 20 Yards of navigable Water, where a Vessel of 30 Tons Burthen can come to the Wharff; also a good Stone Dwelling-house, and sundry Out-houses, with a good Grist mill, and Saw-mill. The Land is in general well wooded, and perhaps produces some of the finest Pines in Maryland. The Sale will be at the said Furnace, where Attendance will be given, and Terms made known, by SAMUEL DORSEY, junior, MICHAEL PUE, Executors, MILCAH DORSEY, ELEANOR DORSEY, Executrixes. ¶

Head of Bohemia, March 26, 1773.

To be SOLD,

THE BOHEMIA MILLS, situate on the main branch of Bohemia river, in Cæcil county, Maryland, within a quarter of a mile of Bohemia landing, and six miles from Apoquinimink landing, in New-Castle county; the mill-house, dam, and all the other works are in good repair, and in proper order for making superfine flour; the boulting-cloths, hoisting works, rolling screen and fan, go by water; the stream of water upon which this mill is erected is good, and the situation is in the midst of an excellent wheat country, besides the advantage of purchasing, at a low rate, in Bohemia river, where not less than 50,000 bushels of the best wheat is landed in a year, there is also frequent demands for large quantities of flour at the mill, where the height of Philadelphia market is generally paid. Fifteen acres of excellent land, whereon are a dwelling-house, kitchen and stable, will be sold with the mill. The purchaser, paying one half of the purchase-money down, may have a considerable time for payment of the residue, by applying to WILLIAM RUMSEY, Esq; within a mile of the premises; or to the subscriber, at St. George's, in New-Castle county, may know the terms. JOSEPH WILLIAMS.

N. B. The said Mill is in a very convenient place for a wet and dry goods store. ¶

Richmond, James River, Virginia, January 1, 1773.

To be SOLD, by the SUBSCRIBER,

THAT valuable TRACT of LAND, called Mocock's Island, lying within a mile of the Mouth of Chickahomony river, one mile from James river, a quarter of a mile above Barret's ferry, and within ten miles of the city of Williamsburg: It contains six hundred acres of the highest, driest, and richest marsh in this colony; in its present state, during the spring and summer months, it will afford grazing for above one thousand head of cattle: In the marsh are three Islands, the eastermost or low Island contains about 150 acres of rich high land, has two good springs upon it, a barn, two Negroe-quarters, and an overseer's house; a quarter of a mile distant, is Middle or High Island, containing about 40 acres; half a mile distant, lies westermost Island, containing 3 or 4 acres; and they are so situated, that the banking in the marsh is rendered very easy; the eastern and northern parts of these Islands, are divided from the main land by a branch of the river, no more than 30 yards broad; and the southern and western parts, are divided by the main body of Chickahomony, about 300 yards broad; up this river is navigation for 20 miles, for vessels of 4000 bushels; the branch dividing the Island from the main land, is esteemed the best fowling and fishing in this colony: Opposite Low or Great Island there are on the continent one hundred and odd acres of well timbered land, belonging to this plantation, pleasantly situated, and overlooking the whole Island; this land runs from the branch, across the main road leading from the ferry to Williamsburg, so that the distance from town is not above 9 miles; common tides cover no part of the marsh; spring tides, with a continued north-east wind, cover the greater part of it, with four inches water; but the best criterion of the tide is taken from the remarkable great gust, on Friday, September 8, 1769, which spread over great part of America, and then there were only seven inches water in the said marsh. Any person purchasing this Island, may have the stock and utensils upon reasonable terms. PATRICK COUTTS. 6w.
